BRYAN THROWS BRIBERY CHARGE AT GOV. HARMON

PLAIN, UNVARNISHED LIE, SAYS HARMON'S MANAGER

Devanney, However, Does Not Deny Writing Letter Which Bryan Makes Public — National Committeeman Harvey Garber Gave Out the Letter at the Request of Bryan.

Columbus, Ohio, May 9.—Charges from William Jennings Bryan made at Findlay, Ohio, that friends of Governor Harmon had sought to purchase Bryan-pledged delegates to the 1908 convention, stirred the Ohio executive to a telegraphic denial today and brought from Mr. Bryan the publication of the letter on which he says the charges were based.

The letter was made public here by Harvey Garber, who said it was addressed to State Senator Frank T. Dore, of Tiffin.

The Alleged "Bribery" Letter.

It was signed Michael Devanney, of Cincinnati, and was in part:

"Cincinnati, June 29, 1908.—Dear Sir: In a conference with our mutual friend, Mr. —— ——, of ——, he advised me you were in touch with the two delegates from the —— district. He advised that you see Mr. —— ——, of ——, and have him see the delegate of that place, whose name he did not remember, and have him, together with Mr. —— ——, of ——, meet Mr. —— —— at Columbus on the evening of July 2, so that arrangements may be made for the trip to Denver.

"Mr. —— ——, of Cincinnati, will meet them and take care of their transportation to Denver.

"By this letter, my dear Mr. —— ——, you will see there is 'something doing,' and, whilst indorsements have been given in your district, I hope that your two delegates can see their way clear to vote for Judge Marmon on the first ballot at Denver."

Governor Harmon Makes Denial.

Mr. Garber, who is a member of the democratic national committee, declined to make known the names of those involved in the letter.

Governor Harmon sent a telegram to Colonel Bryan, denying charges made by Mr. Bryan that friends of the governor had tried to purchase Bryan delegates in 1908. He said:

"I repeat that no one authorized by me or with my knowledge or consent ever tried to purchase delegates. I never heard of such a thing except from your statement yesterday. At the date you mentioned I had accepted the nomination for governor and was not making any effort for the presidential nomination. If you have a letter showing what you say, why don't you publish it? The people are entitled to the facts and I wish them to be known."

Devanney Doesn't Deny Letter.

Cincinnati, May 9.—Michael Devanney, campaign manager for Governor Harmon, made an emphatic denial tonight of the charges brought against him by William J. Bryan.

Mr. Devanney, however, did not deny writing the letter, but said that he would have nothing to say until he saw it.

"When Mr. Bryan says that I attempted to purchase delegates in Ohio for Governor Harmon," said Mr. Devanney, "he is telling a plain, unvarnished lie, for never, either directly or indirectly, was there any attempt made by me to purchase any delegates for anybody."

Harmon Will Not Reply.

Cleveland, Ohio, May 9.—Governor Harmon, who spoke here tonight at a banquet of the Cleveland Press Association, said nothing about the charge that his friends had sought to purchase the votes of Bryan delegates to the last democratic national convention. Governor Harmon said in an interview, however, that he knew nothing about such a letter as that given out by Mr. Bryan, and that he did not purpose replying to the charge.

WATSON WILL GO AS GA. DELEGATE

Underwood Supporters Say His Work Entitles Him to It.

Declare Effort to Make Him "Apple of Discord" Will Not Work Out—Manager Hutchens and Other Leaders Will Give Him Their Support.

If Hon. Thomas E. Watson, of Thomson, desires to go to Baltimore as a member of the Georgia delegation, he will receive the support of the foremost Underwood leaders for that position.

This feeling upon their part has been conveyed to Mr. Watson, whose work in the campaign in behalf of Mr. Underwood, they consider, entitles him to membership in the delegation; and there seems to be no question that he will have their full backing in the state convention of May 29.

The only reason there has been any doubt at all about Mr. Watson's going to Baltimore as one of the Georgia delegation, it is said, arose from his own statement in The Jeffersonian a week ago, in which he said he had talked the matter over at home and decided that he would not go.

In the current issue of The Jeffersonian Mr. Watson says he does expect to go to Baltimore as a Georgia delegate, and this statement conveys the first information that he desired a place on the delegation.

A Little Piece of Politics.

There has been a steady and persistent effort made in the Wilson camps to inject Mr. Watson as an apple of discord into the ranks of the state convention.

The attempted breeding of discord has evidently a sinister political purpose back of it, but, say the Underwood leaders, it will not pan out.

It now appears that Mr. Underwood's friends will unquestionably accept the challenge, and, instead of permitting Mr. Watson to be used as an apple of discord, will get back of him and see that he does go to Baltimore as one of the Georgia delegation.

It has been with them all along only a question as to whether Mr. Watson desired to go, and now that they find he really does want to go, there is said to be no doubt he will have their earnest support.

Manager Hutchens for Him.

It would be sufficient answer to the intimation that Chairman Hutchens is opposing him, and other equally absurd statements, that, so far from Mr. Hutchens being opposed to him, it is known that immediately following the primary in which Mr. Underwood swept the state, Mr. Hutchens wrote to Mr. Watson, heartily congratulating him for the part he had taken in winning the victory. Mr. Hutchens stated openly that if Mr. Watson wanted to be a delegate to Baltimore, his work in behalf of Mr. Underwood certainly entitled him to it.

In fact, it may be stated that there would never have been any doubt about it at all had it not been for Mr. Watson's statement in The Jeffersonian of a week ago, which seemed to indicate that he had voluntarily decided to remain at home.

What Mr. Watson Says

The first indication that Mr. Watson desired to become a delegate to the national convention came in the current issue of The Jeffersonian, received in Atlanta Thursday. In that issue Mr. Watson, under the caption, "Meet Me in Atlanta, Boys," says:

"On the night preceding the convention I propose to hold a meeting in the ball room of the Kimball, and all delegates friendly to me are requested to attend.

"The city politicians who are hogging all the credit for the Underwood victory are courting a fight with me, and of this fight they can get just as much as they are looking for.

"What I said in the P. D. last week was in jest.

"I mean to head the Georgia delegation to Baltimore, or know the reason why.

COMMISSION TO REFORM COURTS OF ALABAMA

Montgomery, Ala., May 9.—Governor O'Neal today appointed a commission of twenty-nine lawyers and judges to revise the system of civil and criminal court procedure in Alabama. Chief Justice R. Dowdell, of the supreme court, heads the list. Recommendations made by the commission will be presented to the next legislature. One object will be to reduce the number of courts.

BLACK EYE GIVEN COMMERCE COURT BY DEMOCRATS

TARIFF BOARD PLAN DEVISED BY DEMOCRATS

Leader Underwood and Others Have Provision Adopted That Surprises Republicans--Democrats Split on Some Provisions of Legislative, Executive and Judicial Money Bill.

Washington, May 9.—Revolutionary proposals such as have not been grouped in any bill passed by the present sesion of congress were adopted by the house today in the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. The measure will be voted on and probably passed formally tomorrow. The bill now proposes:

Abolition of the United States commerce court and the restoration to the interstate commerce commission of all railroad regulatory power, subject to appeal only to the United States district courts.

Creation of a bureau of foreign and domestic commerce with all the present powers of the so-called tariff board, to be under the jurisdiction of the secretary of commerce and labor. The new bureau would absorb the bureau of trade relations of the state department and the bureaus of manufactures and statistics of the department of commerce and labor.

House Overruled Committee.

In addition to these three principal changes in the operation of the government, the house overruled the committee in charge of the bill in a number of instances.

After a bitter fight the house defeated a proposal to abolish the mints at San Francisco, New Orleans and Carson City and the assay offices at Boise, Charlotte, N. C.; Deadwood, S. D.; Helena, Mont.; Seattle, Wash., and Salt Lake City. It also refused to abolish the position of deputy commissioner of lighthouse service and on this latter Speaker Clark joined with the opposition to the committee.

The defection in the democratic rank caused an outbreak in the closing hours of the session, which lasted from 11 o'clock this morning until 9 o'clock tonight. The house under a misapprehension, had just repudiated the committee on the clause providing for concentration in sending out public documents by adopting an amendment excepting the agricultural department, when Chairman Fitzgerald arose in a chamber crowded with a cheering, hooting crowd.

Fitzgerald's Veiled Attack on Clark.

"I have sat here," he said, "and have seen certain distinguished members of my own party vote to overrule its committee. Working in the interests of economy and for the carrying out of the party's pledge to that end, these men have forsaken the committee, and if defeat is the party's portion in November they will be responsible."

Seeing in Mr. Fitzgerald's remarks a veiled attack on Speaker Clark, republican members deserted that side of the chamber and crowded around him. No names were mentioned, however, and although the speaker hurried in from his office during the attack, he took no notice of it, while Mr. Fitzgerald denounced those democrats who voted against their committee as "political guerrillas."

The fight for the abolition of the commerce court was led by Representative Sims, of Tennessee, democrat, who framed the legislation abolishing that tribunal. He was opposed by Representatives Driscoll, of New York, and Stevens, of Minnesota, republicans, but when the provision was adopted, 120 to 49, many republicans voted with the democrats.

When the house adjourned at 9 o'clock it was with the general understanding that the measure would be passed tomorrow.

TARIFF BOARD PLAN JARS REPUBLICANS

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—Great surprise struck the republicans in the house today, as well as a large part of the rank and file of democrats, when a tariff board scheme devised by Representatives Oscar W. Underwood, Swager Sherly, of Kentucky, and John H. Fitzgerald, of New York, was proposed and promptly adopted.

The scheme preserves the idea incorporated in the present tariff board of President Taft, but cuts the expense in half, and provides for report to be made to either house of congress as well as to the president, thus eliminating the greatest objections urged to the present board. The measure was rushed through with the support of both democratic and insurgent votes.

Speaker Clark said he was willing for the democratic party to go before the country with the statement that they would be glad to secure any available information to aid in framing proper tariff legislation, from no matter what source the information came. He said if there was to be a board of tariff experts they should be real experts and not politicians, small or great.

The provision for the new bureau which is to cost $100,000 a year instead of $225,000, in the form of an amendment to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. It creates a bureau of foreign and domestic commerce in the department of commerce and labor, which shall gather statistics relating to the cost both in this

MEN WHO FIGURE IN STEEL TRUST PROBE

The investigation into the steel business of the country begun as a preliminary to the government's suit to dissolve the United States Steel Corporation by Henry P. Brown will continue for at least two months. The evidence that Mr. Brown gathers will ultimately be turned over to the United States circuit court at Trenton, N. J., where arguments will probably be heard within a year. Jacob M. Dickinson, special assistant to the attorney general, and Henry E. Colton are in direct charge of the government's case. The corporation's counsel are Richard V. Lindabury, Cordenio A. Severance and Raynal C. Bolling. Wallace Buell, of Port Chester, N. Y., and George E. Holton, president of the Bryden Horseshoe Company of Catasauqua, Pa., were witnesses the first day.

THOUSANDS FILL REFUGEE CAMPS IN WET COUNTRY

And Number Is Increased Daily by the Arrival of Crowded Rescue Boats.

New Orleans, May 9.—Other than the rescue of marooned persons in the overflowed sections and the closing of an incipient crevasse at Illyria, near the mouth of the Mississippi river, the Louisiana flood situation today was without incident. Workmen in decreased numbers were engaged at nearly all doubtful places between Natchez and New Orleans, taking advantage of the fair weather in strengthening embankments.

Rescuers working in and near Lettsworth, where the Torras crevasse has spread water over portions of two parishes, have about completed their work and turned their attention to places more distant from the river. Water from the Torras crevasse rose 3 inches at Morganza today. Railroads in that section are paralyzed by the washouts.

Refugees Pouring In.

Refugees are continuing to pour into Baton Rouge, Opelousas and other concentration camps whence they are transferred to places less congested. Few refugees arrived at New Roads today because train service about New Roads had to be suspended. The remaining refugees from Morganza and Bacvhelor were sent to Port Hickey.

Lieutenant H. J. Weeks, in charge of the rescue corps at Morganza, today received a telegram from Batchelor to the effect that the country was well cleared of refugees and that the motorboats would go to Morganza. All were anxious to get ito that portio of the submerged country to the south of that point as quickly as possible.

For the first time in weeks the United States engineers here, who have been working night and day, today took advantage of the respite. Chief Egleer S. O. Sherrill said that he had received no important telegrams, these having been supplanted by ordinary routine reports. With a few more days sunshine all were of the opinion that the probability of more serious crevasses was remote.

The River Stage.

At New Orleans the river stage at 7 o'clock tonight was 21.4 feet, no change having been recorded since 7 a. m. This was within one-tenth of the prediction recently revised by the United States weather bureau officials

NO 3-CENT PIECES WANTED BY STREET CAR COMPANIES

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—"One effect of the coinage of the 3-cent piece will be to reduce prices and to encourage economy," said an advocate of the new government coin, in a recent argument before the house of representatives.

Already the truth of that remark is becoming generally recognized by the street railway companies of the United States. They are moving on the senate to prevent the coinage of the new piece of money. A representative of the New York Traction interests is working valiently in Washington to defect the bill.

Just as California in the flush days of "'49" recognized no coin less than a quarter, and the south until recently has scorned the humble copper cent, the tendency today is to scrutinize the pennies. The half-cent piece is now demanded, but the 3-cent piece is causing the greatest panic. The street car companies are afraid the psychological effect of the new coin will be to revive the fight for lower fares.

HEALTH OF CITY AT STAKE TODAY

Garbage Disposal Plant Up to Finance Committee.

Here are the ten members of the finance committee of council which will decide this afternoon whether Atlanta is to have a modern sanitary garbage plant or continue to dump filth over the city: John S. Candler, chairman; A. J. Johnson, C. D. Knight, James E. Warren, Dr. C. J. Vaughan, James R. Nutting, F. J. Spratling, W. G. Humphrey, I. N. Ragsdale, John J. Greer.

The fate of the garbage disposal plant will rest with the finance committee of council, which meets at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The finance committee will be called upon to say whether Atlanta is to have its garbage destroyed by modern and sanitary methods or dumped around among the homes of the people, to breed flies and create sickness.

The question will be dollars and cents on one side and the people's health and lives on the other.

The board of health, after the most painstaking investigations, and after obtaining the expert advice of Dr. Rudolph Hering, decided that the very best thing the city could do would be to accept the bid of the New York Destructor Company for the erection of a modern high temperature garbage destroyer. The cost is to be $376,000, or $400,000 if the necessary machinery is provided to pump the city's water from the river to the reservoirs.

How It Can Be Paid For.

The company is willing to accept $55,000 as a first cash payment, and there is now available $50,000 of the bond issue. The company further agrees to accept $100,000 next year, and $75,000 each succeeding year until the whole amount is paid.

If the finance committee recommends to council the acceptance of the New York company's bid and council adopts

CRIED: I'M DYING, SID ALLEN DID IT

Witness Weeps as Repeats Judge Massie's Words.

Wytheville, Va., May 9.—"I'm dying, I'm dying. Sid Allen did it."

Judge Massie's first words as he fell mortally wounded during the pistol battle that killed four others in the Hillsville courthouse on March 14, were repeated today at the trial of Floyd Allen, one of the gang charged with the five murders.

Daniel Thomas, a sturdy countryman, who was first to reach the dying judge, detailed the scene and the fight. When he repeated Judge Massie's words his eyes filled with tears and he gave way to his emotions. "Sid" Allen never has been captured.

He Wants Court Shot Up.

One other incident, though it occurred outside the court room, touched the day's proceedings with the dramatic. Campbell Crowder, a friend of the Allens, was talking with some witnesses on the courthouse green when he exclaimed:

"I hope the Allens will shoot up this court wosse than the one at Hillsville."

Crowder was immediately taken before Judge Staples, who told him that any more such talk would mean a term in jail. The man had been drinking, but the incident served as a reminder that the Allen gang is not without friends.

The defense continued today its plan of building up evidence to disprove the prosecution's charge that the Allens hatched a conspiracy to shoot up the Hillsville court, and came prepared to do the work. It has been alleged that they even wore metal breastplates to protect them against the fire of the defenders.

Jack Allen, kinsman of all the gang, denied on the stand today that he had taken a steel breastplate from his brother Floyd before detectives had arrested him. Jack Allen resented the

Gen. Bennett H. Young Elected Commander-in-Chief, While Gen. Irvine Walker Is Made Honorary Commander—Reunion Has Passed Without Death of Single Veteran.

FOUR BOASTS ARE MADE BY NEW COMMANDER

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—General Young, elected commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans today at Macon, is quiet and modest, but he has four boasts which he sometimes makes. These are:

"I never swore an oath.
"I never told a lie.
"I never drank whisky.
"I never touched a card."

By Joe Curtis.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The twenty-second annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans came to a close tonight with the most brilliant event of all, the veterans' ball. Refreshed after the strenuous march of the afternoon, the heroes of the sixties, gallant to the last, joined the fair sponsors and maids at the camp auditorium and there for three hours participated in the merry whirl.

The grand march was led by General Bennett H. Young, newly-elected commander of the organization, and Miss Cora Mallory, of Florida, sponsor for the south. Only veterans and the official women were admitted to the ball, but despite this fact the big auditorium was filled to its capacity. It was a military ball in every sense of the word and the beautiful women in the arms of the uniformed veterans presented a picture that the old men will carry with them to their graves.

At midnight tonight Macon was fast being depopulated of her horde of visitors. By noon tomorrow fifty special trains will be speeding homeward. Tonight only 1,000 veterans are sleeping in Camp John B. Gordon. The big task of breaking camp will be turned over to city and county convicts.

LIVERY TRUST TURNED DOWN BY THOSE ATTENDING BALL.

Visitors to Macon who had engagements to take sponsors, maids and chaperons to the big ball tonight refused to be held up by a clique of Macon men, who attempted, through a "trust," to combine and make the price for landaus and carriages $25 per couple. Instead of using the best livery of the city, which was held at this exorbitant price, hacks and taxicabs were engaged at 25 cents the couple for the trip each way, and many who could not secure this service took the electric cars.

As a result, many of the livery owners were left in the lurch, and their carriages and landaus were not used at all, whereas they would all have been in service if the price had been held at the regulation price of $5.

In spite of the effort to restrict the attendance at the ball to those closely connected with the reunion, the great

EPWORTH LEAGUERS DEVOTE NIGHT TO MISSIONARY WORK

Mixing "halleluiahs" and "praise the Lords" with the protestations of a drunken man who had been brought in from the streets in order that he might be converted, the Epworth League workers from St. Paul's Methodist church last night participated in mission work on Marietta street.

Although the drunken man made quite as much noise as the preacher, not a person turned his head; not a word faltered on the earnest speaker's lips. His voice rose higher and his fervor increased.

Failing to quiet him or keep him contented in the seat, Superintendent Greer followed the drunken man from the hall into the street.

The services were at the Union Rescue Mission, at 234 Marietta street, an undenominational establishment, which invites the various churches each week to send out a group of speakers and singers.

John M. Green is superintendent and C. H. Burge is secretary. Meetings are held every night in the year, while once a week a special service is announced.

Last night the address was delivered by J. M. Davis, who read a few passages of the Scriptures and explained them in plain but enthusiastic terms to an attentive group of people, who were not backward in expressing audibly their support and approval.

On either side a saloon flanks the little mission, which is conspicuous at once by reason of its clean windows, its papered walls with mottoes, and its wide-open doors.

Straight-backed chairs are the pews, and when praying time comes chairs are swiftly moved to the front to form an improvised "altar rail" where men may kneel.

The religious feature of the mission is supplemented by charity and rescue work, and above the hall where the services are held are two rooms where a night's lodging is given free to any men who apply—as long as beds remain.

A large number of the members of St. Paul's Epworth League went out to the mission Thursday night. Miss Moore played the piano, while Miss Lucile Bradbury and W. J. Boring sang. An experience meeting preceded the address.

hall was crowded. The brightly colored dresses, worn by the maids, matrons and sponsors, picked beauties from the entire south, presented a brilliant scene.

One hundred and nineteen special trains, held in readiness by the railroads, began to move out at 10 o'clock tonight, beginning the great exodus from this city.

PAGEANT PRESENTS PICTURE NEVER TO BE FORGOTTEN

Survivors of a once proud and victorious army passed in review this afternoon before their new commander-in-chief, General Bennett H. Young, in the presence of more than 100,000 persons. Veterans and visitors are unanimous in declaring that it was the largest and most imposing parade ever made at a reunion of the confederate army. More than one hour and twenty-five minutes was required for it to pass the review stand of Governor Brown and staff and General Young and staff, who were just opposite.

Over 10,000 gray-haired, gray-clad veterans, strong with the spirit of the sixties, accompanied by beautiful sponsors, maids and chaperons, were given an ovation of more than three hours.

To the roll of a hundred drums and the martial music of a score of brass bands, the steady marching of the feet that followed Pickett at Gettysburg, Stonewall Jackson in Virginia, and tramped through the Wilderness with Robert E. Lee to Appomattox, sounded through the streets. Limping veterans, distinguished generals, humble privates, shared equal honors.

The long line of soldiers, accompanied by handsome matrons, beautiful sponsors and maids, the national guard of many states, Boy Scouts, the bands, the bugle and drum corps and the ex-slaves who followed their masters through the fortunes of war, made a picture never to be forgotten by those who witnessed it.

Pathos and beauty and bravery shared equal parts in the great cavalcade. Here and there among the dashing generals and the beautiful women were battle-scarred veterans who had left arms or legs at Chickamauga, Bull Run or Shiloh. The crippled heroes were provided with automobiles and as the wound their way through the throng, the veterans acknowledged the constant ovation wita waving crutches.

To name the divisions that received constant ovation along the line of march would be merely to tell the name of each that appeared, but if there was one command that was received with a greater degree of enthusiasm than any other that honor belongs to Forrest's cavalry. More than 200 of the men who followed the dashing cavalry leader appeared mounted today. Some of them had a cdutch buckled to their saddle; others flapped an empty sleeve, and one old man sat proudly on his steed with the bridle reins wrapped around two stumped elbows.

As they moved slowly down on Cherry street the great throng joined as one person in a wildly enthusiastic cheer rarely ever equaled. Another feature which attracted great enthusiasm was the float carrying Miss Mary Scandrett, the queen of the reunion, and her maids. It was magnificently planned and executed.

GEN. FORREST'S GRANDSON RIDES AT HEAD OF TROOP

At the head of a troop of long-limbed, easy-riding men in gray, grizzled and lined, but kindly of face when the white beard did not hide the features, rode a 7-year-old boy in the full habiliments of a major general of the confederacy. He was the grandson of Nathan Bedford Forrest, the greatest of southern troopers. As the troop passed the stand where Governor Brown, of Georgia, and staff were sitting and as salute was given to the blur of gold braid and shining metal to the right, General Tyler dropped his horse behind and, as the little fellow urged his steed out in front, every member of the troop came to the salute to the baby grandson of his dead chieftain.

Behind Forrest's troops rode forty men, only survivors of the Georgia cavalry, and beside every horseman rode a girl in white, the touch of light and relief of youth affording a clear-cut contrast to the sombre gray and sober faces of the Tennesseans and Kentuckians ahead.

In one carriage rode three old men—all that was able to be present from the entire surviving roster of the cavalry of General "Joe" Wheeler. Here and there above this straggling regiment waved a banner bearing the names of Shiloh, Wilderness, Gettysburg, Vicksburg, Manassas and other conflicts now known to every American school boy. Several regiments carried "Old Glory" flaunting full and rippling to the breeze side by side with banners that had seen a score of battles on the losers' side of the strife.

Not a veteran has died during the present reunion, a record for all reunions ever held so far.

GENERAL BENNETT H. YOUNG MADE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

After honoring General Irvine Walker, of Charleston, S. C., the retired commander-in-chief, with the newly-created title of life honorary commander, the confederate veterans in their last session today stampeded for General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, Ky., as commander-in-chief for the ensuing year.

Pathos blended with joy and enthusiasm marked the closing session. Thousands of the veterans were divided in sympathy between General Walker, commander for the past year, who offered for re-election, and General Bennett Young, candidate to succeed him. General Van Zandt, of Fort Worth, Texas, was also a popular favorite, but when the suggestion was made to elect General Walker an honorary life commander the entire delegation east of the Mississippi river united on General Young. When this became apparent General Van Zandt withdrew from the race and the election was made unanimous.

Other officers were elected as follows:

LAST SESSION OF REUNION QUIET AND HARMONIOUS

The final session of the reunion differed from all of the others held in that it was entirely quiet and orderly. The great interest and fighting spirit which was so manifested Wednesday, when the selection of Chattanooga for the 1913 reunion occurred, was missing, and the meeting was one of peace and harmony. Sentiment and comradeship were the chief features of the meeting, and it will go down in confederate history as being one of the most beautiful and touching ever held.

At the close of the election, when General Young turned to the rostrum, he was seized in the arms of three handsome women, who kissed him repeatedly and filled his arms with great bouquets, while the veterans rose up and filled the air with cheer after cheer. A band in the far corner of the auditorium struck up "Dixie" and the enthusiasm of the great crowd knew no bounds.

The ladies who embraced the new commander-in-chief were Mrs. Towne Randolph Leigh of Montgomery, sponsor on his staff and chairman of the Chickamauga monument commission; Mrs Alderson, wife of the adjutant general of Florida, and Mrs. Howard, wife of a prominent Florida general.

Soon after the election occurred Governor and Mrs. Brown and members of his staff, all in dress uniform, came to the platform and were introduced. Governor Brown spoke a few words, expressing a cordial welcome on behalf of Georgia to the veterans. His remarks were loudly cheered.

The last official act of the veterans was to pass resolutions thanking Macon for its hospitality, the railroads, the press and all who have helped to make the reunion such a great success.

In accepting the office of commander-in-chief, General Bennett H. Young said in part:

"You have chosen me, my comrades, to what I consider is the highest and greatest honor in the gift of men. I would rather be commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans than sit in the chair now occupied by William H. Taft as president of the United States."

One of Morgan's Men.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—General Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, elected commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans today at Macon, was "one of Morgan's men." This term is always served to describe in Kentucky those who fought during the civil war under the famous confederate cavalry leader, General John H. Morgan, and who followed him on his raids into the heart of the northern country.

Born in 1843 in Jessamine county, Kentucky, in the heart of the blue grass country, Bennett Young is said to have lived up to the proud Kentucky accomplishment and boast of having learned to ride before he could walk. Leaving college as a youth, only 18 years old, he gave up his books for the saber and spurs of a confederate trooper, and with the exception of the time he spent in northern prisons, served continuously until the close of the hostilities.

Since the war General Young has combined farming with the practice of law, as well as serving as a director of numerous banking, trust and insurance companies.

Declined Political Office.

General Young is by political preference a democrat, but has consistently declined political office. He is prominent in the Southern Presbyterian church, serving one term as moderator of the synod of Kentucky.

Coming from a family of slaveholders, General Young has always been a staunch friend of the negro, and much of his philanthropic work, both personal and in connection with church charity, has been devoted to this race.

A year ago when General Young was taken to a Baltimore hospital for an operation special prayers for his speedy recovery were offered in many of the negro churches of Louisville.

Among the many princes and chiefs of India who attended the grand coronation Durbar ceremonies at Delhi, India, when King George and Queen Mary were crowned emperor and empress of India amid scenes of barbaric splendor, none attracted more attention among the native rulers than did the Begum of Bhopal, the only woman ruler in that far-off land of mystery.

The Begum of Bhopal is the descendant of a long line of Maharajahs and inherited her throne and territory from her father. Bhopal is noted for its natural wealth and its rulers for centuries added to the treasure room of precious jewels. It is a trite saying in India among the natives when speaking of one's wealth to say, "As rich as the Begum of Bhopal."

By command of King George, Charles Urban, the inventor of the wonderful Kinemacolor process of taking motion pictures in nature's own colors, went to India and obtained all the scenes and incidents of the Durbar by means of this remarkable invention.

The same superb Durbar pictures have been secured as the attraction at the Grand for this week and all next week, and are being shown there twice daily, matinees being given at 2:30 o'clock and evening performances at 8:30.

THOUSANDS FILL REFUGEE CAMPS

who believe that the stage will not go over 21.5 unless southerly winds prevail, tending to hold back the water.

Probably two hundred workmen are still employed on the levee in the Third district near the American Sugar refinery. Those in charge stated that this levee would be filled out as far as the revetment only as a measure of precaution, and that the activity did not indicate that the embankment was weak or the work necessary.

The break at Illyria on the west bank was discovered about 5 o'clock this morning and was about 10 feet in width. Emergency gangs were put to work immediately and the hole was stopped. The country thereabouts is sparsely settled, the proximity of outlets to Barataria Bay preclude the possibility of much damage in the event of a crevasse in that section.

GAYNOR TO RAISE FUND FOR FLOOD SUFFERERS

New York, May 9—Mayor Gaynor sent telegrams to the governors of three southern states offering to see that a relief fund for flood sufferers is inaugurated here if advised that the necessity existed. The telegrams were sent to Governors Brewer, of Mississippi; Donaghey, of Arkansas, and Sanders, of Louisiana.

"Many of us here are much concerned by newspaper dispatches giving the details of the damage being done by the river overflow and the losses and distress caused thereby to many families," the message read. "Is the distress as great as this, and will it be agreeable to you, if we should make up a fund here to relieve those in distress? New York city has long been indebted to the southern states for many of our most useful citizens, and we should be glad to make some recognition of this fact."

Baton Rouge, La., May 9.—In replying to telegraphic inquiry from Mayor Gaynor, of New York, concerning conditions in the flooded district of Louisiana, Governor Sanders tonight informed the mayor that there were 5,000 refugees here, and as many more due to arrive.

"One-fifth of our state agricultural regions will have to be exempted from state taxation this year," said the governor, "by reason of crop failure. Refugees consist mainly of negro women and children, and the poorer class of white people. The resources of the commonwealth and its population are being strained to the utmost, the federal government appropriations covering only the barest basic rations and the employment of boats for saving lives and live stock. The additional expense of establishing and maintaining camps and their sanitation and a hundred and one incidental expenses fall upon the people of this commonwealth, aided by generous assistance which has come from other quarters outside our commonwealth.

LOSS OF $50,000,000 ON THE COTTON CROP

Washington, May 9.—Contending for liberal appropriations for the Mississippi river in the river and harbor appropriation bill, Senator Percy, of Mississippi, today declared that the money loss caused by the present floods was twice as great as the cost of a complete levee system down from Cairo. He said the loss on the cotton crop alone would amount to $50,000,000.

Mr. Percy urged the rapid improvement of the Mississippi levees as most economical. Saying that the maintenance of the levee system was beyond the powers of the people of the section, he declared that if congress should announce a policy of withdrawing aid the region would become a waste.

SCORES OF FAMILIES FLEE BEFORE FLOOD

New Roads, La., May 9.—Gangs went to work this morning building dykes to keep out the Torras flood waters, which are rapidly surrounding the town. Scores of families are leaving for other places, but it is believed that if the Lakeland and Scott levees hold, not much water will reach here. Reports from Oscar, 8 miles west, state that the water there is 10 feet deep in places, and rapidly rising. Relief parties have about completed work about Morganza and have turned their attention to this section.

There are approximately 15,000 persons in what is known as the New Roads district. Lieutenant Weeks has decided upon Cook's Landing, a short distance south, as the point of concentration in the event of trouble and a fleet of steamboats and barges has been ordered to report there early tomorrow. Relief trains tonight could operate as far south as Port Allen, opposite Baton Rouge and service will be maintained as long as the tracks are above water.

Farmers driving their livestock in advance of the flood arrived here early today from the country around Fordoche and report there are hundreds of people marooned in their homes in that vicinity in urgent need of relief. Motorboats were unable to reach that district yesterday owing to a series of accidents.

Looters in skiffs and flatboats are reported to be reaping a rich harvest in the inundated country. Many houses from which their occupants were hastily driven have been broken open and robbed, and in some instances money and valuables to a considerable amount secured.

Judging from the large families that have passed through the New Roads relay station during the past week there is no race suicide in Pointe Coupee parish. One robust white woman with an Amazonian build had sixteen little children strung out after her when she climbed down the steps out of a relief train. Mothers with eight and nine children are numerous among the refugees.

The majority of the negro refugees who pass through here are as happy as a crowd bound for a picnic. When one of the relief trains pulled into the station here today a negro was seen sitting on a pile of household plunder loaded on a flat car picking a banjo, another rattling a pair of bones and a group of others dancing on an end of the car.

All told the same story of hardship, misery and suffering. Most of them have been rendered penniless, possessing nothing now but the clothing they wear.

17,000 ARE HOMELESS BY TORRAS CREVASSE

Baton Rouge, La., May 9.—Approximately 17,000 were made homeless by the crevasse at Torras, La., and 12,000 are receiving subsistence from the United States government, according to figures in the governor's office and in the office of Captain Logan, in charge of the United States army relief and rescue work. Probably 4,500 of these are in Baton Rouge. Five thousand are caring for themselves.

The thousands made homeless by the Panther Forest, Dog Tail and other crevasses have not been accounted for officially, and it will probably require weeks to ascertain approximately the number of persons who were forced to flee their homes before the rush of the waters from the Mississippi river. Many thousands are in Vicksburg, Natchez and other Mississippi cities.

Seven deaths, three of them white, have been accounted for. There have been numerous reports of other deaths from drowning, but verification up to the present has been impossible.

Activity today was centered on getting the inhabitants out of the Bayou des Glaizes country and shipping additional refugees to this city. Fifty boats are being constructed at Opelousas to be sent up into the newly overflowed country. All the lowlands in the Atchafalaya country are filled, and Captain Bennet reports that the situation is becoming more critical. People are fleeing from Moreauville, where the water today was 4 feet deep in the depot.

One woman who arrived here today brought twelve children. One woman was brought in on a mattress, with a child but 2 days old. The oldest refugee here is a negress. She says she is 112 years old, and she looks it.

COW MIRED IN LEVEE AND BREAK THREATENED

Melville, La., May 9.—Responding to an alarm that a crevasse was imminent in the Atchafalaya levee, opposite Melville, early today, flood fighters were confronted for a while by something new in the way of levee enemies in the time of floods. An old cow had become mired deep in the side of the levee, and was seriously threatening a break in the embankment by her frantic efforts to release herself. After an hour's unsuccessful endeavor of the levee workers to free the animal, the threatened danger was obviated by killing the cow.

FISH BEING FORCED THROUGH LEVEE HOLES

New Orleans, May 9.—The story from "up the river" that fresh fish were being forced by the pressure of the water through crayfish and muskrats' holes in the levee was received here with more or less incredulity until backed up by Captain C. O. Sherrill, chief of the United States army engineer corps, here. "Why, in one place in the St. Sophie levee below New Orleans recently," he said, "a 4-foot eel, a turtle that weighed about four pounds, and fish by the score, big and little, came through a muskrat hole. It is almost too common to excite comment."

The engineers find it a simple matter to locate a crayfish hole merely by putting aniline dye crystals in a perforated can suspended from the end of a pole by a string. The can is lowered where, in the engineer's judgment, the river side of the hole ought to be, and if the intake is anywhere in the immediate vicinity, tinted water will show on the landside. Earth is then dumped down the river side of the levee over the hole, as it is a waste of time to attempt to plug it up from the land side.

NEGRO-LOVERS OBJECT TO PRESSING NEGROES

Baton Rouge, La., May 9.—"All able-bodied men in refugee camps, regardless of color, are given the option of working and eating, or doing neither," said Governor J. Y. Sanders, who quit work on the levee today long enough to write a telegram to Oswald Garrison Villard, of New York city, chairman of the executive committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, why negroes in Louisiana were being forced to work repairing levees.

In his query Chairman Garrison Villard stated that the "New York evening papers report that negro flood refugees are being compelled to work on the levees by your order, without pay. We ask that you confirm, deny or explain this report, and if true, will you explain under what law this action is taken."

To his first statement Governor Sanders added:

"Thousands of citizens, including myself, are working day and night actually on the levee, voluntarily and without pay, trying to hold the flood area down to a minimum. The resources of the state are being strained almost to their utmost to save lives and property and care for the refugees, nine-tenths of whom are negroes. New homes are being provided for all refugee families who care to take advantage of the opportunity."

A. M. E. ZION NEGROES WANT MORE BISHOPS

Charlotte, N. C., May 9.—The general conference of the A. M. E. Zion church attended to routine matters for the most part today. It developed that there are eleven candidates for the bishopric and the most prominent are G. C. Cleminent and R. B. Bruce, of Charlotte. The conference took a ballot today as to whether or not it should vote by secret ballot or viva voce, the result being as follows: Yea 211, nay 109. The bench of bishops is opposed to the election of any more bishops, saying that there are eight of them and that they can do the work of the conference for the next four years, but the delegates who are attending the conference seem to think that it would be wise to elect as many as two more bishops.

DUELING IN THE ARMY OPPOSED BY GERMANS

Berlin, May 9.—The clericals today introduced a resolution into the reichstag asking the imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, to take steps to end dueling in the army, particularly the practice that makes it compulsory for an offended person to challenge the offender or leave the army.

Pending this reform the resolution demands the observances of the imperial order of 1897 restricting dueling. The resolution will be adopted, as the clericals and socialists demonstrated yesterday that they have a clear majority when co-operating.

RICHESON NOT PUT IN THE DEATH CELL

Boston, May 9.—Contrary to the general expectations, Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, who is sentenced to die in the electric chair during the week beginning May 19, was not removed to the death cell in the state prison today. Sheriff Quinn, of Suffolk county, who has charge of the jail where Richeson is confined, stated that while it was the general public belief that it was required that a condemned man should spend at least ten days in the death cell, it was not necessary, under the law, to take the prisoner there until the time of execution was close at hand. It was entirely at the sheriff's discretion, he said.

In Memory of Millet.

Washington, May 9.—Francis D. Millet, the artist and author who was lost in the Titanic disaster, was commemorated today as one who for years labored for the "uplift of standards of art" in a resolution adopted by the American Federation of Arts now holding its annual convention here. In further honor of Mr. Millet's memory the federation will hold a memorial meeting Saturday morning, at which addresses will be delivered by Senators Root and Lodge, Cass Gilbert, Charles F. Adams and Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution.

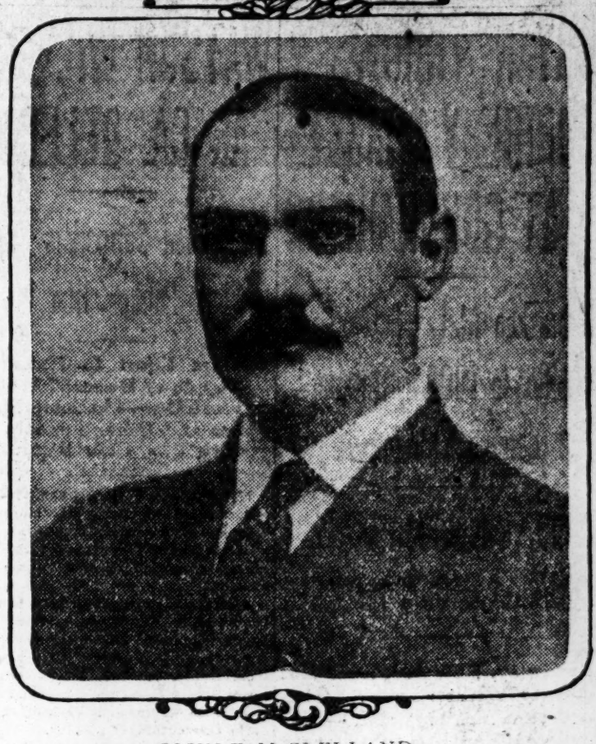

Boy Kills His Brother.

Federalsburg, Md., May 9.—Walter Thomas, 5 years old, was shot and instantly killed at Gilpins Point yesterday by his 7-year-old brother, Lee. Lee found a loaded gun belonging to his father and playfully pointing it at his brother, fumbled with the trigger. The weapon was discharged and the load struck Walter just beneath the eye, blowing the top of his head off.

Havana Strike Ends.

Havana, May 9.—An agreement has been reached between the shipping interests and the strikers to call off the strike, which has tied up all work at the port for several days. The men will return to work today. The terms of settlement have not yet been announced.

McCLELLAND MAKES ATTACK ON THE "CITY HALL CROWD"

JOHN E. McCLELLAND.

I note in The Georgian of May 8 that the "city politicians" are planning a combine in which they expect to dictate to Atlanta who shall be the mayor for the next two years. The report states that some man will be centered upon who will have the support of the "city hall crowd."

My opinion is that this constituted "Tammany" will sooner or later recognize the fact that the people elect city officials, and that any combinations they may make will, of course, have to be ratified by the people.

I announced for mayor without consulting a human being. I am in the race now, and will be to the finish. I have never solicited, nor will I solicit, the vote or influence, or ask any caucuses with the "city hall crowd," not in an offensive sense, but reserving the right and keeping unto myself the right to do that which I think is best for Atlanta. I do not want the support of the "Tammany crowd." Atlanta's birthright has already been sold by them for a "mess of pottage," and to compromise with them means that I, too, should lay down and LET CORPORATE INFLUENCES CONTROL ATLANTA.

I recognized the task that was before me when I promised the people I would equalize taxes and would build a municipal lighting plant for Atlanta. My agitation of equalization of taxes has this year raised the assessments practically twenty millions of dollars, and yet THE SMALL HOME OWNERS ARE STILL BEARING THE BURDEN. If elected mayor, I promise an additional increase of fifty million dollars, at the same time forcing an equalization of the larger holders of realty and personalty, and by such reducing the taxes of the small home owner, and I further promise that the farcical settlement made with the Georgia Railway and Electric Company SHALL AND WILL BE BROKEN, and Atlanta will furnish to her citizens electric light and power at one-half what they are paying for it today.

Let "Crowd" Go Its Limit.

Let the "city hall crowd" go its limit; name any candidate they desire, but I promise them that I will meet them in the open and, if need be, tell on every street corner in the city of Atlanta the infamy that has been practiced on Atlanta in the past, and the contemplated delivery of Atlanta's last vestige of rights.

I have no ambition to be mayor, but having accepted from the people a position in the city government, and trying to do my full duty, I have discovered that Atlanta has been made a "football" for politicians, and, standing alone if needs be, I shall make the fight that will give to the citizens of Atlanta their just due, and, irrespective of any of the combinations of the "city hall crowd," I shall dare to do what I believe is right. The people are the arbiters, and I shall insist that they have the right to name the mayor without any combining influences of the politicians.

At the proper time and place I shall be found in the midst of the fight, and believe that the people are so awakened to their own rights that I will have their support. Very respectfully,

J. E. M'CLELLAND.

For Invalids.

(From Harper's Bazar.)

With the aid of a carefully selected assortment of small molds, wonders can be accomplished in the way of simple but enticing desserts; gelatines, junkets, custards, blanc manges, and even the humble tapioca or rice pudding acquiring new and undreamed-of allurements when turned out in fancy forms and dressed with a cream or custard sauce to which has been imparted an unfamiliar tint by the addition of a very little vegetable coloring.

Attractive effects may be secured by filling one-half of a mold with bright-colored jelly—as raspberry or orange—and the other half with blanc mange, the jelly, of course, being allowed to harden before the latter is added. Another novel effect is produced by filling a scooped-out orange rind with successive layers of gelatine of three different colors and flavors. When hardened, the orange is cut into five sections, which are left joined at the base so that they fall apart like the petals of a lotus. In the center is placed a spoonful of whipped cream, over which a bit of the yellow rind is grated to suggest the tips of the stamens.

Suddenly Mother Hubbard remembered.

"It wouldn't be in the cupboard, anyway!" she eclaimed.

The Mints Are Saved.

Washington, May 9.—An attempt to abolish the mints at New Orleans, San Francisco and Carson, Nev., and the assay offices at Boise, Idaho; Deadwood, S. D.; Helena, Mont.; Seattle, Wash., and Salt Lake City was defeated in the house today, 92 to 61.

She Carries Explosive Cargo.

Norfolk, Va., May 9.—With three hundred barrels of crude petroleum and thirty drums of gasoline already in head hole the steamer Eva will tomorrow take on one thousand pounds of dynamite in Hampton Roads. The Eva is bound to Curacao, Dutch West Indies. She carries a crew of twenty-five men, but none of them appeared to know what use would be made of the dynamite when it reaches Curacao. The Eva, because of her explosive cargo, was given a wide berth by passing vessels.

GREAT SUFFRAGETTE PARADE IN NEW YORK

The ten thousand advocates of "votes for women," who paraded up Fifth avenue, New York, Saturday while perhaps half a million onlookers watched them believe that the showing they made will not only advance their cause in this state, but they think that it will have a similar effect in other states where the struggle for equal suffrage is in progress. The paraders were led by a company of women mounted on spirited horses, and among the paraders were women so old and feeble that they rode in carriages and children so young that they were pushed in perambulators by older enthusiasts. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont led one division, walking alone. There was some attempt at uniformity in the matter of dress, white predominating, and the official hat, a straw affair which cost 37 cents, was frequently seen.

IRISH HOME RULE DRAWS NEARER

Premier Asquith Closed Debate, Saying That Home Rule Was Payment of Debt Which England Had Long Owed to Ireland.

London, May 9.—The government carried the home rule bill on its second reading in the house of commons tonight, by a majority of 101, as against 94 for the first reading. The vote was 372 to 271.

It was the most largely attended house at the present parliament. Both sides had done their utmost to secure every available vote.

The bill was formally referred to a committee of the whole, but as home rule and Welsh disestablishment are being taken concurrently, it will now be the turn of the Welsh bill. The committee stage of the home rule bill is not expected to be reached until after Whitsuntide, and probably will occupy a couple of months, as the opposition is preparing an endless list of amendments.

The Word "Tory" Vanishes.

Curiously the second reading of the home rule bill coincides with the disappearance of the tory party. A conference of the conservative and liberal unionist parties today finally resulted in a fusion of the two parties under the title of "National Unionist Association." By this action the liberal unionists who seceded from Gladstone because of his espousal of home rule now become part and parcel of the tory party.

Declaring Irish nationalists had accepted the pending home rule bill as a final settlement of the quarrel between England and Ireland, John Redmond summed up for his party. Mr. Redmond declared that "if you want to remove the obstacles that stand in the way of mutual understanding which should exist between this country and the United States, you have a means of doing it now by passing this bill."

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, assailed the bill fiercely. The government, he declared, was setting up customs houses, not to create a union, but to destroy the union which already existed. He denounced the safeguards in the bill as utterly futile, condemned the financial provisions and drew a gloomy picture of Ireland's future under home rule.

Asquith Closes Debate.

Premier Asquith wound up the debate for the government in a brief and forceful speech, which aroused great enthusiasm on the part of his supporters. No serious attempt, he said, had been made by the opposition to meet the argument with which he opened the discussion—the character and persistence of the Irish demand. Had this demand been made under similar conditions by any community of their own race throughout the empire, there was not a man on either side who would not say that it was entitled to consideration.

A demand so persistent, con[illegible]ed the prime minister, was one [illegible]h a democratic parliament in these d[illegible] was bound to assent to.

Referring to the Ulster threats, Mr. Asquith said he believed the British people were not the people to be frightened out of what they believed to be just by language of intimidation.

Dealing with the safeguards, the premier said that if the Irish parliament passed acts transcending the bounds the government had set, these acts became void. No one was bound to obey them; no one could be punished for disobeying them.

In conclusion, Premier Asquith said that the claim of Ireland was of paramount urgency because there was no part of the United Kingdom to which the imperial parliament owed so long and so deep a debt.

John Redmond, on leaving parliament with his wife shortly after Mr. Asquith was also loudly cheered, many Irishmen in the crowd singing, "A Nation Once Again."

TO STRIKE OR NOT? 300,000 MEN VOTE

May Be Sympathy Walk Out on 47 Railroads to Aid the Harriman Strikers.

Kansas City Mo. May 9.—Strike ballots have been sent to 300,000 of the members of the Federation of Federations, the recently forced association of unions embracing five railway crafts, to determine whether shopmen employed on forty-seven railroads west and south of Chicago shall strike in sympathy with the men now out on the Harriman lines, according to announcement made here tonight by J. A. Franklin, one of the committee of twelve international presidents.

The strike vote is being taken in accordance with a resolution passed by the Federation of Federat[illegible]s to take such action in case fede[illegible] intervention in the troubles of the striking Harriman shopmen was not forthcoming, as in that case, the federation officials announced, they would have to believe that all future requests for mediation would be treated in the same manner.

No reply was received to a message several weeks ago asking President Taft to intervene, but President Franklin said tonight that this had nothing to do with the sending out of the ballots.

The result of the vote is not expected to be known for several weeks.

DROPPED 500 FEET INTO THE HUDSON

New York, May 9.—Rear Admiral Hugo Osterhaus, U. S. N., and his staff attended the luncheon given by the Aero Club of America this afternoon, although the plan of Robert J. Collier, president of the club, to deliver an invitation to the admiral in a unique way failed of successful execution, and came near resulting disastrously to Mr. Collier and Walter Brookins, his companion in a hydro-aeroplane messenger service flight.

Messrs. Collier and Brookins started in the machine from Sea Bright, N. J., intending to fly up the Hudson as far as Ninety-fifth street, circle the cruiser Washington, the rear admiral's flagship, and then, alighting on the river surface, glide alongside the cruiser so that Mr. Collier could step aboard and deliver the invitation.

Mr. Collier steered successfully until near the flagship when the engine of the hydro-aeroplane went dead. There was a tense moment or two for the anxious spectators on the cruiser and along the river bank when it was seen that the aviators were in trouble and it looked as if the machine was on the point of turning turtle.

The two men finally managed to get control of the planes, however, but were obliged to volplane abruptly to the river striking with a splash far beyond the stern of the cruiser. Both aviators were drenched but fortunately escaped any injury from their 500 foot drop. A tender from a nearby yacht came along side and towed the winged craft ashore. Then Mr. Collier got a launch and rode out to the cruiser to deliver his invitation. The luncheon was held at rooms of the Aero Club.

SUNDAY PUBLIC BATHING TO BE VOTED ON BY PEOPLE

President J. O. Cochran, of the park commission, says he intends to let the people of Atlanta vote on Sunday bathing. He proposes to install a ballot box in some down-town store where the people can vote either for or against bathing on Sunday in the Piedmont Park lake.

The Sunday bathing question came up at the last meeting of the park commission and by a vote of five to four it was prohibited. Commissioner Puckett, who voted for Sunday bathing, changed his vote in order to give notice of a motion to reconsider.

Since the matter has been held up, Mr. Cochran thinks it a good plan to have a "vox populi" expression. He will start the voting in a few days.

Deficiencies of "Old-Time Religion".—Rev. E. Dean Ellenwood will give the closing lecture in his series of "Frank Talks on Controverted Questions," which have attracted much attention at this church during the last few weeks at the Universalist church in East Harris street Sunday at 8 p. m. On Sunday night Mr. Ellenwood will give some significant reasons for the decline in religious interest in modern times which has been such a cause of anxiety to the ministers of Atlanta and which called forth such alarming addresses from the recent conference of the Northern Methodist church. His subject will be, "Why the 'Old-Time Religion' Does Not Satisfy the Twentieth Century."

Bible Class Meets.—The Bible lecture class of the First Methodist Sunday school will meet Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock in the main auditorium of the church, at the junction of Ivy and Peachtree streets. All are invited, especially local and out-of-town visitors.

Miraculous.

(McCall's Magazine.)

A lawyer was retained as counsel for a man who stepped into a hole in the street and broke his leg. The verdict was in favor of his client. After settling up the claim, he handed his client a silver dollar.

"What is this for?" asked the man.

The man regarded the dollar a moment, then looked at the lawyer. "What is the matter with this?" he asked. "Is it bad?"

NEGRO BISHOPS FOR THE NEGROES

That Question to Be Settled by Northern Methodists Today.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 9.—Addresses and reports concerning the Woman's Home Missionary society and the Board of Foreign Missions this afternoon and evening occupied the attention of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The Woman's Home Missionary society, in the thirty-one years of its existence, has acquired property amounting to $2,360,244, which is used for homes, missions and hospitals. The work of the society is done among southern whites, negroes, Mormons, Indians, immigrants and foreign population of large cities.

This evening was given over to a consideration of the work of the board of foreign missions.

The question of whether negro churches of the south shall have a bishop of their own race is to be settled tomorrow. The committee appointed to consider the question recommended today that the constitution of the church be so amended by the conference. If the amendment is carried it is probable Dr. R. E. Jones, of New Orleans, will be elected to the position.

The conference today approved the world-wide peace movement and commended President Taft for the part he has taken in it.

Former Vice President of the United States Charles W. Fairbanks, who is prominent in the church, arrived here today. He will deliver an address to the general council tomorrow night.

AFTER GAMBLING ON BALL GAMES

New York, May 9.—Reports that bookmakers and gamblers have been operating heavily at the big league baseball parks here and in other cities has stirred the New York club owners to an investigation.

Every trace of the gambling evil is to be stamped out summarily, it is announced, in a determined effort to save baseball from the stigma which crushed out the sport of horse racing in this country. The club owners have been assured hearty police support in any action they take against the gamblers.

According to newspaper investigators thousands of dollars are being wagered here daily on the results of the big league games, most of it being wagered through pools, for which tickets may be purchased at a price as low as 25 cents.

Hundreds of these pools are being operated from saloons and cigar stores in various sections of New York and Brooklyn.

"I thought you said George had married a good manager?"

"He did."

"I called on her yesterday and the house was in a terrible disorder. It looked as if everything had been left to take care of itself."

"But you should see her managing George."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"I breathe my vows from a surcharged heart," murmured the young man.

"Nonsense, Henry," said the college damsel. "You don't breathe from your heart; you breathe from your diaphragm."—Washington Herald.

Little Items of Georgia Cities

500 Pounds of Meat Stolen.

Hartwell, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Five hundred pounds of meat was stolen from the smokehouse of George W. Richardson, who resides on Benson street, Saturday night. Mr. Richardson is one of the prominent farmers of Hartwell's suburb and the loss falls heavily upon him. There are several clues, but as yet there are no arrests, although it is thought that they will be made within the next day or two.

Hill Made Sheriff.

Dawson, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The contest over the election of sheriff of Terrell county, which was filed with the democratic executive committee by Z. Turner on last Thursday, has been withdrawn and Miles G. Hill, the present incumbent, has been declared as duly nominated at the recent county primary election.

Mosley Made Superintendent.

Dawson, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—At a recent meeting of the board of education here Professor E. P. Mosley was unanimously elected as superintendent of the Dawson public schools for the next year. When Professor F. E. Land resigned the superintendency last December to accept the position of state supervisor of schools, Professor Mosley was promoted from the principalship to the position of superintendent for the unexpired term, and he has given so great satisfaction that the board saw fit to regularly elect him as superintendent for the next scholastic year.

Senator Deen's Picnic.

Waycross, Ga., May 9.—(Special.) Senator George W. Deen's annual homeseekers' picnic and barbecue will be given at his country home farm near Waycross, "Maryland," on May 24. Invitations have been sent to several thousand homeseekers throughout the country and many have signified their intention of coming to the spread. A feature of the barbecue and picnic will be the Ware menu, and a Ware exhibit. All Ware farmers are planning to take extra care with the exhibit this year, the third that the homeseekers' day has been set aside by Senator Deen.

To Visit Normal.

Athens, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The county superintendent of Putnam county, Professor W. C. Wright, of Eatonton, with his entire white corps of teachers of the common schools in that county, will invade Athens today to make a visit to the state normal school.

Williams Wants Reward.

Washington, Ga., May 9.—(Special.) Alleging that he complied with every term of the reward in capturing without assistance the negro, T. B. Walker, who shot and killed Capt. Charles S. Hollenshead last fall, Herbert Williams of Gibson, Ga., has filed suit for $500 in the Wilkes county court to recover the amount offered by Sheriff Bobo, of this county, for the capture and detention of Walker following his sensational get-away from the officers of the law at Barnett, when he was being brought from Augusta to Washington for execution. Payment was refused by the Wilkes county sheriff, on the ground that Mr. Williams did not capture the criminal unassisted, but was aided in running Walker to cover by the sheriffs of three counties and half a dozen citizens, who used bloodhounds.

Charged with Perjury.

Brunswick, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Charles Camilla, who is well known in this city, was ordered arrested Wednesday afternoon by Judge Krauss in the city court, on the charge of perjury, and was later placed in jail and bound over to the superior court under a bond of $300.

Greenville H. Cooksey.

Greenville H. Cooksey, 28 years old, the chef for the Seventeenth Infantry band, died of typhoid fever at 11 o'clock yesterday morning at 561 Marietta street. His sister, Mrs. J. Speer, of Downs, Kas., is in Atlanta. His brother, who lives in Ohio, is expected to arrive tonight. The body has been taken to the undertaking establishment of Barclay & Brandon's, and will be held until the arrival of the brother, at which time the funeral arrangements will be decided upon.

D. F. Hudson.

The funeral services of D. F. Hudson, who was killed in the wreck of a wrecking train at Gilmore Station on Wednesday night, will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the South Bend church, the services being conducted by the Gate City Council, No. 5, of the Junior Order United American Mechanics. The interment will be in the churchyard.

Mrs. Caroline Wallace.

Mrs. Caroline Wallace, aged 84 years, died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her residence in Ben Hill, Ga. She was the wife of S. W. Wallace, better known as "Uncle Henry," who is 87 years old. She is survived by four sons and six daughters. The funeral services will be held at Wesley Chapel Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, and the interment will be in the churchyard.

1868—Edward Grant Barrow, president of the Eastern League, born in Springfield, Ill.

1894—In the St. Louis-Cincinnati game the Missourians made six home runs, three of these swats coming in succession in the sixth inning. Frank Shugart, St. Louis shortstop, poled half of his team's four-baggers.

1909—The New York Nationals ended a five-game series with Boston, in which four of the contests were marked by a score of 2 to 1.

1910—Heinie Zimmerman made four errors at shortstop for the Cubs against the Giants, but made four hits, which helped the Cubs to win.

PEP-TO-LAC MAN COMES TO TOWN

J. H. Cross, associate manufacturer of Pep-To-Lac, the well-known and popular soft drink, is in the city calling on the trade, and boosting Pep-To-Lac. Mr. Cross reports big advance sales for his drink, and thinks that Pep-To-Lac is destined to have greater sales this year than ever before.

BOY RETURNS $510,000 AND IS GIVEN 25 CENTS

New York, May 9.—As a reward for his honesty in returning stock certificates valued at $510,000, which he found today in Exchange place, James Dowd, a messenger boy, 15 years old, who is employed by a Wall street news agency, was given 25 cents. The certificates were the property of a Broad street brokerage firm.

ATLANTA ELKS WILL GIVE DANCE TONIGHT

Atlanta Lodge No. 78, B. P. O. E. will be the host at an enjoyable informal dance tonight at the club house on Ellis street. This will be the second dance given at the club, the first being on the occasion of the formal opening. An unusually large crowd is expected to attend.

A cargo of 40,000 Chilian oak ties was recently shipped from Corral to South Africa, to the order of a London syndicate. If they prove satisfactory the syndicate is to take 500,000 more.

PULLS BABY FROM TRACKS AS HE DIVES FROM PILOT

Athens, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—"Soap" Lockett, a negro fireman on the Georgia Midland railroad train No. 2, today saved the life of a 2½-year-old white child, the daughter of John Potter, two miles south of Jefferson, in a heroic manner, the equal of which is seldom recorded.

On a curve in a cut Engineer Tom Adair, running thirty miles an hour, saw the tot in the middle of the track ahead and put on the reverse, sand and emergency, but as he saw no hope, cried, "Lord, have mercy!" The negro fireman shot out the window along the running board, and leaped from the pilot beam, grabbed the baby as he dived and rolled off the track.

The hind drivers stopped on the spot where the babe stood.

A Carnegie medal will be asked for as a reward to the negro.

REUNION VISITORS SURPRISED AT ATLANTA'S GREAT GROWTH

Two interested visitors to the city yesterday, one of whom had not been in Atlanta since 1863 and the other whose last visit was in 1895, were Rev. George D. Langston, of Goldsboro, N. C., and Samuel Lee Adams, of South Boston, Va., returning home from the reunion at Macon.

"What a change!" was the remark of Mr. Langston when he looked at the skyline broken with tall buildings, at the well-paved streets and beautiful lights. "My last remembrance of Atlanta is of a village, war-worn and poverty-ridden, scarred with the shells of conflict and oppressed with the incubus of strife.

"There were few buildings then, and the railroads ran straight through the town. Everything seemed without life, except at the call of a bugle, and the absence of loved ones at the front put a burden of woe on all hearts. Atlanta more than deserves her reputation for greatness, to have achieved so much in the way of regeneration since then."

Rev. Langston was here during the war as a member of company I, Seventh North Carolina cavalry, and served under General Hood. He was in many battles in this section, and took part in the battle of Atlanta.

Mr. Adams was here last to attend a reunion of the Chappell-Dickie-Carlington-Adams families, who have contributed so many prominent men to the south. They have now formed a permanent organization, of which Mr. Adams is the president. The Atlanta members include Judge Westmoreland, George H. Westmoreland and Mrs. Frank Stanton, as well as numerous others.

"Atlanta doesn't seem Atlanta, because I didn't get out at the old station and walk up to the Kimball house," said Mr. Adams laughingly. "This town is certainly progressive, and has made more strides than any other town I ever saw."

Both gentlemen were highly pleased with their stay in Macon, and with the success of the reunion. The decorations surpassed those of any other reunion, they declared, and the people of Macon lived up to the hospitable reputation in their entertainment.

STATE COMMITTEE MEETS HERE TODAY

The state executive committee will meet in the senate chamber this morning for the purpose of consolidating the vote cast in the primary of May 1 for democratic presidential nominee. There will be no contests before the committee, and its work will be a mere formality.

Chairman W. C. Wright, following the meeting, will notify each county chairman that Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, was the winner in the presidential primary, and under the rules fixed by the state committee it will be the duty of each county committee to select delegates from among "the known friends and supporters" of Mr. Underwood to the state convention not later than May 22.

MISTRIAL FOR LINDSEY.

Held on Charge of Killing Patrolman McPherson.

LaGrange, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—After about twenty hours' deliberation, the jury in the case of the state against J. E. Lindsey, charged with the murder of Patrolman McPherson, of West Point, on the night of February 28, disagreed, and a mistrial was declared. Lindsey was remanded to the county jail to await the next term of the superior court. E. H. Echols, charged with being accessory to the crime, will not be tried until the next term of court. He, also, was remanded to jail.

The history of the case is that, on the night of February 28, Lindsey and Echols met Patrolman McPherson and George Hurd near the Alabama line, in West Point. McPherson and Lindsey had an altercation over some remarks alleged to have been made by the former about some young women acquaintances of the latter. Lindsey says he fired a shot to scare McPherson, whereupon McPherson is alleged to have shot. The result, however, was that McPherson was shot in the abdomen, and died within two days.

MRS. DAISY GRACE GETS BOND TODAY

Solicitor General Dorsey Receives Report on E. H. Grace's Condition.

Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace will be released from the Tower some time today.

Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey yesterday received a letter from Eugene Grace's physician advising him of the condition of the wounded man and this morning the man who will prosecute Mrs. Grace when she is placed on trial for assault with intent to murder will name the bond which she will have to make before she can be released from the county jail.

Mrs. Grace was indicted by the Fulton county grand jury last Monday and immediately Solicitor Dorsey wrote for a full and frank account of Grace's condition. He received the report Thursday, but as it was confidential, he refused to divulge its contents. He said that the bond would be assessed some time today.

It is asserted by the attorneys for the defense that as soon as the bond is fixed it will be made. Mrs. Grace will remain in Atlanta and it is believed that she will return to the home of her nurse in West End, where she spent several weeks after the return from her trip to Philadelphia.

Judge Roan and Solicitor Dorsey held a conference Thursday afternoon in regard to the amount of the bond, but neither would tell the result of their deliberations. It is believed, however, that the amount of bond will not be more than $2,500, while it may be considerably less.

ATLANTA TYPOTHETAE GIVES ANNUAL BANQUET

The first annual dinner of the Atlanta Typothetae, commemorating the anniversary of their founding, was given last night at the Cafe Durand, with seventy-two guests present. A delightful dinner was followed by a smoker during a number of excellent speeches.

The program was as follows:

Welcome to the New Members—M. M. Davies.

Response—Mr. Dennis.

"What I Think of the Cost System"—Fred F. Lester.

On to Nashville—Emil Dittler.

"Standing by the Organization"—Shirley Brooks.

"Look Backward, Also Forward"—Charles P. Byrd.

The Typothetae is composed of the various printing firms in the city. Its officers are C. P. Byrd, president; W. O. Foote, vice president; S. A. Kysor, secretary and treasurer, and E. E. Laxman, acting secretary.

WHO WILL GET OFFICE RESIGNED BY BARRETT?

There is a vacancy on the water board caused by the resignation of Charles A. Barrett, commissioner from the second ward. Water board elections always cause much stir in local political circles and, it is said, the election which council will hold for a water commissioner at its meeting on May 20 will probably be no exception to the rule.

While there are no "candidates," the names of three citizens are being mentioned to fill the vacancy, J. J. West, of the West Lumber company, Augustus M. Moore, master mechanic of the Georgia Railway and Electric company, and D. E. Ashby, book dealer.

OIL MEN TO MEET IN ATLANTA TODAY

The National Expeller Cottonseed Crushers' Association meets in annual convention this morning at 10 o'clock in the assembly room of the Piedmont hotel. About fifty delegates will be in attendance, representing mills in all the southern states.

The officers of the association are A. C. Boynton, Carthage, Texas, president; H. G. Cherry, Kansas City, Mo., vice president; C. U. Dahlgren, Gloster, Miss., vice president; D. G. Dumas, Atlanta, secretary and treasurer.

The association is only two years old, but has a membership of seventy-five mills throughout the south. It was organized in March, 1910, in Dallas, Texas, with only thirty mills.

This association is a rival of the Interstate Cottonseed Crushers' Association, which is the older of the two. The mills of the latter organization use the old style process of extracting oil and making by-products, while the former association is composed of those mills which use a new process, which they claim is more effective and economical.

Various social features are being planned for the delegates during their stay in the city. They will be here through tomorrow.

EXERCISES HELD AT NEW SCHOOL

The cornerstone laying exercises at the new George W. Adair school were held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the corner of Catherine and Maryland avenues.

A large crowd was present and the exercises were decidedly impressive. The ceremonies were in charge of the local lodge of Masons, Grand Master Napier presiding. Speeches were delivered by President W. R. Daley and Shepard Bryan, of the board of education; George M. Napier, James L. Key and Mayor Courtland S. Winn. Alderman I. N. Ragsdale and Councilmen Claude Mason and D. J. Baker also made short talks on the growth and prospects of the George W. Adair school.

Following the physical culture drill by the hundreds of school children present and the song service rendered by both teachers and pupils, the cornerstone was laid and the following articles deposited within: History of the Masonic board of relief, by-laws of Atlanta lodge No. 59, F. & A. M., by-laws of the E. A. Minor lodge No. 603, by-laws of the Piedmont lodge No. 447 and the by-laws of the Gate City lodge No. 2, a large number of coins, the names of workmen who purchased the flag for the building, the badges of the president and vice president of the lady members of the Tenth Ward Club and a copy of The Atlanta Constitution of May 9, 1912.

GIVEN EIGHTEEN MONTHS IN THE ATLANTA PEN

New York, May 9.—In the criminal branch of the United States district court, Judge Hand today sentenced James O. Brzezinski, who had been convicted of perjury in connection with his testimony in the sugar underweighing frauds, to serve eighteen months in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga. Brzezinski formerly was a special agent of the treasury department. Judge Hand granted a stay of execution pending appeal.

Trade Chamber Favored.

Brunswick, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The city council of Brunswick and the board of county commissioners both went on record yesterday as willing to appropriate the sum of $2,000 each for the maintenance of a chamber of commerce with a paid secretary for the city of Brunswick, this action being taken at a joint session of the two bodies held at the county courthouse. The proposition was accepted unanimously by both council and county commissioners. A mass meeting will be held during the present week, when a permanent organization will be effected, and it is expected the new trades body will be a working organization in a very short time.

AMATEUR HOTEL KEEPERS IN MACON DISAPPOINTED

By Joe Curtis.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—"Stung!"

That is what Macon housewives who expected to "clean up" financially while the reunion was here are saying to each other.

Hundreds of Macon housekeepers expected to pick up enough pin money to keep them going for the next year by throwing open their homes to visitors. They rented cots and bed clothing, many investing as high as $50, and as yet they have not been occupied.

Parlors, sitting rooms, halls, extra bed rooms, and even bath rooms, were filled with cots, many rooms having ten or twelve, all advertised to rent at $1 each per night, were arranged. The reunion committee expected 150,000 visitors and begged the housekeepers to arrange for the accommodation of a large crowd. Alluring word pictures were painted to them of how $40 and $50 could be made each night for the entire week, and scarce indeed, is the family who did not take a "flyer" in the hotel business.

Lunch stands outside of the main business district, arranged at an expense of from $50 to $300, which expected to reap a harvest from the overflow of the crowd that could not be accommodated in the business district, have not taken in enough money to pay the extra cooks and waiters they hired. Church associations have gone bankrupt and charity organizations will have to have their treasuries replenished before they can do business again.

At the chamber of commerce there are listed 10,000 rooms, some of them with accommodations for as many as ten persons, that have never been called for. Another 5,000 rooms are available that were never listed. The hotels are well filled even at the exorbitant rates charged.

The truth of the matter is that the reunion committee arranged free accommodations for so many at Camp John B. Gordon that there has never been a demand for a majority of the rooms offered in the homes of the city.

TAFT AND 13 GOVERNORS GOING TO PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, May 9.—At a meeting here today of a committee arranging for a historical pageant to be held in Fairmount park next October, it became known that President Taft and the governors of the thirteen original states have expressed their intention of coming here October 9 to attend the observance of the 125th anniversary of the drafting of the constitution of the United States.

The observance of the anniversary will take place at Independence Hall and Chief Justice White, of the supreme court of the United States, will be the orator.

Some People Still Doubt the Wonderful Powers of Quaker Extract, So Here Is Another Cure of a Decatur Man for Them to Investigate.

Wonderful, wonderful, indeed, are the curative powers of Quaker Extract. This fact is being proven every day right here in Decatur and Atlanta. Hundreds and hundreds of people have been cured of rheumatism, catarrh and stomach troubles. They are people you know, your neighbors, your friends, your acquaintances. Many of these people have allowed their testimonials to be printed in the daily papers, thereby acknowledging openly their cure by Quaker. In spite of all these proofs there are still many people who say, "I cannot be cured, so what is the use of trying more medicine?" These poor, discouraged people are to be pitied; they will not take a cure if it is handed to them. They prefer to suffer. Well, let them continue in their misery, if they will not listen to reason. They can get the wonderful Quaker Extract in Atlanta at Coursey & Munn's drug store.

But they may want more proof that this remedy actually is still making great cures in this city. So here is the proof. If you do not believe what you read, then rouse yourself and investigate:

Mr. George Cook, of Decatur, Ga., and lives at R. F. D. No. 1, had been suffering for 3 or 4 years with catarrh of the stomach. Before taking two bottles of Quaker Extract could not walk more than 300 yards without stopping to rest. Now he is walking 5 miles to his work every morning. I most heartily recommend Quaker Extract to sufferers of catarrh of the stomach.

If you suffer from rheumatism, catarrh, kidney, liver, constipation, indigestion, blood or stomach troubles, call at Coursey & Munn's drug store, 29 Marietta street, and obtain these wonderful Quaker Herb Remedies. Do not delay your visit.

We prepay express charges on all orders of $3.00 or over, or your dealer.

MISS SCANDRETT CROWNED QUEEN OF REUNION

Surrounded by her maids-in-waiting, Miss Mary Scandrett, of Macon, was crowned queen of the south on the top of Coleman's Hill, from which Jefferson Davis spoke to confederate soldiers in the sixties. The picture was taken just after Colonel Walter A. Harris had placed the crown on Miss Scandrett's head.

RED CROSS WORK DURING CIVIL WAR

Special Committee to Report on Question to International Conference.

Washington, May 9.—The most important question before the International Red Cross conference, in session here, is "what can the Red Cross do in case of civil war, when internal jealousies exist."

Joshua R. Clark, Jr., solicitor of the United States department of state, was to have spoken on this subject today, but of so much value did the officers of the conference consider his paper and sugge[illegible]hat a special committee was named to report on Mr. Clark's paper before it is openly discussed.

On account of the delicacy and importance of the problem they decided that it would be better than submitting the paper for such off-hand, impromptu discussion as its presentation today would have involved.

The committee, composed of representatives from Germany, France, Russia, Italy, the United States, Greece and Cuba, will not have its report ready, it was said, until near the end of the conference next week.

Solicitor Clark's paper suggests that in time of civil war in a certain country, the Red Cross of another or other nations offer their assistance, to be guided in the work by the terms of an agreement conformable in general with practices which would be international in character.

Several recent charges by the revolutionists in Mexico that their wounded were not receiving as much attention from the Red Cross workers as they should, gives immediate interest to the question.

That each Red Cross society should ask from its country the rights and privileges, as far as possible, of exemption from taxation and custom duties, and that they be granted the mail franking privilege, was the resolution offered by Dr. Soubotitch, of Servia, and adopted.

Sir John Furley, of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, in England, spoke in favor of associations which do work similar to that of the Red Cross, declaring that close relations should exist between them, but that "two or three associations each differing in aims in peace, but with one object in war, can be organized more completely and economically if maintained separately until called on in time of war."

GOMEZ IS HELD BY THE REBELS

Provisional President Is Under Heavy Guard in Juarez Customs House.

Washington, May 9.—Emilio Vasquez Gomez is held a prisoner in the customs house in Juarez, according to advices to the state department today. A heavy guard has been thrown around the building. The department is further advised that Orozco probably will not confirm Gomez as president. The reports indicate the rebels have been defeated in the mountain pass, El Puerto Del Carmen, between Monclova and Cuatro Cienegas, Coahuila.

Emilio Vasquez Gomez probably will know within twenty-four hours whether he is provisional president of the rebel government or a prisoner of General Pascual Orozco. The special envoy from Gomez to Orozco was reported today to be returning with Orozco's answer.

No intimation of what it contains has reached here, but Gomez insists that were Orozco dissatisfied he would have wired a protest.

The approaching clash with the federals near Torreon probably is absorbing the attention of Orozco and political developments are likely to lag until after the battle.

ADENOID OPERATION FATAL FOR ATHENS BOY

Athens, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—One of the saddest deaths of recent time in this city was that yesterday morning of little O. D. Arnold, Jr., the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Arnold, of Patula avenue. The little one was brought to the office of a local doctor for an operation for adenoids and from some affection of heart which could not be detected by the physician he succumbed to the influence of the anaesthetic administered and never regained consciousness.

The funeral services were conducted today at 12 o'clock, noon, at the residence, Rev. S. J. Cartledge, pastor of the Prince Avenue Presbyterian church, officiating. The burial will be in the family burying ground near Mizpeh church in Jackson county.

ARCHBALD'S DEALS WITH RAILROADS

Conduct of the United States Judge to Be Thoroughly Investigated.

Washington, May 9.—Inquiry into charges of misconduct against Judge R. W. Archbald, of the commerce court, will be resumed tomorrow by the house judiciary committee which is to determine whether impeachment proceedings shall be brought against the jurist.

The committee will resume questioning Edward J. Williams, of Scranton, Pa., who told yesterday of his relations with Judge Archbald in a culm bank option transaction with the Erie railroad, while the railroad's "lighterage case" was before the commerce court, and of another transaction in which the judge was alleged to have given a note for $500 in payment for an interest in an option of Venezuelan timber lands.

The committee will also investigate a transaction in which Judge Archbald and a man named Dainty are alleged to have negotiated with the Lehigh Valley railroad for culm banks to be sold at a large profit as was the plan with the culm dumps solicited from the Erie railroad.

The Lehigh Valley transaction, it is said, never was concluded, an investigation of the Erie deal having been begun by the department of justice about the time the Lehigh negotiations were getting under way.

The documents in the Archbald case submitted to the house committee by direction of President Taft are believed to include other things not yet touched upon in the hearing.

Chairman Clayton today expressed the opinion that the hearings can be finished in two or three days.

All whose names have been mentioned thus far in connection with the alleged transactions will be summoned. Interstate Commerce Commissioner Meyer, who first called President Taft's attention to charges against Judge Archbald, will be asked to testify probably on Saturday.

IS ROOSEVELT EXEMPT FROM DUTY AS JUROR?

Albany, N. Y., May 9.—Attorney General Carmody has declined to pass upon the question of whether Colonel Theodore Roosevelt is exempt from the performance of jury duty. Recently the attorney general received a letter from Congressman Gardner, of Massachusetts, one of the anti-Roosevelt leaders in the recent Massachusetts primary election, stating that the question of Colonel Roosevelt's eligibility for jury duty had been raised by one of his constituents, W. S. Fernald, of Beverly, Mass.

"I have informed my constituent," says the letter, "that it is my impression that Colonel Roosevelt is not subject to this duty on account of his military service, but I shall appreciate it if you can send me a communication which I can forward to my constituent, giving the information he seeks."

In reply to Congressman Gardner, Attorney General Cormody says:

"In view of the possible significance of the question at the present time, as well as in view of its abstruse character, I must respectfully decline to render an opinion."

STIMSON IS DEFENDED IN AINSWORTH CASE

Washington, May 9.—A strong defense of Secretary Stimson and an attack on the majority of the house military affairs committee for its report on the circumstances which led to the retirement of Adjutant General Ainsworth after a threatened court-martial were contained in a report submitted to the house today by the minority members of the committee. The minority report declared that the majority exceeded its authority, and framed a report containing "intemperate statements," and was signed by Representative Prince, of Illinois.

The minority report held that the committee exceeded its jurisdiction in reviewing the conduct of General Ainsworth.

"What would become of the discipline of our fighting force if congress or its committees should deem themselves free to take up cudgels against the commander-in-chief on behalf of an officer whom he has disciplined?" demanded the report. "We submit that the majority report, on its face, shows itself to be a wholly unconstitutional attempt to assert powers not within the jurisdiction of this committee."

In conclusion, the minority report upheld the conduct of Secretary Stimson toward General Ainsworth.

APPEAL MADE FOR SEWANEE

Episcopalians Asked for Increased Support for University of the South.

Savannah, Ga., May 9.—The feature of the second day's convention of the Episcopal diocese of Georgia was the appearance before the convention of Dr. Frederick Benedict, dean of the theological department of the University of the South at Suwanee, to ask increased support of that institution by the diocese. Dr. Benedict explained the plan of raising a half million dollar fund for the university by prorating the amount among the various dioceses of the south and declared the university was unique in the south in that it stood more for ideal than the material side of education.

Bishop Reese announced to the women's auxiliary that he desired the organization hereafter to elect its own officers rather than have them appointed by the bishop, though he will appoint them one more time if desired. This will be decided this afternoon. The day's session was largely taken up with the discussion of financial affairs.

Bishop Reese made the appointments of the officers of the ladies' auxiliary for the ensuing year. The officers will be elected next year. The appointments are as follows:

President, Mrs. W. H. Elliott; vice presidents, Mrs. Charles Phinizy, of Augusta; Mrs. F. W. Winn, of Brunswick; Miss Annie C. Johnson, of Savannah; Mrs. A. R. Wright, of Albany; treasurer, Mrs. F. D. Tinsley, of Savannah; secretary for juniors, Miss Mary Cuthbert; secretary babies' branch, Mrs. H. C. Backus; treasurer of united offering, Mrs. E. C. Blount.

St. Mark's church, Brunswick, May 14, 1913, are the place and time selected for the next convention of the Episcopal diocese of Georgia. The selections were made late this afternoon during the final session of the convention at St. John's church here, a session made strenuous by successful efforts to escape a night session. Adjournment came late in the afternoon. Most of the delegates left for their homes tonight. Of interest today was the report of the committee on the state of the church, which showed a net decrease of 237 in the membership, due to revision of the rolls in some of the larger parishes. Sunday school rolls show large increase.

AMERICAN TOURISTS ON STRANDED ARCADIAN

London, May 9.—The Royal Mail Steam Packet Company received a cablegram from Colon today saying that their steamer Arcadian was aground on Salmadina bank, near Cartagena. The cablegram said that the vessel was in no danger. The Arcadian left New York April 27, bound for Colon and Southampton.

Colon, May 9.—Two steamers have gone aground in trying to assist the Arcadian, aground on Salmadina bank. The United Fruit Company's steamer Metapan, which left New York on April 24, and the Harrison liner Workman, which came to the Arcadian's aid, are now aground on the same bank.

The canal tugboat Empire and the United Fruit Company's steamer Zacapa, which left New York May 1 for Kingston, are now going to render assistance.

Everybody on board is reported to be safe.

GEORGIA ALUMNI WILL GIVE DINNER ON MAY 18

The University of Georgia Alumni Association of Atlanta will give its first annual dinner at the Capital City Club Saturday evening, May 18, at 8 o'clock. Every alumnus of the university living in Atlanta and the state is cordially invited to be present.

Robert F. Maddox, president of the association, will preside as toastmaster, and speches will be made by some of our best-known speakers. A splendid menu will be served, and in all, a great time is promised. The plates will be $3 each.

$34,000,000 CARRIED BY WATERWAYS MEASURE

Washington, May 9.—The river and harbor appropriation bill was passed by the senate today, amended to carry $8,000,000 more than as passed by the house and making a total of about $34,000,000.

The principal increase was $2,500,000 to the house provision of $3,500,000 for improving the Mississippi. The relation of that item to the flood situation caused a long debate which took up most of today's session.

The balance of the increase made by the senate was composed mainly of smaller amounts, principal among them being Nantucket sound, $250,000; Jamaica bay, $500,000; Allegheny river, $300,000; Delaware river, $500,000; Cape Lookout, $300,000; St. Mary's river, $200,000; Chicago harbor, $350,000; Ohio river near Cairo, $250,000; Los Angeles harbor, $327,250.

MANIACS UNGUARDED AS RESULT OF STRIKE

Chicago, May 9.—Several hundred maniacs were without experienced guards when 25 men attendants at the Dunning asylum went on strike yesterday because they had received no pay for three months. Legal complications in appropriations has tied up their salaries.

The strikers were out ten hours. Then, having been guaranteed their pay, they returned to work.

While the guards were off duty physicians and others at the asylum adopted stringent measures and all the violent patients were quartered together.

To Probe Newspaper Union.

Washington, May 9.—Representative Taggart (democrat), of Kansas, today introduced a resolution directing the judiciary committee to investigate the Western Newspaper Union, with headquarters at Omaha, to learn if it operates in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law as a combination in restraint of trade, or is attempting to monopolize trade. A similar resolution directing an inquiry into the affairs of the concern was introduced several weeks ago.

It can be said of Oscar Underwood that at least he does not lead the house of representatives from a Pullman or over long-distance.

The Asheville Citizen thinks that the effort to limit the president's term to six years is a direct slap at the Colonel's kingly ambitions.

Watch Texas grow, The Houston Post boastfully asks of the world. Which the world would probably be glad to do if it wasn't so busy keeping up with Georgia.

All of revolutionary Georgia, which stretched from the Atlantic to the Mississippi, has united for its favorite stepson, the Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama.

THE SICK-DEVIL AND MR. WATSON.

The phrase runs, "the devil was sick and the devil a monk would be; the devil was well and devil a monk was he." That expresses precisely the attitude of the spokesmen of the lost Wilson cause in Georgia in their hypocritical anxiety lest Thomas E. Watson be not sent as a delegate to Baltimore. It is proclaimed, in mealy-mouthed accents, "At the very least, Watson is entitled to a place on the Underwood delegation to Baltimore."

He certainly is.

He supported Underwood, from conviction, fully, freely, unreservedly. If any man in the state is due a place on the delegation that man is Mr. Watson. And The Constitution makes the statement unqualifiedly. The one doubt, from the very first, as to Mr. Watson's going to Baltimore originated in his own statement that he did not care to go. He now announces that he is willing to go and The Constitution does not hesitate to say that the active assistance he rendered in carrying the state for Underwood entitles him to the recognition.

The Constitution owes nothing to Mr. Watson politically, but we are liberal enough not to deny to any man his just deserts.

We do not agree with Mr. Watson in some of the extremes to which he permits himself to go, but these divergencies are wholly irrelevant to the campaign that has just ended in Georgia. In that campaign, and acting upon a wholesome and sincere admiration for Underwood's character and policies, Mr. Watson voluntarily did yeoman service in his behalf. His own desire will dictate the action of the convention in sending him to Baltimore—but the convention will not be influenced by nor dictated to by those very sources that exhausted every ring trick and political maneuver to keep away from the state convention the men who are coming here as the result of the Underwood victory.

A lovely spectacle do these would-be trouble-makers present in their crocodile tears over the "attempt to side-track Mr. Watson." In the next breath they denounce him as the "crowning slanderer" of the recent campaign. They lack even the tact to attempt to hide their purpose by recanting their former villainous maligning of Mr. Watson. Only a few years ago they used him as a cat's-paw to the bent of their ability and of his willingness. Nothing was then too good for Watson, no word too flattering, no expressions too unctuous or servile. But the moment he had served his purpose he was kicked out of the back door with the declaration that he had done nothing that entitled him to consideration.

Failing to gain him later as an ally, they would use him as a tool, accusing others of the same sort of treachery and ingratitude toward him of which they stand themselves convicted.

Their purpose will fail. However in the past, and upon what other issues, The Constitution has felt impelled, or may feel impelled, to differ with Mr. Watson—with regard to the Underwood campaign, in which he rendered whole-hearted public service, we do not hesitate to say that he should and will be honorably rewarded.

The convention that meets here on May 29 will do its full duty. It does not need the advice of those who were the bitterest opponents of the men who will compose that convention. If Underwood had been defeated, not a single delegate who will have a seat in that convention would have been sent here. It is not probable, therefore, that those who come as the result of the Underwood victory will lose any sleep over the tender sensibilities of the trouble-makers who would use Mr. Watson as an apple of discord to create dissension in the ranks of those against whom they marched to humiliating defeat.

AT GETTYSBURG.

Final evidence of the breadth and nobility characterizing the men of the sixties, and evidence no less conclusive of the disappearance of sectional bitterness, is offered in the attitude of the United Confederate Veterans toward the second call to Gettysburg. This time the summons is clothed in the habiliments of peace, being an invitation from the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic to participate in a celebration held upon the historic field itself of the semi-centenary of the battle that turned the tide of the civil war.

In a spirit of patriotism the bid was extended, and in a similar spirit it was accepted. Both sides can, with good grace, mingle and fraternize upon the spot where fifty years ago the two armies locked in the deadliest embrace of the four years' struggle. If the blue can claim that it was here the forward-rushing fortunes of the Confederacy were checked, the gray can with no less accuracy claim that here the soldiers of the stars and bars displayed a bravery, a brilliance of strategy and a sublime recklessness of life probably never equaled in war's red story. In the end, Gettysburg proved a federal victory, since it was here that Lee's invasion reached its farthest north, and the tragic clash of arms dispelled the apathy with which Lincoln had previous to that time been compelled to struggle. But from the standpoint of valor and bloodshed and devotion, not the difference of an eye-lash existed between the opposing armies.

So it is that—with animosities buried and friendship sealed—blue and gray can meet upon terms of absolute equality at Gettysburg—Americans all, brethren in fact as in word, the same flag floating over a country carved from destiny and won from the wilderness by our common forefathers.

DOLLARS V. LIVES IN ATLANTA.

The finance committee of council is this afternoon to arbitrate the issue for Atlanta as between dollars on one side and life and death on the other.

There is no other way in which to characterize correctly the settlement of the interminable dispute regarding a garbage disposal plant.

Month after month the board of health, the bond commission and the council have wrangled, studied, juggled and, some few of their members, it is to be regretted, have evaded.

In the meantime, eighteen-odd dumping grounds—all of them exposed and so placed in and around the city as to constitute a strategical conspiracy with the death rate—have received the bulk of the city's garbage. Each and all of them have been breeders and distributors of germs. Each has, to a decisive extent, nullified the otherwise excellent measures taken to combat disease in this city.

The time is come to call a halt to this murderous folly. The board of health—composed of patriotic and practical citizens, as well as experts—has investigated scrupulously and approved the plan now before the committee. Virtually as a unit the bond commission has followed suit. Dr. Rudolph Hering, the city's consulting engineer, has stamped the solution as ideal in every detail. The contract can be let under conditions of decided financial advantage to the city.

In the face of this showing, the finance committee has this afternoon but one course—and that is to indorse the proposed plan and recommend it to council which meets Monday.

We have fooled and dallied long enough with the problem of life and death. Failure to meet it squarely—and meet it now—will bring its sure consequence in public disapproval. The Constitution has confidence that the finance committee will do its duty.

GENERAL MICKLE PROPOSES ADMITTING "SONS" TO CAMPS

Macon, Ga., May 9.—The report of Adjutant General William E. Mickle, delivered at the confederate reunion, follows, in part:

"Notwithstanding the predictions which year after year I have made of the rapid diminution of the number of camps and the marked decrease in the revenue of the office, I am still able, I am proud to say, to make a most encouraging showing. This favorable condition is the more noticeable from the fact that extensive sections of southern territory are either under water or the lands seriously effected, causing great losses to numbers of our comrades, and intercepted communications with others, a state that has prevailed for some time.

"New camps continue to be admitted into the association, though the number, as was to be expected, is greatly reduced. Since the Little Rock reunion, charters have been issued to fourteen camps, distributed as follows: Georgia and Texas, each 5; Oklahoma, 2; West Virginia and Alabama, each 1.

"There has been the usual decrease in camps, to be attributed to the same cause which produced this result in the past—the passing away of the membership. There is no possible way to stop this waste, as members of those who fought so gallantly in our armies are rapidly crossing to the other shore to meet the great leaders already there. Only one course is open to keep alive the camps, and that is to devise some plan to admit the 'Sons' into membership, without permitting the control of affairs to be taken from the old soldiers till all have passed away. I suggest that a committee be appointed to investigate this subject, and submit a plan at our next reunion to merge the United Sons of Confederate Veterans into the United Confederate Veterans. In a few instances dormant camps have been revived, and this has made a better showing than we had any right to expect.

C. H. M'CALL SAYS CREMATORY WILL PROVE TOO EXPENSIVE

C. Horace McCall, the well-known broker, furnishes The Constitution with a card in regard to the proposed new garbage plant.

He makes one statement about the electric power which is to be generated for pumping the city's water which the city electrician says is an error. Mr. Turner, the city electrician, says that he will recommend the purchase of the new plant, and that it will not cost the city a dollar to buy storage batteries, as none will be used, that the city's present pumping machinery at the river will not be disturbed, and that the electric pump will be kept running all day and all night. He further states that the garbage plant can also furnish power for the White Way lights, thereby saving the city much expense.

Mr. McCall's statement about the people voting for only $50,000 of crematory bonds is answered by the president of the health board, who, says that the crematory bonds could have been made much more and easily carried, and that if another bond election were held tomorrow the people would glady vote for the necessary money to build a garbage plant.

In regard to the possibility of injunctions suits, of which Mr. McCall makes mention, the mayor and general council have decided that if there is to be an injunction the sooner it is over with the better for the city.

Mr. McCall's Statement.

Mr. McCall's card follows:

"Editor Constitution: The citizens of Atlanta voted $50,000 worth of bonds two years ago to build a temporary crematory in the city, and that is all that is available to give contract for. The $400,000 would not be carrying out the wishes of voters, and there are a thousand men ready to enjoin the city council from building a permanent one in their ward or any ward.

"This injunction would hold good in court, and the city fathers know this, and it would be a waste of time to go through this litigation, besides it would take a year to build this useless and extravagant crematory.

"The city council can build a high temperature crematory that would take care of all the garbage for $50,000. This crematory could be built in two or three months and save $390,000. This last named mount is to pay for 1,500 horse power. Now, this is excessive, as an engine and boiler of that amount can be bought for some $10,000. Therefore, a saving of $380,000. This $380,000 should be used in moving some of the 9,000 surface closets. Who wants electricity when our people are dying from these closets?

"Now, for using this power for pumping water, the machinery out at the waterworks station would have to be torn out and a loss of some $200,000. To store the electricity generated during the day to use at night would be a large expense, at least $150,000 for storage batteries. The garbage is only delivered during the day and burned then, so this electricity would have to be stored until night. Another thing, one pump would not do, as it may get out of order, and then the city would be out of water. It seems, therefore, a waste of time to even consider this expenditure of funds on a permanent plant in the city. Consult your electrician as to this storage plant and your manager of waterworks about the taking out of the machinery at waterworks, and you will see at once the improbability."

Dr. Gilbert's Answer.

"In reaching the decision to buy the plant offered the city by the Destructor Company of New York, we have given the matter our most careful attention, and have had the benefit of the advice of the greatest expert in the United States, Dr. Rudolph Hering," said Dr. Gilbert, president of the health board.

"We believe that we have acted wisely in recommending the purchase of this plant, and that Atlanta will profit greatly if the finance committee and city council follow our advice.

"So far as injunctions are concerned, no permanent injunction could ever be secured until a plant had proved to be a nuisance. If a temporary order was secured we could give bond and continue with the work.

"No $50,000 plant would ever serve the needs of Atlanta. Instead of this expenditure for the $376,000 plant being a waste of money, as Mr. McCall states, it would be the greatest investment Atlanta could make, and prove of immense value in preserving the health of our people."

OLD MAN GIVEN 1,300 COTS TO SLEEP ON AT REUNION

By Joe Curtis.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—George Riley, well known in Macon and throughout central-middle Georgia, is a loser by several thousand dollars as a result of the reunion, but has taken his medicine gamely.

Several weeks ago Mr. Riley engaged the second-story rooms of several business blocks for reunion week, paying a high rent. He then rented 1,300 cots, paying $1.65 for each for the week. These he furnished with bed clothing, and after placing them throughout the buildings, engaged sufficient servants to take care of the crowd he expected to accommodate during the reunion. The cots were advertised at $1 each per night.

The reunion is now over. Mr. Riley had one application for a cot from an old gentleman from Texas on one night. Riley would not accept the advertised fee of $1, but told him that the entire 1,300 cots were at his disposal as were the crew of servants that he had hired for the week. The Texas man has the distinction of occupying the most costly quarters of the reunion, although it did not cost him one penny.

TRUSTEES TAKE CHARGE OF OAKLAWN ACADEMY

Valdosta, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Valdosta Baptist association here yesterday, it was decided to turn Oaklawn academy, at Milltown, Ga., over to the trustees of the school, to do as they saw fit with the institution. Recently an educational corporation was formed in this city, composed of leading Baptists of this section, for the primary purpose of purchasing the school property, and by adequate financing improve and develop the institution, continuing it as a Baptist school and enlarging its scope and facilities. For some reason, however, the Valdosta association and the proposed corporation could not agree on the proposition. The meeting of the association yesterday, as stated above, decided to transfer the institution entirely to the trustees. The groundwork for a splendid school has been laid at Milltown, and it is believed that the Baptists of this section will rally to its support and make it the great institution it ought to be.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS TO MEET

A meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce has been called for this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and a full attendance is urged to consider some very important matters remaining unsettled. A membership meeting for the near future will also receive consideration.

GUATEMALA RAILROAD SOLD TO FRUIT COMPANY

San Francisco, May 9.—The Guatemala Central railroad in Gautemala was recently sold to Minor Keith and associates of the United Fruit Company for several million dollars, according to The Examiner today. The exact purchase price was not divulged. The railway is approximately 225 miles long, running from San Jose, on the Pacific to the capital. It is reported the purchasers intend to complete connections with the Pan-American road and arrange connection with Mexican lines.

LABOR LEADER MANN GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE

Manchester, England, May 9.—Convicted of having attempted to influence British soldiers from their duty, Tom Mann, a labor leader, was sentenced to six months in prison today. Mann was arrested last March after he had delivered a speech for striking coal miners at Salford.

To the court, Mann argued that he didn't influence the soldiers as soldiers, because when they were acting under the civil law they were only citizens. The court ignored the argument.

BALL PLAYERS LUNCH WITH NATIONAL SOLONS

Washington, May 9.—Vice President Sherman, Speaker Champ Clark, the members of the Illinois congressional delegation and the Chicago American League baseball team were guests of Representative Madden, of Illinois, at luncheon at the capitol today. The legislators insisted on talking baseball and the ball players tried to find out something about politics.

Later nearly all of the party went to the ball grounds. The vice president had assurances that his "grandmother" had suffered a "relapse," but Speaker Clark said he could not go to the game because his "houn' dawg" was barred from the park.

SHORN OF HER BRAIDS AND FORCED INTO CLOSET

Elyria, Ohio, May 9.—Shorn of her long braids of hair, Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, 16 years old, is consoled by the knowledge that she frightened away a thief who but for her would have appropriated $500 worth of her father's valuables.

The girl heard a noise in the house early yesterday morning and investigated. She was seized by a burglar, who cut off her braids, threw her into a closet, smashed a window and escaped, leaving his bag of plunder.

PRIMITIVE BAPTISTS PLAN FOOT WASHING CEREMONIES

JOHN E. TOWNSEND.

The Primitive Baptists of West Atlanta, one of the most unique religious sects of modern times, will hold their regular communion and foot-washing in their church Saturday and Sunday, Elder John E. Townsend, a north Georgia mountaineer of Union county, officiating.

The Primitive Baptists are just what their name implies, still holding to traditionary practices and disregarding the forms and ceremonies which occupy the greater portion of the services of other churches. The foot-washing ceremony is their most distinguishing characteristic, derived from the similar performance of Christ for His disciples, and followed out in detail so far as possible.

Elder Townsend is a very remarkable young man, whose influence and ability are unquestioned. While in the early teens, it is said, he felt called to enter the ministry, but from natural timidity refrained for two long years. Being finally "whipped into line," he entered Young Harris college, where he completed his course, preaching Saturdays and Sundays to his brethren.

Since graduation he has made a name for himself and is now principal of the Irwinton institute, Irwinton, Ga., one of the best schools in that section. He comes to Atlanta especially for the services this week.

EDDIE THOMAS, EAGLE CAPTOR, DOES A DISAPPEARING ACT

"Where is Eddie Thomas?"

Dr. J. M. Anderson, of Commerce, Ga., would like to have this question answered. And—

"Where is Doc. Anderson?"

Eddie is the negro boy who recently fought a battle with a monster bald eagle that swooped down upon him while he was driving the cows home, near Commerce. Eddie says he has been Jonahed by the eagle. Ever since that day, hoodoo has been following him wherever he journeys.

Here is the story: Dr. Anderson financed a scheme to exhibit Eddie and the eagle in all the large cities in the south, for it will be recalled that after being carried four miles in the claws of the king of the skies, Eddie brought the bird to earth by crippling one of its wings. The eagle measured 7 feet across the wings. The show opened in Atlanta at No. 6 Auburn avenue. The first two days' receipts amounted to $300, according to Eddie, and everything looked roseate.

But the eagle died one night while Eddie and Dr. Anderson were away. It was a mean trick for the eagle to play on Eddie, but it couldn't be helped, so Eddie cried and waited around the show house for Dr. Anderson to come from the Piedmont hotel. Eddie informed him of the death of the eagle, and intimated that he would like to have carfare back to his home.

Eddie was told to wait at the show. An engagement prevented Dr. Anderson seeing Eddie at the appointed time, so Eddie came to police headquarters with tears in his eyes and related his hard-luck story.

Exit Eddie. Enter Dr. Anderson. The story related by Eddie to Sergeant Holcombe was repeated to Dr. Anderson, and he went off in search of his protege. In the meantime Eddie returned to headquarters. He had found the dead eagle, and had worked a friend for a five-spot to take himself and eagle to Macon.

The funny part of the story is that try as they did, the police were unable to bring Eddie and his manager together.

BACK TO FLAT IRON DODGING GOES SIMMY, THE SOUL MATE

Back to New York went poor, little Simmy Rosenbloom, the romantic east side tailor, without even a glance at pretty Louise Savelovich, his "soul mate," who was arrested with him from the house, No. 43 Butler street, where they were living as "Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hall," of New York.

Simmy, with his three-weeks' growth of whiskers, did not loom up the gallant charmer he was when arrested, and it is doubtful if the fair Louise would have recognized him in his disheveled appearance. A couple of hours in a barber shop would have played havoc with Simmy's looks.

"I would like to see the girl, just to tell her that it is all over between us," Simmy wailed, as he was being led from the dock by Detective Flood, from New York central headquarters. "I guess it means the balance of my life will be spent dodging frying pans and flat irons. Gee, but I'm a happy guy."

Simmy will face a charge of wife desertion when he reaches New York, and his future depends entirely upon the charity of his wife. The laws of New York make desertion a felony. If Mrs. Rosenbloom says she will have no more of Simmy, it will mean back to the rock pile for him. If she decides that she can inflict severer punishment than wardens on Blackwell Island, then Simmy's prophesy will come true, and he will spend the balance of his life dodging kitchen tools.

Louise, the "affinity," did not seem peeved over the arrangements by which Detective Flood was to take Simmy back to New York. She seems perfectly happy, even though her "big baby doll" has passed out of her life.

Louise has a job now, and maybe some day she'll have enough money to support a real husband.

BACHELORS WITHOUT HOMES TO PAY HONOR TO MOTHER

All the bachelors who are without homes and mothers to remember on Mothers' day will have a chance to honor the memory of "Mother" by a contribution to the old and lonely mothers in the Home for Old Women in West End.

Mrs. S. J. Purtell, manager of the home, and her circle, have decided to make Mothers' day a real day for the old ladies who are without sons and daughters of their own, and, in order to aid in securing funds for providing necessaries and comforts for the old women, boxes will be placed in all the clubs and leading hotels on Mothers' day.

All contributions, of course, will be voluntary; but knowing that there are many who will be glad to take this useful means of paying their respectful tribute to "Mother," the Gordon Circle will provide the receptacles.

Plans have been accepted for a new building at the home, which will be erected soon. It will cost about $8,500, of which $3,000 is already in hand. The other will be raised as rapidly as possible, as the addition is much needed.

It will enable the home to accommodate many more old women who are homeless or dependent.

HE SMILED AT GIRL AND SHE SMILED BACK

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 9.—While federal officers are investigating their story of a wedding on a wild mountain road near Cumberland Gap, Ky., Pearl Hall, a 15-year-old Spring City, Tenn., girl, and Jacques Smiles, 21, a Syrian, are detained here.

The man is held on white slavery charges. After their arrest yesterday the girl told a romantic story of how they met while she lived at the home of her sister in Pineville, Ky. Smiles smiled at her and she smiled back, she declared, and then they were married.

HOME IS IMPOSSIBLE WITHOUT MACARONI

Chicago, May 9.—Spectators were amused in Judge Goodnow's court of domestic relations yesterday when Mrs. Theresa Infrafio told the jurist that a home was impossible without macaroni. The judge could not see anything funny about it. He agreed with her.

Mrs. Infrafio was suing her husband for non-support. She said her mother-in-law had left their home in Wentworth avenue with nearly all the cooking utensils and more than that, all of the macaroni.

The judge issued an order which will compel the husband to furnish a home well supplied with macaroni, or enforce the wrath of the court.

Ketchel's Slayer Must Serve.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 9.—Walter S. Dipley, convicted of the murder of Stanley Ketchel, the pugilist, must serve his life sentence in the Missouri penitentiary, according to a decision of the supreme court to day. Goldie Smith, convicted and serving a life term as an accomplice of Dipley, was discharged from the penitentiary by the court.

BROTHERS CONVICTED OF KILLING A NEGRO

Birmingham, Ala., May 9.—Walter Jones, brother of Arthur Jones, convicted of killing a negro yesterday, was today found guilty and given a life sentence in the criminal court for the murder of the same negro, John Holland, in June.

Will Watson is yet to be tried for the same killing.

ALABAMA LIQUOR LAW UPHELD BY HIGH COURT

Montgomery, Ala., May 9.—By a unanimous vote the Alabama supreme court today upheld the Parks local option bill and the Smith liquor regulation bill which were enacted by the Alabama legislature early in 1911. Every contention offered by the attacking forces was routed.

The principal points raised were that one of the bills depended on the other for its operation; also that the measures delegated legislative power to the people.

WIFE CLAIMS A BABY WHICH HUSBAND DENIES

Jeffersonville, Ind., May 9.—Application made in court here yesterday for the adoption of a 2-year-old child developed an unusual situation in which a woman claims the infant as her own, while her husband declares it is not and that she is a victim of an hallucination. The applicants for the infant are the parents of the woman, Mrs. George McIntyre. Mrs. McIntyre, so their statement runs, disappeared from her home here in March, 1910, and a few days later was found in a Louisville hospital with a few days' old baby. She says it is her own; her husband says it is not, and her father and mother, who have become attached to the infant, wish to adopt it. Mrs. McIntyre is resisting their application.

MASKED THUGS MAKE RICH HAUL

New York, May 9.—Aaron Moore, a wealthy North Carolina planter, 42 years old, who came to town several days ago, was held up and robbed of money and jewelry amounting to $25,000 early this morning by a pair of masked thugs, who entered a room on the ground floor of a house in West Forty-fifth street, near Eighth avenue, where the southerner had been introduced by newly-acquired male acquaintances to several women and an alleged opium layout.

The victim was quick to rush from the scene and get the police busy. He found his way to the West Forty-seventh street police station and told the story of the hold-up. The lieutenant on the desk put detectives on the case and they soon rounded up three men and two women. The hold-up pair managed to keep out of reach.

SPECIAL RULES WANTED FOR LABOR LEGISLATION

Washington, May 9.—An attempt to secure special rules in the house of representatives to push through labor legislation will be made tomorrow by the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor. The committee will appear in a body before the house rules committee. Anti-injunction legislation and eight-hour law, workmen's compensation, immigration restriction, and convict labor laws will be urged.

The executive committee met today, discussed legislative questions and conferred with labor representatives in congress.

Tomorrow a representative of the Mexican revolutionists will appear before the committee.

HOW TO TELL

Kryptok lenses. These lenses have no seams, no lines, nor edges in the lens. Kryptok means "hidden eye." The near lens is actually hidden in the distance lens, making a solid piece of glass. Let John L. Moore & Sons show you. 42 North Broad street.

SEVENTH WARD CLUB WILL MEET TONIGHT

The regular monthly meeting of the Seventh Ward Improvement Club will be held tonight at 8 o'clock, Caldwell hall, Lee and Gordon streets.

The extension of a car line to Battle Hill out Greensferry or some other street has been pressed forward as one of the greatest needs of this section.

The park playground and swimming pool for West End is another important matter. The club rejected the proposal of $25,000 prorate out of the $2,000,000 contemplated bond issue for parks and playgrounds for Atlanta and placed itself upon record demanding $100,000 for West End.

The driveway from Grant park to West End is now assured. The club will ask the city council to enter condemnation proceedings against property holders who refuse to have Gordon street graded and lowered so as to build the underpass at the Central railway.

Why You Should Give Your Fiancee a Diamond Ring

She may tell you that she doesn't want you to give her a diamond—that the money can be used to better advantage in some other way.

You should remember, though, that every girl would be delighted to have one, and if the gift is a surprise, her happiness and pleasure will be doubled.

A diamond engagement or wedding gift will be prized always, and in after years it will grow in intrinsic and sentimental value and be associated with the happiest period of your lives.

We send correctly graded diamonds anywhere on approval and allow settlement on the fairest kind of terms.

PAULINE AMAZES ATLANTA DOCTORS

Pauline, the hypnotist who is performing at the Forsyth this week, amazed a large number of prominent Atlanta physicians yesterday during the course of his lecture and demonstration of the possible effect of hypnotism upon surgery.

When he appeared upon the stage at 12:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon there were more than 200 physicians, students and other interested persons in the audience. At the request of Pauline twelve physicians went upon the stage, where they closely watched the hypnotist during all his operations.

He repeated his feat of controlling the flow of blood in the arms of his subjects, thereby causing a number of doubting doctors to hastily change their minds, as they were within a foot of the subject while the flow of the blood was directed out of his arm, then brought back, then stopped in the middle of the subject's palm. Every physician present examined the subject. Other feats practiced included stopping the flow of saliva in the mouth of the subject, causing the subject to perform unusual feats of strength and various amusing things not ordinarily shown to an audience.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS HOLD FIELD DAY ON SATURDAY

The field day exercises of the Atlanta grammar schools will be held Saturday at Ponce de Leon park. Two sessions will take place, one in the morning and another in the afternoon. Two thousand two hundred children will participate in the program and an immense audience is expected.

The morning events are scheduled as athletic exercises, in which both the boy and girl competitors will take part. The afternoon will be devoted to the exhibition features, consisting of dancing, games, foot races and a monster calesthenic exhibition produced by 2,200 children. Music will be rendered by a special orchestra and the prizes will be awarded at the close of the exercises in the afternoon by President Walter R. Daley, of the board of education.

MASSENGALE IS TEACHER AND AD MEN HIS PUPILS

Atlanta's ad men attended school last night, and, with the aid of a stereopticon machine, a lecture and St. Elmo Massengale, they gained much additional knowledge of "The Psychological Principles of Good Advertising Copy."

The course of instruction was held in the convention hall of the Piedmont hotel. A large crowd was in attendance, and the scheme was declared a decided success. It was projected by the educational committee, and will be continued by the club.

St. Elmo Massengale's lecture was illustrated effectively by stereopticon views. So impressed was the organization with the first lesson, that a larger stereopticon will be purchased, and the small screen will be replaced by a better one.

CHARTER OF STRIKERS CANCELED BY FREEL

Chicago, May 9.—President James J. Freel, of the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers' Union today took drastic action against members of stereotypers' local union No. 4, who quit work in sympathy with the newspaper pressmen.

Freel and his associated members of the executive council of the international union, formally canceled the charter of the local union because the men refused to return to work after ordered by Freel. Several days ago, in anticipation of this discipline, officers of the local union made preparations to issue "traveling cards" to their members, giving the men standing in any office in the country. President Freel's order canceling the charter of the local union also canceled all traveling cards issued by this union to any of its members.

The effect of this action by Mr. Freel is to leave every stereotyper employed in Chicago outside the union ranks. It is understood to be the intention of Mr. Freel to try to organize another local union in the place of the one just wiped out by him.

Although there was some disorder today, the newspaper situation apparently improved. Several attacks on sympathizers of the pressmen were reported to the police during the day.

SHE WAS MOTHERLESS AND KILLED HERSELF

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—Allen House, 16 years old, committed suicide by shooting herself with a revolver yesterday at a home a few miles from this city, where she had been making her home. Grief, because she had no mother like other children, is supposed to have caused the act. Her mother died when she was 2 years old and her father married again.

RICHLAND RATES OFFER PROBLEM

Which Commission Solves By Order for Reductions.

Directs Seaboard to Submit an Adjustment of Freight Rates Which Will Remove Discriminations—Decision Is a Far-Reaching One.

An order issued yesterday by the state railroad commission bids fair to play a prominent part in the reduction of railroad rates in Georgia.

The order was issued as the result of a complaint about freight rates from Richland in Stewart county, and the indications are that it will have far-reaching effect in connection with rates to other Georgia points which are now, or may be in future, similarly situated.

Richland is what is known as a common or competitive point since it has now two railroads, the Seaboard Air Line and the Georgia, Florida and Alabama.

Case Heard Last Fall.

The Richland board of trade complained to the railroad commission that the present rate adjustment of the Seaboard Air Line railway is such as to discriminate against that point, when compared with the rate to Dawson, Americus, Albany and Columbus.

The case was bitterly fought by the Seaboard, the Atlantic Coast Line, the Central of Georgia and the Southern railways. Although the Seaboard is the only one of these roads which touches Richland, the others participate in the freight traffic to that point.

The hearing was had before the commission on November 8, 1911, and that body has been working on the case ever since with the result that it decided Thursday that the Richland rates are unjustly discriminatory against that point, and ordered the Seaboard to submit a new adjustment of freight rates to Richland on the following basis:

Same as Other Points.

1. On traffic moving through Albany, delivered to the Seaboard Air Line railway at that point, destined to Richland, the rates must be no higher than on similar traffic destined to Americus.

2. Likewise traffic moving through Columbus, delivered to the Seaboard Air Line railway at that point, should move at no higher rates to Richland than those charged to Dawson, which is considerably beyond Richland.

3. Traffic moving through Americus to Richland should be charged for at no greater rates than are effective to Dawson on the same class of traffic.

Means Big Reduction.

While the commission simply orders the removal of discriminations, it is apparent that the carrying out of its orders will mean material reductions in the rates to Richland.

For example the present rate from Atlanta to Richland on agricultural implements is $60 per car; to Americus $46 per car and to Dawson $38 per car. The railroad commission's order would give Richland the Dawson rate, a reduction of nearly 40 per cent.

Farm wagons from Atlanta to Richland cost $60 per car; to Americus $46 and to Dawson $38. Richland would get the Dawson rate.

Stoves, Atlanta to Richland are $68 per car; to Americus $50 and to Dawson $48. Richland would get the Dawson rate.

Bagging from Brunswick to Richland is $64 per car; to Americus $40; to Dawson $40. Richland would get the Dawson rate.

Canned goods from Brunswick to Richland, $86.40 per car; to Americus $60; to Dawson $60. Richland would get the Dawson rate.

On account of the effect of the decision probably at other points as well as at Richland, it is not unlikely the railroads will fight against making the reductions.

MANY ONE-DOLLAR CHECKS SENT IN FOR CHILDREN

A call for $1 checks to meet the expenses of the sanitary campaign, prizes for the school children who secured pledges and incidental expenses met with a very generous response yesterday, and the $125 needed was almost entirely received by Secretary Walter Cooper of the chamber of commerce. It is hoped that the entire amount, and more to be held as a reserve fund, will be forthcoming today from any one in the city who wishes to contribute not more than one dollar. Widespread interest has been manifested everywhere in the campaign.

DELEGATES TO BALTIMORE AND GOSSIP OF POLITICS

Attorney Carl Hutcheson, who did such splendid work in behalf of Mr. Underwood, ably assisting Hon. G. R. Hutchens in the campaign, has withdrawn as a candidate for delegate to the national convention from the fifth congressional district in favor of Hon. Hollins N. Randolph, one of the original Underwood supporters and who devoted much time and effort to the campaign.

Mr. Hutcheson, before he understood that the name of Mr. Randolph would be presented in this connection, wrote to each of the fifty members of the Fulton delegation to the state convention, asking their support as delegate from the fifth.

When he learned that Mr. Randolph's name would be presented he voluntarily withdrew his own and has written as follows to all of the members of the Fulton delegation, withdrawing his former letter:

"Dear Sir: A few days ago I wrote you that I would be a candidate for the position as one of the delegates from the fifth congressional district to the Baltimore convention.

"I am informed that the name of Mr. Hollins Randolph will be presented for one of these places, and in order to prevent any possible conflict, I now write you to say that I have withdrawn in his favor.

"Mr. Randolph is absent from the city and does not know that I am writing this letter.

"No man in Atlanta did more active work for Underwood than Mr. Randolph. He gave his time, energy and close attention to the campaign for nearly a month and his services at the headquarters were invaluable. The mere fact that he is willing to go as a delegate to Baltimore ought to give him the vote of every Underwood man representing the fifth district in the state convention.

"Very truly yours,
"CARL HUTCHESON."

Hon. S. H. Phelan for District Delegate.

It is learned that the name of Hon. S. H. Phelan, of Crawford county, will be presented to the state convention on May 29 as one of the delegates from the sixth congressional district to the Baltimore convention.

There were few men who did harder or better work to accomplish the Underwood victory than did Mr. Phelan. He not only dide splendid work in his home county, Crawford, but he was frequently in Atlanta, where he formerly lived, and was prominent in the Underwood councils. Mr. Phelan is now a leading farmer in Crawford and his place is one of the "brag" plantations in that section of the state.

It will be interesting to note in this connection that his county gave Mr. Underwood a splendid majority, Crawford's vote for Underwood being 403 as against 183 for Wilson.

Once Smith Paper To Support Slaton.

The interesting announcement appears in the editorial columns of the Walton News that in the coming campaign for governor, it will give its support to Hon. John M. Slaton, president of the state senate.

The Walton News, the oldest paper in Walton county, was formerl edited by B. S. Walker, George M. Napier and Jos. H. Felker. It was one of the strongest Hoke Smith papers in the state, and supported Mr. Smith in all of his races for governor.

Its former attitude and the earnestness with which it fought for Mr. Smith, makes its present announcement doubly interesting. It is stated it will give equally forceful and energetic support to the cause of Mr. Slaton in the coming campaign.

The action of the Walton News is another indication of the statement which has been made with reference to Mr. Slaton's campaign to the effect that leaders of both factions, and, among them some of the most prominent men formerly in the Smith ranks will be fcund amonk his most staunch friends and supporters in the present contest.

Shipp in Race for Railroad Commission.

Hon. Charles Jackson Shipp, of Cordele, has "flung his hat into the ring" in the race for railroad commissioner, and his friends are calling especial attention to the fact that he is a south Georgia candidate.

Discussing Mr. Shipp's candidacy, the Cordele Rambler says:

"Mr. Charles Jack Shipp is the only candidate for railroad commissioner from south Georgia; besides this there is no member of the railroad commission from south Georgia except Mr. Gray from Savannah.

"This section needs a commissioner more than any other section of the state. It is developing faster, and besides, most of the present freight rates have been made up from special rates and have never been settled satisfactorily either to the public or to the railroads.

"Mr. Shipp has for some years been a student of these conditions and if he is elected will make a determined effort on this line.

"Mr. Shipp also takes the position that the country press is being discriminated against in the matter of transportation. He believes and, if elected, will urge that the newspaper man should have the right to exchange space for transportation on the dollar for dollar basis without regard to whom the transportation is used by. The newspaper man will have paid for it and he alone should decide who must use it."

Callaway, of Wilkes; Ridley, of Troup.

Colonel R. D. Callaway, of Wilkes, will be strongly urged by his friends for one of the two positions as delegate to the national democratic convention at Baltimore for the Eighth congressional district. Colonel Callaway has represented his county in the legislature and his district in the senate with signal ability. He was a leading Underwood supporter and will no doubt have a strong following in the convention.

Down in the Fourth friends are putting forward as one of the two district delegates, Dr. Frank M. Ridley, of LaGrange. Troup was one of the strong Underwood counties in the recent primary, and Dr. Ridley was one of the foremost workers in behalf of the Alabamian. Many of the delegates from the Fourth to the state convention will be back of him for this place, and will do their best to land it for him.

DELEGATES TO ATLANTA.

Representatives From Many Counties to State Convention.

Liberty Delegates.

Hinesville, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The delegates from Liberty county to the state convention which convenes in Atlanta May 29, are: Dr. T. S. Layton and Colonel J. B. Way. Colonel Way will also be urged by his numerous friends to represent them as one of the two delegates from the first congressional district. He is chairman of the democratic executive committee of Liberty county, and when the name of Oscar Underwood was announced for president he pulled off his coat, went to work, and to him more than all other influences combined is due the big majority for Underwood in this county.

Taliaferro Delegates.

Crawfordville, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Following are the delegates named for the state convention May 29 from Taliaferro county: W. R. Reid, J. B. Simmons, W. A. Poss, G. N. Wright, J. H. Crawford, Fielding Hill, O. M. Saggus, A. G. Golucke.

Clay Delegates.

Fort Gaines, Ga., May 9.—(Special.) The chairman of the executive committee of Clay county names the following delegates to the state convention to be held in Atlanta on May 29: B. M. Turnipseed, N. H. McLendon, R. C. McAllister, W. B. Hattaway, A. T. King, J. B. Mills, Olin Bell.

Lowndes Delegation.

Valdosta, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The following Lowndes county citizens have been appointed as delegates to the state convention in Atlanta on May 29, to cast the vote of this county for Hon. Oscar W. Underwood for president: E. P. S. Denmark, C. R. Ashley, J. T. Roberts, C. C. Brantley, G. A. Whitaker, J. G. Crawford, H. Y. Tillman, G. E. Claus, W. B. Conoley, Percy Thigpen, J. B. Martin, W. E. Boothe, J. H. Powell, W. H. Mashburn, M. J. Chauncey, J. Y. Blitch, Will R. Strickland, W. E. Algee, Dr. J. P. Prescott, J. K. White, Ewell Brown, Dr. E. P. Quillian, S. W. Bowen, W. W. Webb, W. M. Overstreet, James G. Scruggs, R. S. Wisenbaker, J. L. Wilkes, H. T. Dampier, D. M. Mathis, J. P. Carter, R. T. Gupton, E. J. Carter. Hon. A. T. Woodward, chairman of the democratic executive committee of this county, will head the delegation. It is expected that almost the entire list of delegates will attend the convention, and the delegation will be a unit for the election of Colonel Woodward as a delegate from the eleventh congressional district to Baltimore.

GLYNN DELEGATES 4 . .

Brunswick, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The democratic executive committee of Glynn county met at the courthouse Monday for the purpose of naming delegates to the state convention to be held in Atlanta on May 28, at which delegates to the national democratic convention at Baltimore will be elected, as well as other matters handled. Those named to represent this county are the following: H. F. Dunwody, A. J. Crovatt, H. F. duBignon, W. R. Townsend, E. C. Butts, F. E. Twitty and Millard Reese.

COLONEL S. C. DUNLAP IS URGED IN THE NINTH

Gainesville, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The name of Colonel Samuel C. Dunlap will be presented to the ninth district caucus for nomination as one of the delegates to the national democratic convention from this district. Colonel Dunlap has long been one of the most prominent democrats of the state, and for years has taken an active part in the politics of this section. He was a staunch advocate of Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, and was very enthusiastic in his behalf. He can always be counted on to do his part in supporting conservative men and measures, and his friends feel that he should be delegated as one of the ninth district's representatives to the national convention. His friends of the Hall county delegation will wage an active campaign in his behalf.

HART'S DELEGATION TO SUPPORT WATSON

Hartwell, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—That the name of Hon. Thomas E. Watson, of McDuffie county, will be preseted to the convention as a delegate from the state-at-large to the Baltimore convention there is absolutely no doubt. Hart county will go to the state convention composed of Underwood men who are friendly to the suggestion of the name of Mr. Watson as a delegate. It is not unlikely that Hon. Julian B. McCurry, of the Hart delegation, will be asked to present the name of Mr. Watson to the convention.

Representative Asben McCurry of Hart county, is strong for Mr. Watson. Among the other delegates who will support Mr. Watson are Thomas S. Harper, the well-known real estate man; Hon. J. R. Leard, Carl S. Teasley, P. R. Webb and Hon. A. G. McCurry, J. M. Cannon, Sr., A. N. P. Brown. While all were not seen, it is quite certain that Hart's delegation will favor Mr. Watson.

The Western Union has purchased 10,000 Underwood typewriters.

CONGREGATION PUT TO ROUT BY PISTOL SHOT FUSILLADE

The congregation of the First Union Baptist church, colored, corner Schofield and Horton streets, tumbled out of doors and windows, when Charley Leaks, a derelict member, fired a fusillade of shots at Rev. William M. Rolland, the pastor, at 8:45 o'clock last night. A bullet through the left shoulder punctuated the sermon, and was the signal for the stampede. The preacher was taken to the Grady hospital, where he told his story to Call Officers Hood and West, sent to the scene of the shooting at the request of the exiled worshipers.

Pastor Rolland told the police that Leaks "had it in for him" ever since the deacons of the church instructed him to use his influence to bring Leaks back into the fold. Leaks objected to the pastor's repeated visits to his home, and vowed Thursday evening that he was going to make a job for the undertaker.

"Yer kaint 'spec ter be wun ob de Lawd's 'nointed ef yer don't cum ter der church," the strident voice of the pastor rang out in the silence.

Leaks loitered in the rear of the church, and when he heard the voice of the pastor in the pulpit he mounted a box, poked his gun through a crack in the board wall and turned loose a volley, which rang through the streets like a charge of light artillery.

Men and women tumbled out of doors at the first shot. Some were injured in the wild rush; others escaped by lying flat on their faces under the benches. Leaks was lost, when the smoke cleared away.

WELTNER SCORES POLICE COURTS

Atlanta Lawyer Says They Are Run for Revenue and Convict Labor.

Nashville, Tenn., May 9.—The police court system was severely arraigned today before the Southern Sociological Congress by Philip Weltner, of Atlanta, general secretary of the Prison Association of Georgia. He termed the whole system a mad juggernaut by which those prosper who, of all persons ought to suffer. "As at present administered," he said, "a police court is good for but two things—cash revenues and convict labor. The ordinary police court may be likened to a quack doctor dispensing a dose, as distinguished from a treatment. And the dose is inflicted, regardless of the offender's conditions of circumstances. Go into a police court in one of our large southern cities and you will sometimes see one hundred and fifty cases tried in a day. The judge has no time for individual cases. He has in most instances only the arresting officers to look for assistance and this man is usually interested only in establishing his case."

He suggested that a system of record cards for offenders and an effective system of probation officers be inaugurated.

"Stop dealing with the case and begin dealing with the individual," was his message.

Prison reform was the subject before the congress and Mr. Weltner treated the police court as the bottom round.

"The indeterminate sentence and the probation system," was the subject of Professor C. E. Potts, of the University of Texas.

The indeterminate sentence theory, he said, based incarceration on an entirely different ground from the present doctrine that the amount of guilt connected with each crime could be determined and suitable penalty attached. "It starts," said he, "with the fundamental proposition that the criminal must be restrained because his conduct has proved him dangerous to society. Nothing but a long period of instruction and training under the closest observation by experts in criminology can determine when he will be ready to return to society.

"No prisoner should ever be released until he has learned some occupation by which he can earn a living and the prison management should find him employment and turn him over directly to a responsible employer."

Tom Finty, Jr., of The Dallas News, blamed the lease system in the south on the military or reconstruction governments, the false notions sown by that system being in part responsible for the slow movement in reform in the section.

Louis J. Bernhardt, of Atlanta, gave the prisoner's side.

Professor G. W. Dyer, of Vanderbilt University, discussed the purpose of imprisonment. Dr. W. H. Oates, of Montgomery, told of conditions in Alabama.

W. Woods White, of Atlanta, delivered a stirring address tonight on "The Money Shark Business," which attracted much attention. John M. Glenn, secretary of the Russell Sage Foundation, spoke on the necessity for co-ordination and co-operation in all social work, and Dr. Charles S. MacFarland spoke of the part the church is taking in bettering conditions in the modern industries.

Governor Ben W. Hooper, of Tennessee, who originated the idea of holding a Southern Sociological congress, was tonight elected president of a permanently organized Southern Sociological congress which will meet annually and discuss the problems confronted by leaders in the uplift movement throughout the southern states. Dr. A. J. McKelway, of Washington, D. C., was elected first vice president, and Miss Kate Bernard, of Oklahoma, was designated as second vice president. Other officers will be selected later.

The Southern Sociological Congress also selected the following permanent executive committee tonight:

Alabama, Mrs. W. L. Murdock, Birmingham; Arkansas, Professor C. H. Brocker; District of Columbia, Dr. Wickliffe Rose, Washington, D. C.; Florida, Professor L. L. Bernard, Gainesville; Georgia, Woods White, Atlanta; Kentucky, Bernard Flexner, Louisville; Louisiana, Miss Agnes Morris, Baton Rouge; Maryland, H. Wirt Steele, Baltimore; Mississippi, A. T. MARRIAGE OF MISS COOPER AND MR. WINSHIP NUNNALLY

The marriage of Miss Mary Cooper and Mr. Winship Nunnally was solemnized last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Hunter Pope Cooper, on Peachtree street.

Owing to the illness of the bride, invitations to the wedding reception had been withdrawn, and the ceremony was witnessed only by the two families.

A quiet elegance characterized the occasion and music and flowers were an incident appropriate to its happiness.

The bride was a picture of youthful beauty and winsomeness in her wedding gown of ivory white olga crepe. Exquisite rose point lace, which had belonged to her great-grandmother, was draped on the corsage and fell over the graceful skirt and court train. Her bouquet was of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Nunnally was lovely in white silk marquisette and Irish lace, a touch of color in a girdle of orchid pink taffetas, and her flowers were lavender orchids and valley lilies.

Mrs. Cooper was gowned in black olga crepe hand embroidered.

Mrs. J. H. Nunnally wore a two-toned taffeta in shades of pale green and rose, the paniers over a cream lace petticoat, and the corsage of lace trimmed with the taffetas.

The bridal party were grouped for the ceremony in the drawing room before a bay window banked with palms, and over them was a green canopy in the shape of a four-leaf clover, its foliage green studded with pink sweet-peas and roses, and showered with valley lilies.

Smilax and foliage plants were used with taste throughout the house, and frequent vases were filled with pink peonies and Easter lilies.

A buffet supper was served, and an orchestra played the wedding music.

The occasion, while it had to be a quiet one, centered the cordial interest of the social world, in which both young people are prominent and popular figures.

The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. Hunter P. Cooper, who was one of the south's most scholarly men in the medical profession, while her mother is the only daughter of the late Dr. Tucker, of Georgia.

She is a piquant blonde, bright and cultured, her last few years of study having been abroad under the best masters. Her debut two years ago was the occasion of many brilliant entertainments in her honor.

Mr. Nunnally is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nunnally, his father one of Atlanta's leading and most constructive citizens, his mother a representative of the Winship family, one standing for the pioneer upbuilding of Atlanta. Mr. Nunnally is a graduate of Yale, and is recognized as one of Atlanta's most progressive younger citizens. He is a member of all the social and commercial organizations of the city, and is very popular.

A motor trip through New England is being planned by Mr. Nunnally and his bride, and they will begin their trip in a few days.

Cassidy-Townsend.

Thomasville, Ga., May 9.—(Special.) The marriage of Miss Ida Cassidy and Mr. Will Townsend, of Bainbridge, took place Tuesday afternoon at the residence in this city of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. A. Cassidy. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. W. Mathews, of the Methodist church. The marriage was a very quiet one, witnessed only by the relatives and a few close friends of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend left after the ceremony for a short bridal trip, after which they will make their home in Bainbridge. The bride is a handsome and popular Thomasville girl, who has made her home in Bainbridge for some time, and the groom is a prominent young business man of that city.

To Miss Clayton.

In compliment to Miss Rose Clayton, a bride-elect, Miss Mildred Lieper will entertain Saturday afternoon, and a miscellaneous shower for the guest of honor will be an incident of the occasion.

Mrs. Lockhart Entertains.

Mrs. Ellis Lockhart gave a pretty card party yesterday at her home in Inman Park in compliment to Miss Loraine Vaughn and her guest, Miss Lois LaDue, of Detroit, who has been delightfully entertained during a visit of several months in the city.

There were three tables of bridge, and the game was played on the porch, which was inviting with its boxes of flowers and hanging baskets. The prizes were a boudoir cap at each table, and the consolation was a deck of cards.

After the game dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, where the table was picturesque in pink and white, the centerpiece of roses. The silver candlesticks had pink shades, and the candles and ices were pink and white.

Mrs. Lockhart was becomingly gowned in tan voile and lace. Her guests were: Misses Vaughn, LaDue, Elizabeth May Johnstone, Wilmirth Gamble, Elizabeth Lockhart, Cora Powell, Louise Leiper, Miss Tipton, Mrs. J. F. Seawell, Mrs. O. C. Willis, Miss Maud Brooke, Mrs. O. C. McCanne, Mrs. John Hicks.

At Brookhaven Club.

Among those enjoying the delightful Creole dinners this week, which are a specialty of the Brookhaven Club, were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gray, with a party of five, and Mr. C. A. Horne, with four guests, on Wednesday evening.

The same afternoon there were a number of people entertaining at tea, among them Mr. T. M. Gridler, Mr. J. D. Cloudman, Mr. W. R. C. Smith, Mrs. J. L. Pryor, Rev. Thornwell Jacobs, Messrs. M. S. Harper, Claud Douthit, A. M. Reid and John J. Woodside, Jr.

The Creole dinners will be made a specialty feature every Sunday evening from 5 until 8 o'clock.

Opening of Roof Garden.

The roof garden of the new Ponce de Leon Baptist Sunday school will be formally opened to the public this afternoon from 3 to 6 p. m. Mrs. P. M. Boykin and her committee will serve ices and cakes for a nominal sum. The garden will be gay with flowers and lights, and music will be furnished by the Tech orchestra. Everybody is cordially invited to come and bring a friend.

Lunch Room.

Today the ladies in charge of the popular little lunch room on Walton street, between Peachtree and Broad, which is being operated for the benefit of the building fund of St. Anthony's church, have to offer a particularly tempting menu of daintily prepared food, which will please the palate tired of the usual fare provided by the regular restaurants.

Miss Irene Hancock will be chairman of the young ladies' committee and will be assisted by Misses Irene Hancock, Bertha Rhodes, Emma Corley, Josie Manley, Monica Callahan, Eva Hubbard and Louise Pope.

The following will be served today: Chicken Salad. Stuffed Peppers. Salmon Salad. Potato Salad. Green Peas, in Timbals. Hot Rolls. Strawberry Short Cake. Ice Cream and Cake. Drip Coffee. Hot and Iced Tea.

Miss Beck Entertains.

Miss Natalie Jewett, of Boston, the guest of Mrs. Vernon Tilson, was the guest of honor at the bridge party given yesterday afternoon at the Driving Club by Miss Marguerite Beck.

Tea was served in the terrace after the game.

The guests were Miss [illegible] Lewis, Miss Louise Romare, [illegible] land Zahner, Miss Katherine [illegible] Miss Nita Black, Miss Ca[illegible] Miss Vernon Tilson, Mrs. C[illegible] Mrs. Robert Everett, of Ho[illegible] and Mrs. J. Frank Beck.

M. Marshall an[illegible] Mrs. James Carleton.

Mrs. George E. King will assist i[illegible] entertaining and Miss Mary King wil[illegible] serve punch.

For Mrs. Davis.

Miss Ruth Hull entertained informally yesterday morning at bridge for Mrs. W. E. S. Davis, of Birmingham, who is the guest of Miss Jennie Mobley.

The prize for top score was a bar pin, the consolation was a box of candy and Mrs. Davis was given silk stockings.

After the game a delicious luncheon was served. Miss Hull was gowned in green embroidered crepe.

Invited to meet Mrs. Davis were Miss Jennie Mobley, Mrs. Sims Bray, Mrs. W. M. Robinson, Mrs. Ella Wright Wilcox, Mrs. J. E. C. Pedder, Mrs. William J. Blalock and Mrs. Herbert Manson.

For Miss Arthur-Weir.

Mrs. Charles Godfrey entertained a few friends informally at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Marlborough to meet her guest, Miss Maude Arthur-Weir, of Toronto, Canada.

Miss Arthur-Weir will be the honor guest at a dinner this evening at the Athletic Club, East Lake, and Miss Maude Scruggs will entertain Saturday evening in compliment to this attractive visitor.

Bride Club.

Mrs. William Bearden will entertain the members of her bridge club this afternoon at her home on Spring street.

Edwards-Adams.

The marriage is announced of Miss Mamie L. Edwards, of Griffin, Ga., and Dr. Claude O. Adams, of Birmingham, Ala., which took place in Atlanta Saturday, May 4.

Rev. Charles W. Daniel, of the First Baptist church, was the officiating clergyman. Dr. and Mrs. Adams left for Birmingham to take possession of their new flat on Tenth avenue south.

During the month of August they will spend much time on the great lakes and visiting the groom's mother in Chicago.

Rummage Sale.

A rummage sale will be held Saturday, May 11, at 250 Edgewood avenue, with St. Mary's Guild of St. Philips church in charge. Please send all donations to above number at 9 o'clock Saturday, or if unable to send, call Ivy 284 this morning.

Lyon-Martin.

Miss Esther Ann Lyon and Mr. Oscar Durell Martin were married Wednesday night at the Jones Avenue Baptist church, Dr. Virgil Norcross, pastor of the Kirkwood Avenue Baptist church, officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns, the altar being arranged immediately in front of the pulpit.

Mrs. Alonzo Barfield sang, "O Promise Me," and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Howell Jackson. The bride wore white mull, lace-trimmed, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids, Misses Hettie Brazzell and Eva Slider, wore lingerie, trimmed in lace, and carried white roses. The bride's mother wore black, lace-trimmed, and Mrs. Charles Harwell, the groom's mother, was gowned in blue messaline.

The bride is a daughter of Professor and Mrs. A. A. Lyon, and is an accomplished musician. The groom is connected with the Seaboard Air Line railroad. Both are popular among a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin left immediately for an extended trip to Washington, New York and other points in the east.

MADAME RACHELLE'S ADVICE TO BEAUTY SEEKERS

Agnes—No, freckles are not really a disease and their removal is quite easy and simple. First, be sure to keep the skin always clean and well protected from sun and wind. Then massage the face lightly for a few weeks with an ethical proprietary preparation known as Wilson's Freckle Cream. This may be obtained for 50c at any good drug store or direct from the Wilson Freckle Cream Co., Charleston, S. C. It is perfectly harmless and guaranteed.

Mrs. D. T. S.—A little dry salt rubbed into the scalp every other night and then well brushed out, frequently promotes the growth of hair. Do not wash the hair too often.

Practical Quality-- Pleasing Prices-- at Allen's--

A genuine May-day hints of the first appearance of real summer wear—the atmosphere of mountains, lakeside and golf links. These are linen suits and other wash suits, dimity dresses, linen dresses, lingerie and a world of smart and practical washables.

In assortments, all lines have never been so complete; in desirability, styles and materials have never shown such critical selection; in service, greater attention has never been given to qualities and splendid construction; in value, greater economies have never been attained—prices having never been marked so near the actual cost of the garments.

Linen Norfolk and Belted Suits Especially Planned for May Showing

These wash suits have an irresistible charm in what we have done to make them distinctive—to bring into them an atmosphere entirely out of the ordinary, and at the same time simple, refined and wonderfully adapted to the purpose for which they have been designed. Service has been considered—but the greatest appeal comes from unusual lines, striking new color combinations, and the use of several entirely new weaves.

$7.50, $8.50, $10 and up to $35.
Norfolk Suits, $8.50 to $16.50

Wash Dresses for Mid-Summer Use

Dimities—dainty and fresh—Linens in white, pink, blue, lavender, rose, gray and natural—in simple designs for morning, in elaborate lace trimmed models for afternoon.

What a triumph in designing! What a revelation to women who have fretted over the intricate comingling of tucks, laces and embroideries—and then often without effect.

Dimities, Muslins, Marquisettes and Linens

$7.50, $9.75, $12.50, $15.00, $18.50 and $22.50.

SOCIETY

Women of St. Luke's Church.

A call meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Luke's church will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the infants' classroom.

Not only every member of the Auxiliary, but every woman in the parish, is earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

Mrs. Foster's Tea.

Mrs. Louise Spalding Foster entertained yesterday afternoon at tea at the Driving club in honor of Mrs. Allen Miles, of Charleston, S. C., the guest of Mrs. B. M. Boykin. Invited to meet Mrs. Miles were: Mrs. Boykin, Mrs. Charles P. Glover, Mrs. Edward Charbonnier, Mrs. T. B. French, Mrs. M. E. Oliver, Mrs. New, of Chicago; Mrs. Estelle Garrett Baker, Mrs. Peter Erwin, Mrs. Bun Wylie, Mrs. Albert Spalding, Mrs. Marion Benson, Mrs. Arthur Smart and J. D. Cromer.

Open-Air Meeting.

An open-air meeting of the Seventh Ward Civic club will be held in the pavilion in Howell Park, Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Come and make this meeting one of pleasure and profit.

Cake Sale for St. Anthony's Church.

On Friday and Saturday the ladies in charge of the lunch room conducted by them on Walton street, between Peachtree and Broad streets, will have a sale of delicious home-made candy and cake. The housekeepers are requested to patronize this sale and secure these dainties without the attendant discomfort experienced in preparing these articles at home during the warm weather.

Mrs. George Moltz will be in charge of the committee taking care of this feature of the lunch room, and those who patronize them will be pleased with the result, as some of the finest cake-makers in Atlanta are entered in the sale.

Silver Tea.

The silver tea given at the home of Mrs. A. R. Colcord for the benefit of the park committee of the Seventh Ward Civic club, was a beautiful and enjoyable occasion.

An abundance of lovely flowers added to the beauty of the attractive home, and the hostess and her friends welcomed the visitors cordially. About fifty dollars was realized, and this will be turned over to the park committee.

KNOX KNOCKS COL. ROOSEVELT

For the Latter's Attacks on President Taft.

The Secretary of State Says Roosevelt Is "Prompted by Whims," and That He Is of "Imperious Vanities and Mysterious Antipathies."

Los Angeles, Cal., May 9.—In a speech here tonight before the Southern California Taft association, in which Secretary of State Knox made his first political utterance since his return from Central America, he defended President Taft from the criticisms of Colonel Roosevelt and attacked the colonel as a man "prompted by whims," of "imperious ambitions, vanities and mysterious antipathies," and as one "who would break the rule of his party and his country and his own word to gain the seat of a friend."

"The new nationalism" of Colonel Roosevelt was termed by Secretary Knox as a "violent assault upon the autonomy of the states as the new nationalism of 1861 was upon the integrity of the union."

Roosevelt Against Roosevelt.

In refutation of Colonel Roosevelt's claim that President Taft was unfit for re-election, Mr. Knox cited the colonel's language which in 1908 commended Taft as the "true friend of reform, the true foe of abuses."

Mr. Knox, declaring that "this is perhaps one of the most extraordinary ante-convention campaigns within the history of our party," said that the effort so far "has been to confuse the situation by dragging in issues with which the states alone are concerned."

"If Mr. Roosevelt," he said, "claims that President Taft is seeking or has the support of the men who for years have stood for leadership in the republican party and guided its columns to victory, President Taft can reply that Mr. Roosevelt sought and had their support in his campaign in 1904 and that in many places now his interests are in the hands of rejected and disaffected political bosses whose political offenses 'smell to heaven.'"

Mr. Knox quoted a eulogy of Mr. Taft by Colonel Roosevelt in 1908 as an answer to the colonel's assertion "that President Taft is unfit to succeed himself." He also cited passages of praise of Mr. Taft in Mr. Roosevelt's speech as temporary chairman of the Saratoga convention in 1910.

"Mr. Roosevelt," the speaker continued, "has given no coherent reason for changing his just appraisement of Mr. Taft's character and qualifications."

The "New Nationalism."

The most conspicuous point of difference between Taft and Roosevelt, Mr. Knox asserted, centered in the "new nationalism" proposed by Colonel Roosevelt.

"This involves," he said, "a new conception by Mr. Roosevelt of the cohesive principle by which the states are bound together to constitute the United States of America.

"We heard much of a new nationalism prior to 1861. It was also predicted upon a false conception of the nature of the union. Its fundamental weakness was that some states claimed the right to destroy the union by separating themselves from the union. That issue was decided by the most tragic war of modern times—a war that carried grief into a million American homes.

"The new nationalism of Mr. Roosevelt represents the other extreme. It is as violent an assault on the autonomy of the states as the new nationalism of 1861 was upon the integrity of the union.

"Who dares prophesy that the people—the patient, undemonstrative people, whose full voice is never heard except in a great crisis—will not, when aroused to the danger of the substantial loss of independent statehood at a great cost, defend the states as they did the union?"

Earnest Plea for Mr. Taft.

Mr. Knox made an earnest plea that President Taft be given a second term.

"This has been," he said, "the republican rule without exception except one (President Hayes), which so forcibly emphasizes the rule, and unless the republican party has become the plaything of one man, prompted by his whims, his imperious ambitious, his vanities and mysterious antipathies, it will not break the rule now by refusing renomination to the man who has the proud distinction of having received more votes than were ever cast by the American people for any other candidate for president.

"On the other hand, you have one who has served two terms as president who would break the rule of his party and his country, and his own solemn word to gain the seat of his friend."

Don't Give Up!

Here Is Help!

If you, like the great multitude of women, suffer from the ailments peculiar to your system, don't give up! There are thousands, whose condition, no doubt, was worse than yours, but who have been relieved by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Read the following letter from Mrs. Ida Conner, of Copper Hill, Va. It contains words of encouragement for you:

"For many years, I had to stay in bed, sick with bearing-down pains, and pain in my side.

I had given up all hopes of ever getting well, because numerous medicines, which I took at different times, gave me no relief, nor anything else that anybody told me to try.

Finally, I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, three times a day. After a few doses, the pain in my side grew less, then quit, and it hasn't come back since. I feel like a new person now, and cannot help but recommend such a good medicine.

Cardui is simply wonderful, and it's a pleasure to write about the benefit received from its use."

Thousands of enthusiastic ladies have written similar letters, telling of the help Cardui has been to them.

A great many, like Mrs. Conner, feel so grateful, that they request us to publish their letters, hoping to help other women, who suffer as they did.

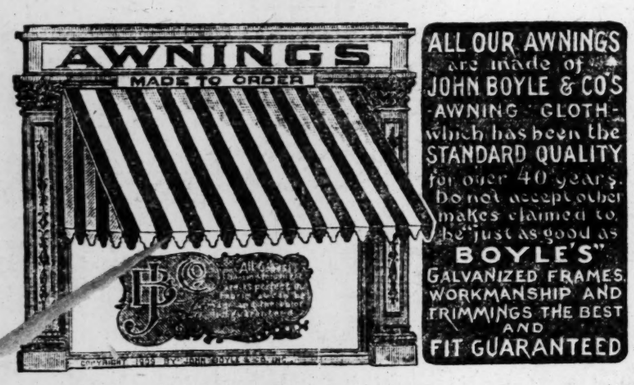

In the face of such evidence, you must acknowledge its merit. So, if you are a victim of womanly trouble, or if you just feel weak, tired, nervous, worn-out, we urge you to give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. At all druggists.

MORTUARY

Ernest Thornley, Jesup.

Jesup, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The interment services of Ernest Thornley, son of Mrs. Weston Thornley, of Cochran, Ga., were conducted here Tuesday by Rev. Patterson, assisted by Rev. Lester, of this place. The young man's life was exacted in a railroad accident, his death occurring at Cuba, Ala.

James D. Dewberry.

The body of James D. Dewberry, of 228 Stewart avenue, a car repairer, in the employ of the Western and Atlantic railway, who was killed Wednesday night in the wreck of a wrecking train near Gilmore, Ga., will be removed to Kennesaw, Ga., this morning, where the funeral and interment will take place. Dewberry's home was at Kennesaw, a small town within only a few miles of the wreck. While in Atlanta he boarded at 228 Stewart avenue.

Mrs. C. S. Wylly, Brunswick.

Brunswick, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Mrs. Charles S. Wylly, of this city, who died at a sanitarium in Savannah Tuesday night, was buried in the Episcopal cemetery at Frederica, St. Simons island, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wylly, who was a resident of this city for many years, is survived by her husband, Capt. Charles S. Wylly, together with a number of other relatives.

Mrs. A. W. Booker, Washington

Washington, Ga., May 9.—(Special.) Mrs. Annie Walton Booker, wife of the late Vince L. Booker, died Wednesday morning at her home, five miles east of Washington, after an illness covering three months. Mrs. Booker was 43 years old and a member of the Baptist church. She is survived by eight children, who are left to mourn the loss of both parents within three years. Mrs. Booker was the daughter of Mrs. J. A. Logan and a sister of Dr. Thomas B. Walton, both of Washington. The funeral and interment occurred Thursday at 11 o'clock at Rehoboth church, conducted by Rev. A. M. Hogon.

Athens Typos Elect.

Athens, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Yesterday afternoon there was one of the best meetings of the Athens Typographical union, No. 595, that the organization has had in quite a while. The most important item on the order of business was the annual election and installation of officers, the following full complement of officers being chosen and inducted with proper ceremony into their respective offices: President, A. C. Tilden; vice president, V. H. Wright; secretary treasurer, W. W. Hayes; recording secretary, G. E. Atkinson; auditing committee, J. H. Williams, J. B. Willbanks and V. H. Wright; sergeant-at-arms, J. B. Bryant.

POLICE DRAG SOCIALIST FROM PRUSSIAN DIET

Berlin, May 9.—The long-standing conflict between President Baron von Erffa and socialists of the Prussian diet resulted today in the calling of the police at the diet chamber, where they ejected Deputy Borchardt. The latter repeatedly interrupted the speaker. The president ordered him to be silent and on his refusal, declared him excluded from the session. Borchardt refused to withdraw, and the session was suspended while policemen carried him violently struggling to the street. Later Borchardt returned, and was again ejected.

The socialists have a very small representation, but have succeeded in inconveniencing the president. A revision of the rules of order to prevent such obstruction by a minority is pending.

Rounding Up Cows.

Waycross, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Many citizens of Waycross are finding that the city intends enforcing the cow ordinance without respect to whose cow is concerned. The special officer employed as "cow policeman" is having his hands full rounding up cows found within the city limits. The impounding fee is $1 plus feed charges. If cattle so impounded are not called for within a specified time same is sold at auction after due advertising notice through the city's official organ.

COMPENSATION BILL FAVORED BY ENGINEERS

Harrisburg, Pa., May 9.—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers indorsed the workmen's compensation bill now pending in congress at the closing session of the biennial convention here today, and H. E. Willis, assistant grand chief engineer and joint national legislative representative, was directed to go to Washington tomorrow to present the action of the convention to the senators and congressmen. Four hours were devoted to the discussion of the bill, and tomorrow the proposed pension plan probably will be taken up. This plan is to provide a monthly payment to engineers who are retired.

Congratulatory messages were received today from various bodies throughout the country, including the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church now in session at Minneapolis.

The grand international auxiliary, the women's organization attached to the brotherhood, devoted itself to business today, reports being presented showing 517 divisions, with a membership of 20,600.

Absolutely New Treatment

Send Quickly for This Great Wrinkle Book and Start at Once to Remove Your Wrinkles.

Did you ever see a Japanese woman with a clouded complexion? Did you ever see one with wrinkles, irrespective of age? Then learn how they achieve and maintain these lines of splendid feminine beauty. For the first time in America, the Princess Tokio methods are being made known, and they are a revelation. Never before have Christian women been able to solve the secrets of these oriental beauties, whose faces and forms have been the marvel through the ages. But at last the treasure-trove has been unlocked, and there is set before every American lady who writes immediately, the full knowledge of these methods.

The Princess Tokio Wrinkle Book is a message full of sisterly feeling and sympathy for the American ladies. It tells, without hesitation, all about the Princess Tokio new method of removing wrinkles without harmful creams, pastes, lotions, or plasters, or mechanical appliances.

Reports from all over America prove conclusively the wondrous excellence of this remarkable new treatment, and it is simply astonishing the thousands of letters being received from grateful women. A letter today from Mrs. H. E. Campbell states she used this treatment for two weeks and her wrinkles are all gone, and she further states that her face is as smooth as it was when she was a girl and that she is so happy that she cannot say too much in praise of this remarkable new treatment.

Ada Colville, of Texas, states that she used the treatment eight days and her face is entirely free of wrinkles, and she is so delighted that she has found something that will keep her young longer.

A letter just received at this office from Mrs. A. L. Morran, away off in Canada, states that she was delighted with this new combination wrinkle treatment. That it removed all her wrinkles and leaves the face smooth as an infant's and makes the skin fresh and young-looking.

Mrs. E. W. Jones in her letter states: "The Princess Tokio Wrinkle Treatment is excellent." She further states that it not only removed her wrinkles, but made her face as soft and smooth as velvet, and that she never before found a remedy which would make her young-looking, and that she tried Chicago and New York treatments without success.

From the glowing letters of praise pouring in, it is evident that this remarkable remedy has created a veritable sensation and furore in the fashionable homes and prominent society women and actresses adopt this method of remaining young-looking, banishing all signs of age.

Not Sent to Ladies Over 70.

The Princess Tokio book is free to every lady who writes, except those over seventy years of age. To these the Princess Tokio methods extend no hope—for they have neglected themselves for such a long period it is impossible to benefit through this knowledge after 70 years of age.

If you are a matron, would you like to look like a girl again? If you are fifty years of age, would you wish to look like a splendid young woman of twenty-five? If you are forty, would you like to look like a girl just out of her teens? Then to you this book will be of inestimable value. Keep that in mind. There is no charge for the Princess Tokio Wrinkle Book. It is a rare message for ladies wishing to learn of the new way to remove wrinkles and regain a youthful face.

SEND NO MONEY.

Under no circumstances will money be accepted for the Princess Tokio Book about wrinkles. It is yours absolutely free. It will be given to you with a willing hand, by one who believes that there has dawned the most splendid day for American women of all ages up to seventy. It is a message of the most hearty good cheer, and so unlike anything American, it is a treat in its direct instructions. All you need to do is to send and ask for a FREE copy, addressing the Princess Tokio B. C., Suite 1808, Central Bank Building, Denver, Colo.

You may rest assured that this book will be sent in a plain wrapper.

It tells how to remove every wrinkle by entirely new treatment in only eight days.

N. B. Arrangements have been made whereby all our readers may receive all that is offered free, and you must enclose a stamp to prove you are really in need of a quick wrinkle remover.

SHE KILLED HER LOVER AND THEN KILLED SELF

Los Angeles, Cal., May 9.—Peter Walker, a wealthy contractor, who recently completed a large part of the government work at the Yuma irrigation dam, was shot and killed by Mrs. Anna Dewey, of Haskell, Ohio, said to be the daughter of a former congressman. Mrs. Dewey committed suicide.

The tragedy occurred in the apartments of the woman, probably last Sunday, but the bodies were not found until today, when a police investigation revealed the fact that Walker was hoping for a reconciliation with his wife. The coroner issued certificates of death by murder and suicide. Mrs. Dewey separated from her husband six months ago.

WOMEN FOR JUDGES IN JUVENILE COURTS

Winston-Salem, N. C., May 9.—An indorsement of the movement for the appointment of women as judges of juvenile courts was voted at today's session of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, in session here. The organization also indorsed the movement launched by the Federated Women's Clubs of the country for a mammoth peace monument, to be placed at the entrance to the Panama canal, and accepted the invitation of the Colonial Dames of North America to participate in the unveiling of a memorial tablet to the Mecklenburg declaration of independence, at Raleigh, May 20.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN GRANTED BALLOT

Durham, N. C., May 9.—After a heated discussion, the ninety-sixth annual diocesan convention of the Episcopal church in North Carolina today adopted a constitutional amendment giving women the right to vote on church questions.

Today's action ends a fight which has been waged with vigor at previous conventions and constitutes a change which it is said will have a far-reaching effect in this and other dioceses of the church in this country.

Hitherto women have had no vote in the election of vestrymen or in other church affairs. Advocates of votes for women in church affairs also took occasion to assert her right to suffrage in public affairs as well.

South Carolina Episcopalians.

Beaufort, S. C., May 9.—At the end of its third day's session, the one hundred and twenty-second annual council of the Episcopal diocese of South Carolina adjourned today to meet next year at Grace church, Charleston. It was decided to sell the property at Aiken, S. C., given the church by the late Senator Edmunds. During the discussion upon this matter, R. I. Mannings, a delegate, referred to a possible division of the diocese in the near future.

An aggressive movement to increase the members of the ministry was discussed and a committee upon this subject was appointed.

CASHIER IS ARRESTED FOR ROBBING BANK

Toledo, Ohio, May 9.—Charles W. Laskey, 25 years old, cashier of the Mechanics' Savings bank, was arrested today on the charge of embezzling funds of the bank. Deputy State Bank Examiner W. D. Hopkins, who has been working on the books of the bank since Monday, reported his findings to President Henry W. French, who caused his cashier's arrest. Laskey was released tonight on $5,000 bond. He is charged with a discrepancy in accounts amounting to $4,000.

With the arrest of Cashier Laskey, Deputy Bank Examiner Hopkins ordered the closing of the institution and its branch in West Toledo. President French already has deposited sufficient quick assets with the deputy bank examiner to meet the alleged discrepancy, which Mr. Hopkins says is $15,000.

FIVE EARTHQUAKES ROCK MEXICAN CITY

Guadalajara, Mexico, May 9.—Five earthquakes, in addition to the fourteen experienced yesterday, were felt here at short intervals up to noon today. The only most pronounced shocks were at 6 o'clock and at 6:30 a. m. yesterday. Several buildings have been slightly damaged, but there has been no lives lost.

A peculiarity of the disturbances was that their action was limited to a zone of about twelve miles in diameter, with the center five miles west of the city, where fissues are reported to have appeared in a hillside.

Ciudad Guzman, or Zapotlan, as it is sometimes called, where severe damage was done by a quake about a year ago, is outside the zone, telegrams from that point stating the shocks were not felt.

Springtime Aids to Beauty

By CLEO DE GALYS

"A genuine complexion beautifier is made at home by dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. Gently rub this solution over the face, neck and forearms in the morning and it will 'hold' all day. It will not rub off nor show like powder and makes the skin soft, satiny and pliable.

"No toilet table is complete without a jar of Mother's Salve. It is a splendid remedy for chaps, cold sores, pimples, eczema and skin eruptions. It is antiseptic and heals cuts, burns, scalds and long-standing sores.

"A safe, sure and speedy way to remove superfluous hair on face or forearms is by applying delatone paste. Mix enough powdered delatone and water to cover the hairs, apply, and wipe off after two or three minutes; then wash the skin and the hairs will be gone.

"Soap and water dull and deaden hair. It is better to use a dry shampoo to clean the hair and scalp. Mix four ounces of powdered orris root with an original package of therox, sift a teaspoonful over the head and brush thoroughly through the hair. This treatment makes the hair grow long and abundant, and it becomes bright, wavy and beautifully lustrous."

WHICH SHALL IT BE?

Lustrous Hair and Charming Complexion or Faded, Gray, Scant Hair and Mottled Skin

Krom Hair Soap prevents dandruff, and the many other causes of faded, gray and scant hair and baldness. It keeps the scalp healthy by cleansing it thoroughly, medicating the pores and leaving the hair soft and lustrous.

The pine essence in Krom Hair Soap heals and soothes the scalp and stimulates the roots to grow healthy hair and resist disease germs. It prevents dandruff, faded, splitting and falling hair by keeping the scalp healthy. Where dandruff or other scalp ailments are far advanced use Krom Scalp Remedy. It positively relieves all cases, restores the scalp to a healthy condition.

WHEN THE TRUST BURNED RECORDS

Witness Says It Was Before Government Brought Suit

Baackes Swears That He Gave Orders Three Years Ago for the Destruction of All Papers Relating to the Wire Pools.

New York, May 9.—The question as to whether officers of the American Steel and Wire Company ordered the destruction of the evidence used in the so-called Jackson wire pool cases before or after the filing of the pending dissolution suit against the United States Steel Corporation was answered today. Frank Baackes, vice president of the wire company, testified before Commissioner Brown that he had given the order to George A. Cragin, his assistant sales manager at Worcester, Mass., in September or early in October last. The suit was filed on October 26.

Ordered Papers Destroyed.

Baackes testified, further, that he had given orders after the dissolution of the wire pools three years ago for the destruction of all the papers connecting his company with the pools operations, but that the order had been only partly executed. It was due to this oversight that the papers now in question came into the hands of the government.

This testimony came somewhat as a surprise, as it was elicited by the steel corporation's attorneys after they had fought to prevent Baackes from answering questions regarding the date of his visits to Worcester, where the papers were burned by Harry A. Whitney, a subordinate, who subsequently resigned.

Whitney testified a day or two ago that Baackes had given him the order personally, during a visit the latter made to Worcester in November, and that, at the grand jury investigation into the disappearance of the papers, an effort was made by Baackes and Cragin to guide his testimony in this regard. They hoped that he would testify that the directions were given by Cragin, he said.

Denied His Testimony.

It was upon Whitney's version that the government attorneys appeared anxious to prove that the papers were ordered destroyed after the filing of the suit, so that they might not again be used as evidence.

Both Cragin and Baackes today denied Whitney's testimony, but neither could give the exact dates upon which Baackes visited Worcester. All that Cragin definitely testified to was that on one of the visits Baackes had asked him if the papers had been destroyed.

While Cragin was on the stand, Judge Dickinson, for the government, tried unsuccessfully to get the witness to say that James H. Farrell, now president of the United States Steel Corporation, was aware of the wire pools. Cragin stoutly denied that he had ever had any correspondence or conversation with Farrell on the subject.

No General Injunction.

Trenton, N. J., May 9.—The application in the United States district court here for an injunction to restrain the United States Steel Corporation and a number of its subsidiary concerns from the destruction of books and papers which might be used as evidence in the suit of the government for the dissolution of the steel corporation, was dismissed in a per curiam opinion filed this morning by Judges Gray, Buffington and McPherson, except as to the American Steel and Wire Company, one of the steel corporation's subsidiary concerns.

The opinion, after speaking of the application, says in part:

"No evidence is offered that such destruction is threatened.

"The motion is supported almost wholly by the fact that after certain prosecution in the southern district of New York came to an end a number of papers belonging to the American Steel and Wire Company that had been furnished by the company to the government for use in such prosecution and had been returned to its possession were destroyed by one of its officers.

"While we are satisfied that this destruction was without evil intent the fact remains that the destruction did take place and that is the reason why, so far as the American Steel and Wire Company is concerned, the restraining order previously granted should be continued."

REBELS SKIRMISH WITH FEDERALS

Orozco Leads His Rebel Forces on Torreon, but the Way Is Blocked by Federals Under Huerta—Skirmishing Continues for Hours.

At the Rebel Front, Near Bermejillo, Mexico, May 9.—Skirmishing between the vanguard of General Orozco's army and the federals, under General Huerta, raged for hours today through a storm of wind and dust on the desert plains in front of Torreon, the objective point of the rebels.

Operating from Escalon as a base, where General Orozco and his staff are stationed, the liberal forces continued to tighten their cord on around the heavily garrisoned and fortified federal outposts at Bermejillo and Mapimi, both less than 20 miles from Torreon.

Though there was much skirmishing, no battle had been fought up to 5 o'clock tonight, the federals refusing to be drawn from their strong positions. There was hardly an hour in the day, however, that the liberals did not feint at some point to coax the federals out into the open.

Notwithstanding the intense heat, the men in the field are in good condition. A high wind has blown constantly for several days, raising clouds of dust and enabling the liberals to move freely without fear of detection.

Madero's Volunteers Mutiny.

Eagle Pass, Texas, May 9.—Four hundred federal volunteers mutinied near Monclova, Coahuila, this morning, according to advices received here tonight, refused to go into battle and were fired upon by other volunteers. Later the mutineers were surrounded by loyal troops, disarmed and are held prisoners awaiting orders from Mexico City as to their disposition.

Monclova, 100 miles southeast of Torreon, is the federal base in operations against a large band of rebels who were driven from the nearby villages of Cuatro Cienegas several days ago and are now in retreat to the mountains with government troops in pursuit.

Rebels are Defeated.

Mexico City, May 9.—In an engagement today at Saragosa, near Tlahualilo, 40 miles north of Torreon, between the advance columns of the rebels and the federals under General Rabago, a severe reverse was inflicted on the rebels, according to a dispatch from General Huerta at Bermejillo to President Madero tonight. Twenty-two rebel dead are reported with double that number of wounded. The rebels were seen carrying wounded from the field. These were believed to be officers. The federal losses were not reported. The dispatch indicated that the rebels had been forced to stop their advance and to retire from their position.

BRYAN FOR BRYAN, SAY DEMOCRATS

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—Harmon headquarters hears that an attempt will be made to pack the convention hall at Baltimore by the "Baltimore city machine" in the interest of one of the candidates.

Lieutenant Governor Nichols, of Ohio, who is in charge of Governor Harmon's campaign, will protest against such a demonstration, it is announced, and he will insist that the convention seats be properly distributed.

Harmon headquarters announce that the governor has captured twenty of the twenty-four delegates from Tennessee.

The New York World this morning has a striking cartoon and editorial carrying out the idea embraced in recent dispatches to The Constitution concerning Mr. Bryan's intentions. The cartoon shows Mr. Bryan hitching up a mule to a prairie wagon labeled "Baltimore or Bust." On the side of the canvas-covered wagon is the famous world map showing the tier of southern states which Mr. Bryan carried in his last campaign—the same states whose candidate Mr. Bryan is now opposing.

Instructed to go to Baltimore as a Clark delegate, Mr. Bryan has undertaken a whirlwind campaign tour of Ohio in the interest of Woodrow Wilson. This leads The World to remark: "Mr. Bryan is opposing Harmon and Underwood, and nominally supporting Wilson and Clark. But, if he succeeds in eliminating Harmon and Underwood from the contest, how long before he will turn upon Wilson and Clark? Harmon's 'heart is wrong,' says Bryan. But is any heart right except the faithful heart of William Jennings Bryan?"

UNDERWOOD LEADS WILSON 7,841 VOTES IN FLORIDA

Jacksonville, Fla., May 9.—The state democratic executive committee met here today and canvassed the vote of the primary held April 30, showing the following results:

There is some doubt of Milton entering the second contest. There will be a second primary for congressman from the second district between Clark and Hilburn and in the third between Mays and Wilson. For congressman-at-large Claude L'Engle and W. M. Toomer will fight it out in the second primary.

TAFT'S MARYLAND LEADERS CONCEDE STATE TO ROOSEVELT

Baltimore, Md., May 9.—Governor Phillips Lee Goldsborough, one of the leaders of the republican party in Maryland, today declared that he advocated sending a delegation to the national convention that would vote for Colonel Roosevelt as long as there was a chance of his receiving the nomination.

Governor Goldsborough said:

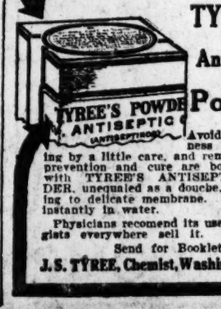

"Colonel Roosevelt won the preferential vote in the primaries in this state last Monday, and the will of the people should prevail. I was on the Taft side and we lost."

Chairman J. B. Hanna, of the republican state central committee, who heard the governor make the above statement, said he indorsed the governor's views. Mr. Hanna supported President Taft in the primary campaign.

It is expected that Governor Goldsborough will head the Maryland delegation to Chicago. Col. E. C. Carrington, chairman of the Roosevelt Maryland committee, assured the governor that the Roosevelt people wanted him to take the position. Governor Goldsborough implied that he would be glad to attend the national convention if it was demonstrated that such was the desire of the party.

THIS IS THE MACHINE THAT COMPILED ELECTION RETURNS

Remington-Wahl Adding and Subtracting Typewriter.

There have been machines that count, machines that spell, machines that play chess, but until the Remington-Wahl machine was invented, such a thing as an adding, subtracting and tabulating machine that could not make a mistake was unknown.

For three consecutive years now The Constitution has used this wonderful mechanical thinker in making up the election returns, in order to give them to the public accurately and comprehensively before they could be received elsewhere. And never once in the stress and hurry and bustle of those three years has the machine made an error.

The secret is in a simple little piece of mechanism which can be fitted to the Remington typewriter, thus giving a combined machine for figuring and writing. It can be disconnected and connected at will. It is infallible. It will not write for you if you carelessly make a mistake in the column where certain figures are to be put. It continually adds the figures written down, keeping the result before the writer, so that he can at any minute know the total up to that time, or it will subtract in the same way, merely by a simple twist of a little knob easily reached with the left hand.

Altogether, the machine is almost human. It cannot talk, but it writes a great deal better hand than most people do. It is really a labor-saver, an error-saver, a time-saver and a money-saver.

As proof of the excellence of the machine the United States government is using it in the census department, requiring the most skilful and accurate machines of any department of the government. Locally it is used by The Constitution with great success, by the Southern Express Company, McCord-Stewart Company, Jacobs' Pharmacies, M. Rich & Bros., and other large firms where time is money.

VETERANS, ON WAY HOME, WILL STOP IN ATLANTA

Hundreds of veterans who have been attending the annual reunion of the gray at Macon, Ga., will stop over in Atlanta today on their way to their homes in this and other states.

Visitors to the reunion who have just returned to Atlanta have asked The Constitution to call the attention of the police department and of the street car company to their presence in the city, and to ask that they be given every assistance possible. It has been suggested that if the chief of police would station one or two additional men at the Terminal plaza through the day it would aid the old veterans greatly in securing information as to how to reach various points in the city.

All through the day specials will be returning to Atlanta over the Central and Southern roads. Practically all the visitors to the Macon reunion have tickets which permit them to stop over in Atlanta if they desire to do so.

Where Was John?

(McCall's Magazine.)

A San Francisco woman, whose husband had been dead some years, went to a medium, who produced to her satisfaction the spirit of her dead husband.

"My Dear John," said the widow to the spirit, "are you happy now?"

"I am very happy," John replied.

"Happier than you were on earth with me?" she asked.

"Yes," was the answer, "I am far happier now than I was on earth with you."

"Tell me, John, what is it like in heaven?"

"Ho—m!" John replied, "I'm not in he—"

(From Norman E. Mack's National Monthly.)

Two men who had not been in the wilds of Mississippi long enough to know the dangerous places in the swamps, started out one warm day in early spring with minds—and bait—to catch some fish. They had not gone far when one of them came upon what he thought to be an unusually high spot of terra firma, overgrown with water grass.

He planted his feet firmly upon this spot, only to be precipitated headlong into a sink-hole, the like of which exists not out of Mississippi.

His friend ran to a nearby farm house and asked excitedly for a spade, with which to dig his friend out of the mud. The old farmer looked at him in astonishment and asked:

"How deep is he in?"

"He's up to his ankles," he shouted, excitedly.

"Oh, well, then, why don't you lead him out?"

Giants Now Lead The National League

Making Good Trip.

THE CRACKERS are having a most successful trip. In the Chattanooga series they won two games and tied one. In the Mobile series they won two and lost two, squaring the series after the count stood 2 to 0 against them and winning both. In the four games in Gulltown the Crackers counted eighteen runs to sixteen for the Gulls and made 24 hits to 23 for the Gulls.

Having Much Fun.

B. SHERIDAN, JR., sporting editor of The Mobile Register, is having considerable fun at the expense of the "aged Crackers," as he calls them. In his "Babble" Wednesday morning he warned Manager Hemphill about the trouble that was brewing, saying that his players might jump the team to attend the reunion at Macon. Go on and have your fun now, Barney, old boy, you will wish in about a month's time that the Gulls were back up at the top of the heap. Make hay while the sun shines, you may never have another chance.

About Those Gulls.

MOBILE has been the surprise of the Southern League race. Everyone picked them for last place. But Mike Finn has uncorked the "dark horse" of the race. But it is too good to last. This year may be an exception, but teams that Mike has piloted in the past have taken great spurts at the start and then fallen down at the end. A word to the wise is sufficient. The spurt may last the season out, but the same "aged and infirms," as the Mobile scribes are dubbing the Crackers, will not doff their lids to Finn's youngsters yet. Wait until June or July and then crow.

Has Gone Back.

BUGS RAYMOND is all in. He cannot make good this season in the United States League. The insect has fallen from the front seat on the water wagon too often and this year it is telling on him. When he lets a bunch of semi-pros and castoffs pound him for thirteen runs, he certainly has gone back, and then some. Poor old Bugs, it is lamentable.

Still Pursues.

THE BAD LUCK of Charlie Dooin's Philadelphia club continues. Hans Lobert, the big German third-sacker, was hurt in the game against the Giants last Saturday, but it was thought that it was only of a minor nature. The X-ray has developed the fact that Lobert broke his kneecap and will be out of the line-up for at least six weeks. What kind of a persistent hoodoo is pursuing the Phillies? They have had twice their share of injuries and the season not a month old yet. Ten men in all have been disabled at various times since the opening of the campaign. Yet their fiery leader does not lose his pepper. Under such conditions the Phillies are lucky to win any games at all. If they should happen to finish near the top they deserve a medal for gameness.

Did Not Do It.

BILL SMITH did not put one over on Johnny Dobbs, as was at first thought. The report that the Tigers had claimed Bill Bailey from the St. Louis Browns and then sold him at once to the Look-outs is not so, according to reports from Detroit. It seems that Bailey was shipped to the Providence farm immediately.

Woodland 10, Talbotton 2.

Woodland, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Woodland again defeated Talbotton in a rather one-sided game, by the score of 10 to 2, this being the second game Talbotton has lost on their home diamond in several years. Batteries, Woodland, Beal and W. Smith; Talbotton, Arnold, Douglass, Graham and Arrington.

Crackers Toss Away the First With Pelicans

O'Brien and Kerr Offenders When Runs Were Threatening.

By Sam L. Gilbert.

New Orleans, May 9.—(Special.)—Harold Johns will hereafter have different ideas of the proper procedure when "Cotton" Knaupp follows Hyder Barr at bat. With the score a tie, 2 to 2, today in the opening game of the Atlanta Crackers against the locals, Johnston was fanned starting the last half of the tenth. Spencer poked a safety to left, and Hendrix sent one to deeper left for two sacks, Spencer being held at third because Bailey almost succeeded in winging the rocket. Johns deliberately walked Barr, filling the bases. Then Knaupp nailed a screamer to left, knocking in the deciding tally and taking Atlanta's scalp.

A big crowd greeted the Georgia outfit, who got away with the lead by scoring twice in the fourth. The locals had a hard, uphill climb, but when Vedder Sitton weakened in the sixth, and seemed about to "blow" in the seventh, Johns was called upon, and Johns it was who was defeated.

Pels' Runs Gifts

Both the Crackers' runs were earned, while the first two made by the Pels were due to errors of Catcher Kerr and Shortstop O'Brien. East's sensational stop of Barr's roller in the second, and Callahan's highway robbery of Bailey in the fifth, were the fielding features. Sitton developed into a demon slugger during the time he worked, while Spencer and Knaupp starred as Bird bumpers.

Defeat for Atlanta didn't mean that Chief Frank's athletes were much better. In fact, the visitors looked like world-beaters for five rounds. Hemphill's double in the first, East's walk and clever steal in the second, Sitton getting on through Hendrix's error and reaching third on infield outs, betokened trouble for the Birds, once their southpaw eased up a bit.

O'Dell began it, the fourth inning fun, by a lift to left. He was narrowly out stealing. Alperman then singled to left, East to right, O'Brien forced East at second, and hits by Kerr and Sitton brought in Alperman and O'Brien. Kerr was out at the plate on an attempted double steal.

Ganley binged to right in the fifth, dying. Sitton soaked a long double to left in the seventh and was out down trying to take third. Fritz was invincible in the eighth, ninth and tenth, allowing no familiarity with first.

Pels Protested.

New Orleans protested the game in the first inning, when, with two on bases, Johnston's bunt was ruled an infield fly by Umpire-in-chief O'Toole, after Breitenstein had signaled "Doc" safe at first. Spencer flied to Hemphill, who nipped Callahan trying to count on the throw home. But the protest is now naturally withdrawn. Bunting and Johnston binged in the sixth. Spencer forced Johnston, then Bunting tallied, when Kerr muffed Alperman's throw of Hendrix's roller.

A pass to Fritz, Callahan's safety, and, after Johns relieved Sitton, O'Brien's boot of Spencer's speedy grounder, gave our boys number two. Incidentally, O'Toole allowed Sitton to retire when there were three balls and no strikes on Bunting. Johns pitched the fourth ball, filling the bases. He next fanned Johnston and wouldn't have allowed the locals to tie if O'Brien hadn't erred.

College Title To Be Settled At Nashville

Nashville, Tenn., May 9.—(Specal.)—The Southern Intercollegiate baseball championship hangs in the balance in advance of the series of games between the University of Alabama and Vanderbilt University, which starts here Friday, with one game Friday and a double-header on Saturday.

If Alabama wins two out of three games, the college championship will be one nice Gordian knot, as every team of any size in the south will have lost at least one series, but if Vanderbilt wins two out of three, she will be the only team in the south that has not lost a series to any southern team.

Kent Morrison has made up his deficiencies in studies and will be back on the mound in one of the games. Herrin, the man who beat Georgia, and Wilson Collins, the sensational freshman, hurling the other battles.

All Nashville will turn out to the games and the rooting is sure to be strenuous. The Alabama series is next to the last that the Commodores will play, three games being scheduled with the Sewanee Tigers on the mountain.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Under this head the sporting editor will endeavor to answer all questions pertaining to all branches of sports.

Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor The Constitution: 1. If A is at bat and forces B on first out at second how would it be counted in the player's averages? 2. Does a two-bagger, three-bagger or home run give a player a higher percentage than a single? If, how much?

1. A is credited with a time at bat; B gets nothing. The play is scored a fielder's choice. 2. No.

NO SALARY LIMIT TILL JUNE 1; MONTGOMERY CLUB SOLICITS VOTES ON IMPORTANT TOPIC

Today is the final cutting down day of the clubs of the Southern League when they will have to cut down to a sixteen-player limit and a $3,500 salary limit.

But the time for cutting down may be extended until June 1. President Callaway was in receipt of a telegram from President Jones of the Montgomery club, yesterday afternoon, asking him to vote on the proposition of not having any salary limit, but a sixteen-player limit, until June 1.

This move is being made to offset the bad start that all the clubs had this spring, and if a three-quarter vote of the circuit, or in other words, six clubs are in favor of the change, today will not be the final cutting down day.

Montgomery is in favor of it. President Callaway wired his approval of the move and Presidents Andrews, of Chattanooga, and Coleman, of Memphis, did the same thing. Birmingham is also expected to get right in line today. This leaves but one club vote necessary to put the matter through.

President Callaway is heartily in favor of the move and he hopes it goes through as it will relieve the local situation immensely.

If it does not go through, Pitcher Frank Dessau, who is now in Atlanta, suffering with a sore arm and suspended, will be placed on the ineligible list pending his rounding into form again, and then it will take a vote of the entire league to reinstate him once more. But this will be readily secured.

In the bulletin of releases from the big leagues issued last night the name of E. Appleby appears from New York to Atlanta. President Callaway stated last night that he knew nothing of the trade at all.

Pitchers Speer or Cavitt Will Not Join Crackers

Pitchers Speer and Cavitt, the two young hurlers who were with the Detroit Tigers this spring, will not become members of the Atlanta team in the near future, as was at first reported.

The report got out from the home of the Tigers and was the result of a circular letter written by Manager Hemphill to all the big league clubs asking for pitchers, the supposition being that as he was and the Detroit club was going to dispose of these two men that they would be turned over to Atlanta.

But in a letter written from Mobile, Manager Hemphill denies having heard of any trade for these two pitchers and insists that he does not want them either.

But there is no question about Hemphill having his eye peeled for a couple of good hurlers and in the near future there may be some developments along this line, but at present there is none.

Glen Leibhardt, the former Memphis iron man, was offered to the Crackers, but he would not help us any, as he is said to be in very poor shape, something that has been ailing the hurlers already on the staff to date.

Yellow Jackets Meet Old Rivals, Mercer, Today

Macon, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—The Mercer University baseball team is primed for the arrival of the Georgia Tech team here Friday for games with the local college team Friday and Saturday.

These two games will probably be the hardest fought games that have been played on the local diamond this season, due not only to the extreme rivalry between the two clubs, but to the apparent evenness in strength that the two teams show.

Both clubs are anxious to win the series. Their meeting in Atlanta earlier in the season was an even break. Both have shown much more strength since then.

WOLGAST MAY MEET PACKEY

San Francisco, May 9.—Tom Jones, manager for Ad Wolgast, said today he would accept the offer of the Garden Athletic Club of New York to guarantee the lightweight champion a purse of $15,000 for a ten-round bout with Packey McFarland on condition that McFarland weigh in at 133 pounds three or four hours before the bout.

Jones said his only open date was June 1 and that he had wired the club to that effect.

HARD LUCK

Baseball writers say that luck is anywheres from 40 to 60 per cent in figuring the game from a scientific standpoint. Writers of the great game of tennis have not placed any figures on the boards as to Dame Fortune's control of that sport.

G. W. Waring, the crack tennis player of the University of South Carolina, was euchered out of the southern intercollegiate tennis championship Thursday, when Dame Fortune turned her back on him.

He was playing Dick Goodwin, of the University of Georgia, in the finals for the singles title. He had won the first set 6 to 3 and had the second set well in hand, 5 to 2, when an accident put him out of the running.

Sprains Ankle.

Goodwin volleyed one over the net. Waring leaped into the air and on alighting sprained his right ankle. The injured member at once swelled to twice its natural size. He was hustled to Dr. Curtis' sanitarium near East Lake for treatment.

He and his brother were scheduled to play Collins and Hallman, of Tech, in the finals for the doubles championship, but owing to his injury they may be forced to default in the doubles.

Dr. Hoke Consulted.

Dr. Mike Hoke has been secured by the Waring brothers to make an examination of the injured ankle and if he gives them any hope that he may be able to use it by Saturday, with the courtesy of waiting, which Collins and Hallman are sure to extend, the match will be played Saturday. If Waring is unable to play by that time they will probably have to default in doubles, too.

The sportsmanlike thing for Collins and Hallman and Dick Goodwin to do, though, would be to give Waring opportunity to mend and then play the matches, taking up the singles just where play stopped. They would make a host of friends by so doing.

The sympathy of every member of the Atlanta Athletic Club who was at East Lake Thursday was personally extended to the Waring boys, who have made themselves deservedly popular since their arrival.

SOUTH ATLANTIC

Babies 9, Peaches 6.

Macon, Ga., May 9.—Although Macon made three runs in the first inning and tied the game twice, Albany was the winner, 9 to 6. Bernie McCay, manager of the Albany club, went in the box after P. McCay had given up a home run and two hits in the first inning. He pitched superb ball, Porterfield sprained his ankle in the third inning trying to get Calhoun's fly and had to retire. The feature of the game were Holden's double and triple and home runs by Calhoun and Cruise.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.

Batteries: Mathieu, Thompson and Kahlkoff; McCay and Reynolds. Time, 2 hours. Umpire, Pender.

Electrics 9, Indians 6.

Savannah, Ga., May 9.—Columbus came from behind in the closing stages and won a long and tiresome game with Savannah here today, 9 to 6. Manager Fox was forced to use three pitchers. The game was unusually slow and lacked interest after the fifth inning. The visitors, by steady plugging, overcoming the long lead of the locals acquired in the fifth, and winning out in the ninth.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.

Batteries—Winges, McCormack, Day and Krebs; Armstrong and Giebel. Time, 2:15. Umpire, Kelly.

Palmettos 2, Scouts 1.

Columbia, S. C., May 9.—Although outhit by the visitors, Columbia bunched a double and single with an error in the first inning and scored two runs, winning, 2 to 1. Jacksonville rallied in the ninth, when Whitted's double drove a run over, with two out, but the batter was caught between the bases and retired for the final out. Carroll's hitting and Maurer's fielding featured. Ridgway kept the hits well scattered.

Score by innings:	R.	H.	E.
Columbia 200 000 00x	3	3	1

Bombardier Wells Coming.

New York, May 9.—Bombardier Wells, the English heavyweight boxer, will start for America on May 11. He will go to the coast where he expects to box Al Palzer 20 rounds on July 4.

Dead Weight

Dead weight has certainly been cut out of our Summer Clothes this season.

And yet, they are so skilfully lined that they slope smoothly over the shoulders and drape to the body's form with never a hint of sagging or wrinkle.

WORSTED two-piece suits (alpaca lined), light two-piece suits, $20 to $35.

IN color effects they are extremely happy—ranging from strong, pure colors through all shades and stripe effects, etc. Come in for a "try-on." Glad to serve you, sale or no sale.

J. McSwain Woods, commander of the John B. Gordon camp, Sons of Veterans, returned to Atlanta yesterday from the reunion of the Confederate Veterans, which is being held in Macon. He speaks in glowing terms of the hospitality of the Macon people and of the efficient preparations which had been made to care for their every want. This is the first general reunion where the Sons of Veterans went into encampment. Each officer was given a private tent, with a boy scout to wait on him.

UNASSISTED TRIPLE PLAY BY AIKEN OF WACO TEAM

Houston, Texas, May 9.—Roy Aiken, third baseman of the Waco club of the Texas League, retired the Houston team in the first inning of today's game with a triple play, unassisted. With runners on second and third bases the signal was given the Houston batsman to bunt for a "squeeze" play. He bunted, the runner from third raced toward home and the man at second base came to third. But Aiken caught the bunt, tagged the man from second and touched third base before the man who attempted to score could get back. Waco, however, lost the game, 4 to 5.

GORDON PLAYS L. G. I. TEAM TODAY

Barnesville, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—On Friday the Gordon baseball team journeys to Locust Grove where they meet the latter institution in what promises to be a hard game. A few weeks ago these same teams met, Gordon getting away with the game by the score of 5 to 0. Although Norman, the Gordon pitcher, pitched a no-hit game, Locust Grove was at all times in the game and never gave up.

It is quite probable that Fillingem will work in this game. This lad has been pitching nice ball all the season and will certainly prove hard to beat. One of the best games he has pitched was against the Bingham Military Institute, holding this strong team to a 10-inning tie.

Only two more prep games remain for Gordon, one with Locust Grove and one with Stone Mountain. Should these games be won by Gordon, she will have the record of being undefeated by a prep team and the ranking of state champions.

STEWART DEFEATS "GUNBOAT" SMITH

New York, May 9.—Jim Stewart, of Brooklyn, defeated "Gunboat" Smith, of California, in a 10-round bout at the National Sporting club tonight. Smith weighed 176½ and Stewart 210½ pounds. At the end of the tenth round Referee Patsey Haley walked to Stewart's corner and raised Stewart's left arm, the method in vogue of indicating a winner when decisions were permitted here. It was generally understood that in this manner the referee would render a decision and it was accepted as such.

Considerable surprise was expressed by many patrons of boxing that an attempt should be made to give a decision in any form against the strict orders of the state athletic commission. Frank O'Neill, one of the two members of the commission, seemed taken aback when informed late tonight of what had occurred.

Settling the Vacation Problem

Son—Papa, where will we go this summer for vacation?

Father—Oh, it's too early to talk about it.

Daughter—Excuse me, Dad, but the Warners have already secured accommodations at the Temagami Inn, in the "Highlands of Ontario," and the Sheridans are going to the Hotel Wawa on Lake of Bays, Canada.

Mother—I would like to visit the Canadian resorts that our friends are talking so much about, and which it is said far surpass anything on this side of the line. One place Muskoka, I have heard is nearly "heavenly," and Algonquin Park is a perfect paradise. The cool, pure, pine-perfumed air is delightful, and the fishing, canoeing and bathing beyond compare.

Father—I agree with you that Canada has the call this year. We can go via Chicago or Buffalo and Toronto, on the Grand Trunk Railway. The rates are low, the railroad service good and the resorts magnificent. I will write to J. D. McDonald, A. G. P. A., 113 W. Adams Street, Chicago, for their illustrated booklets. (29)

NOTE—Go thou and do likewise.

MARIST WINS FROM U. S. B. NINE

By Howard McCall, Jr.

The husky lads from Marist college succeeded in playing like professionals during the last two days. The teams played were first-class ones—Boys' High School, on Wednesday, and University School for Boys, yesterday. The first cinched the city championship, and the latter put away one obstacle for the state.

The game on Thursday was won by a score of 9 to 7. The Marist lads showed that they could play ball any time, even after walking in a parade the night before. They completely outclassed the Stone Mountain lads by their slugging.

They knocked one pitcher off the mound on Marist campus, and worried the other one. Three two-baggers, a triple and numerous one-baggers were garnered off their deliveries. Hancock, of Marist, held the Mountain boys safely, but let down a little in the ninth.

The features of the game were the hitting of Smith, Allen and G. Harrison, of Marist, and Brooks, for the U. S. B. The first two stole two bases each, Smith starting Marist's rallies. Both teams fielded well, each making a pretty double play. Marist's catcher, Harry Smith, pegged the sphere to the bases like a veteran.

This game practically decides who will fight it out for the state championship. It lies between Gordon and Marist, as these teams have cleaned up for everything.

Doves 2, Cubs 1.

Chicago, May 9.—Pitcher Hess, of Boston, formerly with New Orleans, Southern League, let Chicago down with one hit today, and the visitors won the final game of the series here, 2 to 1. Not a Chicagoan reached second base until the eighth inning. At this juncture a base on balls, a double and an out saved the locals a shut-out. Smith allowed but four hits, two of which, with two stolen bases and a fielder's choice, netted two runs for the Bostons. A decision in the eighth was questioned by Tinker and Chance, and Umpire Bush ordered both players to the clubhouse.

Fayetteville Wins.

Fayetteville, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—With the score 7 to 5 against them in the 9th innning, Fayetteville came to bat and scored two runs. At the beginning of the 10th inning, Brows was substituted for Tollerson, who had been pitching for Fayetteville. Upon seeing him go in the box Brooks refused to play further, not giving any reason whatever. He struck out 14 of the heavy S. S. & B. U. batters here last Friday, giving up only 4 hits, and if no errors had been made behind him he would have won easily. He pitches against Senoia Friday.

Every Car Ready For Big Hill Climb

A good deal of "pep" is being injected into the hill climb for tomorrow afternoon by the claims of rival entrants which have led to several handicap races being arranged following the regular events.

Among the races so far scheduled is one between a Flanders 20, backed by the Studebaker corporation, and a big Pope-Hartford, entered by L. S. Crane, local manger for the company. A handicap will be given the smaller car.

Another contest will take place between a National and a Buick, while there have been numerous other challenges among the twenty-odd contestants, and some exciting sport is promised.

The idea of pulling off some races was suggested by the close preliminary practicing which has been going on for some weeks. All of the cars are running within a second or two of each other, and there have been some exciting stretches, followed by various claims from rival cars.

The result was a challenge or two, a small wager, which was gradually raised until it looks now as if the races will be the principal feature of the hill climb. All of the events will be good ones, as it is said the road is in splendid condition, and each entrant is going after records. It has been some years since Atlanta's last hill climb and widespread interest is being excited by this one.

A big list of cups has been offered, as follows: Atlanta Automobile and Accessories Association, E. Rivers Realty Company, The Atlanta Journal, The Motor Era, The Georgian, The Constitution, Studebaker corporation, Ajax-Grieb Rubber Company, Diamond Rubber Company Empire Tire Company, B. F. Goodrich Company, Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., Fisk Rubber Company, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, Republic Rubber Company, United States Tire Company.

All of the foregoing are for automobiles. The following are the cups to be contested by motorcycle entrants:

Elyea-Austell Company, Alexander-Seewald Company, Gus Castle.

Another Fine Main Bout for Gate City Club

The Gate City Club has matched up another fine bout for next Tuesday night, one that should take its place in the front of the bouts that have been staged here as being the best one of the lot.

Tommie Devlin, of Philadelphia, the husky little scrapper who conceded some ten or twelve pounds to Jimmy Perry and then put up such a wonderful bout, will meet a man of his own weight this coming week.

The Gate City Club has secured Frank Whitney, another local favorite, to tie up with the Philadelphia boy. Here is a mill that should be one of the best ever staged anywhere. Whitney and Devlin adopt just about the same kind of tactics. Both are shifty, fast, lightning jabbers and good punchers, quick on their feet and with a wonderful knowledge of the game.

The usual good preliminaries will be staged.

BUGS RAYMOND TO JOIN GIANTS

Cincinnati, May 9.—Bugs" Raymond, former pitcher for the New York National League club, was today reinstated by the National Baseball Commission, and is expected to report to the New York team. Raymond has been under suspension for a year and recently has been playing with the Chicago team in the United States League.

St. Louis, Mo., May 9.—When Manager McGraw, of the New York National League team, was told of the reinstatement of Arthur Raymond before the New York team departed for Chicago tonight he expressed surprise and said:

"Then you do not intend to use him?" he was asked.

PUNCH AT ATHENS FRESHMEN DANCE SPIKED WITH CASTOR OIL BY SOPHS

Athens, Ga., May 9.—(Special.)—Sweet content rests in the hearts of the university sophomore today, while sour looks and plans for dire revenge are evidenced by every freshman in the town.

For the most successful coup of the term was pulled off Wednesday night by the sophomores, with the freshmen as the victims. On that night the Freshman club gave its annual dance, the chief piece de resistance being a mammoth punch bowl filled with a tempting concoction prepared for the delectation of the freshmen and their guests.

Before the onslaughts of the thirsty people the bowl was soon emptied, and then the word was passed around that one of the principal ingredients of the punch had been added on the quiet by the sophomores in the shape of a liberal-sized bottle of castor oil.

As the result thereof, many a freshman showed up this morning with a decided lack of enthusiasm manifest in his manner, and there was a marked number of absentees at the recitation.

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES

$3 $3.50 $4 $4.50 & $5

W. L. Douglas makes and sells more $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 shoes than any other manufacturer in the world

W. L. Douglas $3.00 & $3.50 shoes are worn by millions of men, because they are the best shoes in the world for the price. They are the leaders everywhere.

W. L. Douglas $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00 shoes equal Custom Bench Work costing $6.00 to $8.00.

FOR SALE.

ON WHITEHALL ST., near Trinity avenue, a lot 50x115 feet at $1,000 a front foot. In view of the price recently paid of over $7,000 a foot between Alabama and Hunter, and of over $3,000 a foot between Hunter and Mitchell, and of $1,600 a foot between Mitchell and Trinity avenue, we consider that this lot at $1,000 a foot is a good speculative purchase. Attractive terms can be arranged. See Mr. Hook or Mr. Eve.

ON BUTLER ST., close to Decatur, lot 100x200, at $175 per foot—paying 4 per cent now, with almost no improvements. This is a good purchase. See Mr. Dews.

BARGAIN in three vacant lots on Josephine street. Owner wants $1,000 each. Terms can be arranged. Convenient to two car lines. Better investigate. See Mr. White.

MARIETTA STREET store and dwelling. On large lot 60x150 feet. There is room for three stores here. Property situated just north of the Bellwood viaduct. Marietta street is going to enhance in value rapidly. Now is the time to get it. Price, $5,000; $1,500 cash, balance easy. See Mr. Eve.

IN DECATUR, on McDonough street, we have an 8-room house, nearly new, on large shady lot, 160x200, on a corner. Price, $6,500. Would trade for a cheaper piece of property. See Mr. Radford.

FOR RENT.

179 Lucile Ave. (West End)

ON the right going out Lucile avenue, between Dargan and Holderness we have a nice two-story, 12-room residence, equipped with cabinet mantels, tile hearths, gas, bath on each floor, sink in the kitchen. This house is in nice condition through and through; has three servants' rooms on the back lot; has a large back yard and a lovely front yard, full of roses and shade trees; one of the prettiest places in West End, elegantly furnished through and through and the cheapest house in the city for $75 per month.

TWELVE-ROOM HOUSES.

319 N. Jackson St.

ON the right going out Jackson street, situated on a very large elevated lot, we have a 12-room residence with cabinet mantels downstairs and upstairs, bath, lavatory, stationary washstand on each floor; has two sinks with gas and nicely arranged for two families; has nice front and side porches, with a good back yard with magnolia trees on each side of the walk; back lot has garden, chicken houses and lot, and servant's house on back lot. Price, $50.

If you have money to loan we can place it.

HOW THE ORPINGTONS WERE BUILT UP BY COOK

It has been truthfully said that any man of ordinary intelligence can make a success in almost any line of business, if he is in love with his work, and will stick to it.

If he is in love with the work he will naturally want to get a thorough knowledge of it—not a superficial knowledge that will perhaps enable him to make about a half living out of it, but a deep down to the bottom knowledge that will enable him to produce something that is superior to that produced by any of his competitors.

The history of every successful man in America or elsewhere proves this to be true. It is a very unfortunte thing for the poultry industry of the entire country that comparatively few men who are engaged in this profitable industry possess the qualifications suggested above, but those who have for years worked along these lines have the honor today of being responsible for the progress already made and also in a large measure for what is yet to be accomplished. The very few men who have really done great things in this important industry can almost be counted on your fingers.

Only One Successful.

There are many poultry men yet with us who have, by taking hold of one of the established breeds, brought it to a very high degree of perfection. Some few of them have in the past originated what were considered new breeds. Almost all of these lasted for a short while and then faded away. I knew of but one man who has been largely successful in this respect, and that is Mr. Wm. Cook, of England. Something like eight or ten poultry men claim to have originated the Wyandotte, but the fact is that each one of them only improved a fowl that had been bred in the United States for many years before they originated it. The Plymouth Rock was originated in 1847-49, but it proved to be a complete failure. D. A. Upham, of Massachusetts, originated them again in 1869, and later on Joseph Spauldin, of Putnam, Conn., originated them again, and this is the fowl that we have with us today.

There are today a very large number of poultry men who have built up varieties of the different breeds that were originated by other breeders but no one has ever like Mr. Wm. Cook originated a breed entirely different from any other breed and then perfected it in all of its varieties. For years Mr. Cook bred Asiatics. His favorite among these valuable fowls was the Buff Cochin. For years he line bred this splendid breed and fenced them up by skillful breeding until his Buff Cochins held the record in England as show birds, and also as utility birds, for they held the egg record also. These and some other breeds that he handled were known all over England and America. He then determined to produce a fowl that would be built upon different lines and entirely different in its characteristics from any breed yet produced and so we have with us today the entire Orpington family that were originated by Mr. William Cook, of Kent, England. They made their first appearance in England in 1886. Ten years previous to this Mr. Cook determined to produce a fowl superior to any fowl, as he tells us, in the world. The first to appear was the Black Orpington, then in 1889 came the White Orpington. In 1894 the Buff Orpingtons made their appearance. In 1897—Queen Victoria's jubilee year—care the Diamond Jubilee Orpington. Mr. Cook presented a pen of these birds to the queen, and named them in honor of this great event. Next and last came the Spangled Orpington in 1899.

There are ten varieties. The five mentioned are bred in single and rose comb, making two distinct varieties each of the five mentioned.

Mr. Cook is called the Luther Burbanks of poultry culture. Each of these varieties has been produced by an entire different system of crossing other breeds togethef, and yet producing the same results except in color. They have been bred in every part of the world. Mr. Cook tells us that in order to test them thoroughly, they have been bred in Central Africa and then in the north of Russia, at Archangel, on the White sea, and also in the extreme north of Canada. They do well in any part of the world if given a chance.

Mr. Cook claims for these fowls that they are all alike in shape, all alike in flesh—which is superior to any other fowl in flavor; that they lay more eggs—particularly in winter—than any other breed. They are very quiet and gentle, with no disposition to fly; are lesser than any clean-legged fowl, [illegible] mature quicker than any oth[illegible]ed; good setters and mothers; eat broken off when broody; do well on a barn lot as on a range. They are robust in constitution, and are immune from climatic changes, and that in consequence of these good qualities they are the best fowl on earth.

I will now give an account of the way in which Mr. Cook, by different crosses built up the ten varieties of Orpingtons. He commenced in 1876 to produce a fowl, superior as he tells us, to any fowl on earth. He had been breeding fancy fowls for years and had a perfect knowledge of the characteristics of the different breeds then known. So he selected fowls that had one or more of the strong points that he wished to combine in one breed. Black fowls were very popular in England then, and Mr. Cook having a clear idea of the fowl that he wanted, when his Plymouth Rocks produced a few black chickens that proved to be in line with his desires, bred the pullets on black Minorcas, and the pullets of this cross he bred on a Langshan cock. Then it took nine years breeding the result of this cross together to produce the Black Orpington. He accidentally found a few Rose-comb Langshane in a shipment just arrived from Shanghai. He secured a few of them, and from this cross came the Rose-comb Black Orpington. He then commenced to breed for the whites. After experimenting for some time he produced the fowl that he was after by crossing White Leghorn cocks on Black Hamburg pullets. The pullets of this cross were nearly all white. These he crossed with White Dorking cocks and after some years got what he wanted, a White Orpington. Rose-comb Dorkings produced the Rose-comb Orpington. Before the blacks and whites were perfected Mr. Cook commenced experimenting to produce the buffs. He had then, he tells me, the best Buff Cochins in the world. They had the best egg record of any other breed. Some of them had laid forty-one eggs in forty-one days. They were not inclined to be broody, and when broody were easily broken up. He finally mated these Cochins on Spangled Hamburgs, and their chickens on Dark Dorkings. Having bred these chickens for a year or two, he brought out the Buff Orpington, crossing back on the Rose-comb Black Dorkings, and he produced the Rose-comb Buff. The Diamond Jubilee was bred like the Buffs, except that a speckled Dorking was used. The Spangled Orpington was produced by crossing Dark Dorkings on Barred Rocks, and the result crossed on Spangled Hamburgs. Mr. Cook likes the Black Orpington better than any other that he has produced.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES, DAY BY DAY

ALL THE NEWS OF REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING

An interesting sale which became known on Thursday was that of No. 545 Whitehall street, which is the plant of the Binder Frame Manufacturing Company. Joseph Binder sold this property to Sam Auerbach and others for a consideration of $20,000.

The property consists of a brick manufacturing building. It is situated on the west side of the street, between Humphries street and Stewart avenue.

Hunter Street Auction.

Edwin P. Ansley's agency sold yesterday at noon two business lots on West Hunter street at public auction, for an aggregate consideration of $26,460.

These two lots were sold for Shumake & Murphy. They lie on the south side of the street, 100 feet east of Madison avenue. Each has a frontage of [illegible] with a depth of 135 feet. One lot, [illegible] at $710 per front foot, and the other brought $640.

Semi-Central Private Sales.

Ramsey, Green & Anderson have sold for Hugh L. McKee to a syndicate No. 4 Spring street, for a consideration of $27,000. The property is in the triangle of Spring and Walton streets, fronting 70 feet on Spring, with a depth of 39 feet on north side.

This is the last of a series of purchases made by the syndicate which purchased nearly the entire block bounded by Spring, Bartow, Luckie and Walton streets.

George J. Yundt has sold to W. L. Porter Nos. 89-93 West Cain street, for a consideration of $15,000. Mr. Porter has re-sold the property for $18,500.

The property is on the north side of Cain, 75 feet east of Orme street. The lot is 75x150 feet.

Apartment House Permit Issued.

The building permit for the erection of the Werner apartment house at No. 49 Washington street was issued to E. A. and L. W. Werner yesterday.

As has been previously announced, this will be a three-story brick apartment house. It will be built at a cost of $20,000.

Fifth Avenue as Arnold Bennett Saw It.

(Arnold Bennett, in Harper's Magazine for May.)

The glory of the thoroughfare inspires even those who only walk up and down it. It inspires particularly the mounted policeman as he reigns over a turbulent crossing. It inspires the women, and particularly the young women, as they pass in front of the windows, owning their contents in thought. I sat once with an old, white-haired, and serious gentleman, gazing through glass at Fifth avenue, and I ventured to say to him, "There are fine women on Fifth avenue." "By Jove!" he exclaimed, with deep conviction, and his eyes suddenly fired, "there are!" On the whole, I think that, in their carriages or on their feet, they know a little better how to do justice to a fine thoroughfare than the women of any other capital in my acquaintance. I have driven rapidly in a fast car, clinging to my hat and my hair against the New York wind, from one end of Fifth avenue to the other, and what with the sunshine, and the flags wildly waving in the sunshine, and the blue sky and the cornices jutting into it and the roofs scraping it, and the large whiteness of the stores, and the invitation of the signs, and the display of the windows, and the slippery sinuousness of the other cars, and the proud opposing processions of American subjects—what with all this and with the supreme imperialism of the mounted policeman, I have been positively intoxicated!

And yet possibly the greatest moment in the life of Fifth avenue is at dusk, when dusk falls at tea time. The street lamps flicker into a steady steely blue, and the windows of the hotels and restaurants throw a yellow radiance; all the shops—especially the jewelers' shops—become enchanted treasure-houses, whose interiors recede away behind their facades into infinity; and the endless files of innumerable vehicles, interlacing and swerving, put forth each a pair of glittering eyes. . . . Come suddenly upon it all, from the leafy fastnesses of Central Park, round the corner from the Plaza hotel, and wait your turn until the arm of the policeman, whose blue coat is now whitened with dust, permits your restive chauffeur to plunge down into the main currents of the city. . . . You will have then the most grandiose impression that New York is, in fact, inhabited; and that even though the spectacular luxury of New York be nearly as much founded upon social injustice and poverty as any imperfect human civilization in Europe, it is a boon to be alive therein! . . . In half an hour, in three-quarters of an hour, the vitality is clean gone out of the street. The shops have let down their rich, gathered curtains, the pavements are deserted, and the roadway is no longer perilous. And nothing save a fire will arouse Fifth avenue till the next morning. Even on an election night the sole sign in Fifth avenue of the disorder of politics will be a few long strips of tape-paper wreathing in the breeze on the asphalt under the lonely lamps.

A farmer writing in the current issue of Farm and Fireside shows how he gets nothing out of a high tariff on wool and how the laboring man who buys clothing at high prices gets nothing. He makes the following comments:

"Although I am one of the producers of wool, it seems to me exceedingly unfair to have this high protective tariff on wool for which the farmer who produces wool gets so little benefit. The farmer who does not produce the wool is certainly not benefited, and how about the thousands of laboring men and their families who have to pay twice as much for their woolen goods as they should be forced to pay were there no tariff?

"There are thousands of families in this class that are improperly clad every winter on account of this wool tariff. Who is reaping the benefit of their suffering? It is certainly not the farmer who is producing the wool.

"Were the tariff removed and the price of woolen goods cut in about half, the retailer would be selling more than twice as much goods, and would be taking as much less margin of profit than now. That is the condition just across our line in Canada. A suit of good woolen clothes there costs about one-half what it does in the United States. Even though two stores selling the same kind of goods may not be ten miles apart, as is the case of the stores in Detroit and Windsor, yet a poor man living in Detroit cannot go over to Windsor and buy a suit and return with it without paying duty enough on it to make it cost him as much as it would in Detroit."

The Creed of the I. W. W.

Lorin F. Deland, who contributes to the current Atlantic a detailed study of the Lawrence strike, quotes verbatim from a manifesto issued by the I. W. W.:—

"As a revolutionary organization the Industrial Workers of the World aims to use any and all tactics that will get the results sought with the least expenditure of time and energy. The tactics used are determined solely by the power of the organization to make good in their use. The question of 'right' and 'wrong' does not concern us.

"No terms made with an employer are final. All peace, so long as the wage-system lasts, is but an armed truce. At any favorable opportunity the struggle is renewed.

"The organization does not allow contracts with the employers. It aims, where strikes are used, to paralyze all branches of the industry involved, when the employers can least afford a cessation of work—during the busy season and when there are rush orders to be filled.

"Failing to force concessions from the employers by the strike, work is resumed and 'sabotage' is used to force the employers to concede the demands of the workers.

"During strikes the works are closely picketed and every effort made to keep the employers from getting workers into the shops. All supplies are cut off from strike-bound shops. All shipments are refused, or mis-sent, delayed and lost if possible.

"Strike-breakers are also isolated to the full extent of the powers of the organization. Interference by the government is resented by open violation of the government's orders, going to jail en masse, causing expense to the taxpayers—which is but another name for the employing class.

"In short, the I. W. W. advocates the use of militant 'direct action' tactics to the full extent of our power to make them."

This is not political socialism, says Mr. Deland. It is not anything political or theoretical. The I. W. W. does not talk, write, or argue. It acts! It cares nothing for "right" or "wrong." It openly defies government by law, and announces that it will use any violence it can commit.

Summer Tourists Spend $200,000,000.

(Sereno S. Pratt in Leslie's.)

The United States is one of the world's great sources of food supply, and it is also a large producer of tobacco; and yet if one adds to the amount of money which the rest of the world paid to us in 1910 for wheat, for flour, for corn and for other breadstuffs the amount it paid to us for our tobacco, the total is less than the sum which American travelers expended in various countries abroad over the amount expended by foreign tourists in the United States.

The American tourist is, therefore, a factor in a large financial problem. He figures in the determination of "the balance of trade," which fixes the ability of one country to draw supplies of gold from other countries. He is an influence in the money market; and as the American is a great traveler and a prodigal spender, that influence is an important one.

The sums expended by Americans traveling in foreign countries over the sums expended by foreign tourists in the United States are estimated to make the imposing total of $170,000,000 net. If you divide that by 87,000, which is the excess number of American tourists abroad over the foreign tourists in the United States, you have about $2,000 as the average amount spent by each tourist; and if that is a fair average—and it seems too big—then the 244,000 Americans traveling abroad in 1910 must have spent about $488,000,000, which is nearly equal to what the rest of the world paid for our cotton.

Queen Carmen Sylva on the Woman Question.

Queen Carmen Sylva, in a plain-spoken article on the "Greatest Need of Women," in the June McCall's, sums up and pronounces it to be co-operation. She also urges that "the great woman question is in reality only a mother question, and if we succeed in making out of every girl a mother in mind or body, or both, we shall soon occupy the position Creation ordained for us." Of course there can hardly be any question as to what women can accomplish for the betterment of all through co-operation. But there does seem to be a reasonable question as to whether and to what extent such a desirable means to an end can be effected. Are or are not women constitutionally capable of sustained, national team-work? On the answer depend largely the power and permanency of the women of tomorrow as co-partners with men in politics and government.

CAMPAIGN CLOSES SATURDAY, MAY 11, AT MIDNIGHT

All Checks Sent to This Department From Out-of-Town Candidates Must Be Certified.

NOTICE TO CONTESTANTS.

Saturday at midnight The Constitution's circulation campaign will be brought to a close, and subscriptions that are not in this office or in the mail before this hour will be of no value to the contestants. Familiarize yourself with all details pertaining to the close of the campaign, and in this manner we are sure no one will have any vain regrets to offer on account of unaccepted subscriptions or votes.

All remittances or votes mailed before midnight, May 11, will be accepted, but any remittances mailed after 12 p. m. will be returned to the candidate. Read the following rules covering the close of the campaign carefully; in fact, read them over several times, and by adhering strictly to these rules each candidate is assured against any loss of votes through neglect:

First—All reserve votes must be in the ballot box before midnight, May 11.

Second—All subscriptions sent in by candidates residing outside the city must be accompanied by cash, draft, money order or certified checks. All checks must be certified.

Third—All votes and remittances mailed should bear a special delivery stamp, and must be addressed to the Campaign Manager, Constitution, Atlanta, Georgia.

Fourth—All votes and remittances mailed on the closing day of the campaign, Saturday, May 11, besides having special delivery stamp, must bear such distinguishing postmarks of the home office as will indicate that they were in the mail before midnight, May 11.

Fifth—This department will acknowledge receipt of all remittances made to this department, stating the number of the stub, together with the amount of votes issued on the various payments.

Sixth—Address all letters carrying remittances or votes to the campaign department, and not to any individual. This is important.

The final counting of votes will be made as quickly after the close of the campaign as possible.

The time has gone when the campaign manager's advice to hustle will be worth considering. If you have worked up to this time it is not necessary to advise you to continue your efforts until the closing hours.

Remember this, that when the hour of midnight is struck over the sleeping world you are too late to secure more subscriptions, and your opportunities have vanished.

The advice of the campaign manager is that contestants should not wait until the very last minute to send or bring their subscriptions. If you live out of town mail them today; whatever subscriptions you secure after that time can be mailed at a later time. City contestants should send or bring their subscriptions as early as possible in order to avoid the rush of the closing hours.

Remember, two more days in which to work. Secure those promised subscriptions NOW.

The following is a copy of a petition to be presented to the Secretary of State of Georgia, pursuant to the Statute in such cases made:

GEORGIA—Fulton County. To the Honorable Philip Cook, Secretary of State:

I.

That it is a corporation organized, chartered and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Georgia under the name of Cotton States Insurance Company, incorporated for the purpose of conducting a general fire insurance business under the laws of the State of Georgia, by the Secretary of State under the General Law.

II.

The date of said original charter is November 29, 1911, and petitioner shows that it has not heretofore obtained any amendment thereto.

III.

Petitioner represents that it desires that its charter be amended in the following respects, to-wit:

(a.) That the capital stock of said Company be increased from the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars to the sum of One Million Dollars, said stock to have a par value of One Hundred Dollars per share.

(b.) That the name of said Company be changed from Cotton States Insurance Company to COTTON STATES FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

IV.

Petitioner shows that said amendments have been authorized by the vote of a majority in amount of the entire capital stock of the said corporation at a meeting of the stockholders called for the purpose on March 16, 1912, by resolution of the Board of Directors, notice of which meeting was mailed to each stockholder of record, addressed to his last known place of residence, thirty days previous to the date of said meeting and more than ten days prior thereto, as required by law, and petitioner shows that a certified abstract is filed herewith from the minutes of its Board of Directors showing that the application for the proposed amendments has been authorized by the vote of a majority in amount of the entire capital stock, as hereinbefore set out; that this petition has been published once a week for four weeks in The Atlanta Constitution, in which said paper is published the Sheriff's sales of the County of Fulton, in which said county is located the principal office of petitioner. All of which appears from the affidavit of the President hereto attached.

Petitioner herewith tenders to the Secretary of State a fee of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars as required by law.

COTTON STATES INSURANCE COMPANY.
By HARVIE JORDAN, President.
H. K. COLE, A. Secretary.
BROWN & RANDOLPH, PARKER & SCOTT, Attorneys for Petitioner.

By virtue of the order of the Court of Ordinary of Fulton County, will be sold, at public out cry, on the first Tuesday in June, 1912, at the courthouse door in said county, between the legal hours of sale, the tract of land in said county, to-wit: "A contingent remainder interest under the will of William Flynn, late of said county, deceased, in a part of land lot No. 84 of the 14th district of Fulton County, Georgia, commencing on the south side of West Fair Street 240 feet west of Chapel Street, and running thence west along the south side of West Fair Street, 60 feet, thence running south, same width as front, 60 feet, more or less, said lot being in the City of Atlanta and having a house thereon, known as No. 196 West Fair Street."

Said property is being sold for the purpose of maintainance and support as recited in said order.

G. A. VINSON,
As Guardian of the Property of Mary Shields.

GEORGIA—Fulton County. Ordinary's Office, May 9, 1912. E. E. Keefe, as Guardian of Mana E. Keefe, represents that he has fully discharged the duties of his said trust, and prays for letters of dismission. This is, therefore, to notify all persons concerned, to show cause, if any they can, on or before the first Monday in June next, why said guardian should not be discharged.

JOHN R. WILKINSON, Ordinary.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS of the District of Columbia, Washington, D. C., May 6, 1912. Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 2 o'clock p. m., May 28, 1912, for furnishing Granite Curbing during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1912, and ending June 30, 1913.

Form of proposal, specifications and necessary information may be obtained upon application to the Purchasing Officer, D. C., Room 320, District Building. Cuno H. Rudolph, John A. Johnston, William V. Judson, Commissioners, D. C.

GEORGIA—Fulton County. Ordinary's Office, May 9, 1912. Frank J. Edelmann, Administrator on the estate of Frank Edelmann, deceased, has applied for leave to sell the land of said deceased. This is, therefore, to notify all concerned to file their objections, if any they have, on or before the first Monday in June next, else leave will then be granted said applicant, as applied for. JOHN R. WILKINSON, Ordinary.

GEORGIA—Fulton County. Court of Ordinary, Chambers, May 9, 1912. To the heirs-at-law of George Sale, deceased: F. P. Hilburn, having applied for an order requiring F. J. Paxon, the Administrator of the estate of said deceased, to execute title under a bond for title; you are hereby cited to be and appear at the next June term of said court, to be held on the first Monday in June next, then and there to show cause, if any you can, why said order should not be granted.

JOHN R. WILKINSON, Ordinary.

GEORGIA—Fulton County. Court of Ordinary. At Chambers, May 9, 1912. The appraisers on the application of Martha Lauderdale, widow of E. F. Lauderdale, deceased, for a twelve months' support for herself and minor children, having duly filed their return, all persons are hereby cited to show cause, if any they have, at the next June term of this court, why said application should not be granted.

JOHN R. WILKINSON, Ordinary.

GEORGIA—Fulton County. Ordinary's Office, May 9, 1912. Morris Frankel has applied for letters of administration on the estate of Mrs. Lena Rosenthal, deceased. This is, therefore, to notify all concerned that the same will be heard on the first Monday in June next.

JOHN R. WILKINSON, Ordinary.

GEORGIA—Fulton County.

To the Superior Court of Fulton County:

COTTON MADE NET GAIN FOR THE DAY

New York, May 9.—A lower opening in the cotton market was followed by an advance on predictions of unsettled weather in the south, and, while the closing tone was barely steady, last prices showed a net gain of from 4 to 8 points for the day.

The market opened steady at a decline of from 5 to 8 points, in response to lower cables and reports of generally good weather in the south for the past 24 hours. Leading bull interests gave the market active support at the start, absorbing rather heavy local offerings, inspired by the weakness of Liverpool and following the publication of the official forecast for unsettled and showery weather in all sections of the belt, except the Carolinas and Georgia, the market turned firmer.

These unfavorable forecasts appeared to be restricting sales, rather than stimulating, any general buying for long account, and after a rally to about the closing figures of yesterday trading became quiet. The tone was steady, however, and with very little cotton for sale around the ring, a renewal of support from uptown bulls started another bulge in the early afternoon. As prices worked up, people who had sold at the opening began covering, probably in fear of an unfavorable weather map tomorrow morning. Active months sold about 11 to 12 points net higher early in the last hour, but around 11.55 for July and 11.73 for October there was a good deal of realizing, and the close was 5 or 6 off from the best.

The main factor on the rally from the early low point appeared to be the fear of renewed rains in the central belt, and numerous reports from the south complaining of delayed farm work and other unfavorable new crop features. The decline in Liverpool was attributed to liquidation on the better weather reported over night in the south.

Receipts 5,313 bales, against 11,456 last week and 9,432 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston 1,771, against 1,388 last year; at New Orleans 1,135, against 6,119 last year, and at Houston 839, against 2,036 last year.

Cotton, spot closed steady, 10 points higher; middling uplands 11.90; middling gulf 12.15; sales 2,023 bales.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, May 9.—Spot cotton steady, ¼c up; middling, 11 15-16; sales on the spot, 350 bales; to arrive, 400; low ordinary, 8⅝, nominal; ordinary, 9 3-16, nominal; good ordinary, 10⅝; strict good ordinary, 11; low middling, 11 5-16; strict low middling, 11 11-16; middling, 11 15-16; strict middling, 12¼; good middling, 12; strict good middling, 12 11-16; middling fair, 13; middling fair to fair, 13⅜; fair, 13⅝; receipts, 1,135; stock, 72,790.

Cotton futures opened steady at a decline of 1 to 4 points on poor cables and a good weather map. After the call, the most active months were 3 to 5 points down, but here good buying orders came in. Gossip said strong bull-ish interests were increasing their lines of long cotton. The forecast was not reassuring as it promised unsettled weather and showers over a large part of the belt. At the end of the first half hour of business, trading months were 6 to 8 points over yesterday's close.

The market had a very steady tone throughout the morning. Shorts were nervous over poor crop accounts and furnished a steady demand, and at times general long buying was in evidence. Reports from the eastern belt said that much planting was being done with no preparation of the land at all and that considerable seed was rotting in the ground, which would necessitate replanting. Bulls commenced to talk about a material decrease in acreage. At the highest of the morning, prices were 13 to 15 points over yesterday's close. At noon, they were 9 to 12 over.

In the afternoon, the market was quiet, but steady. At 2 o'clock, prices were 17 to 21 points over yesterday's final quotations.

The market closed steady at a net advance of 13 to 15 points.

Dry Goods.

New York, May 9.—Trade in dry goods continues quiet, largely influenced by unsettled weather. Yarn goods rule firm. In the woolen goods division agents are looking forward to slightly higher prices for a new season, in consequence of firmer prices on wool and maintained costs of production.

John F. Black & Co.

New York, May 9.—The weather map was very favorable this morning, but the weather sharps at once began to predict more bad weather and the market was very willing to listen. The new bull crowd was very aggressive and the Waldorf bunch and the Wall street interests were again good buyers. Most of the floor scalpers seemed disposed to operate on the long side and the market received very active support all day. After opening 5 or 6 points down on the 30° weather map and a disappointing Liverpool, prices were forced up until October sold 12 points higher than yesterday's close. Right at the close, profit-taking of the scalping longs eased the market of about 5 points from the top and this selling made the close barely steady. There was no time during the day, however, that the market was barely steady, except at the close. The net advance for the day was 5 to 7 points.

The market expects bad weather reports tomorrow. If they are not received, prices will probably ease off, but if the weather for over Sunday is bad there will be a sharp advance.

Liverpool is due to come 3 to 4½ points up tomorrow.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, May 9.—Our advices from Liverpool state that that market was depressed by reason of heavy selling orders from the continent. It rallied, however, on improvement in the order market. This [illegible] due to the buying by the sellers of yes[illegible] who did not like the unsettled weather [illegible]. While the map showed generally clear we[illegible] the local traders feel that we shall have another [illegible] period and are therefore very bullish on the ma[illegible]. They become buyers from the lower opening, advancing prices some 7 to 8 points above last evening. A reaction about noon did not change their confidence in the probabilities of bad weather again.

Liverpool is expected to come 3½ to 4½ higher in the morning.

Liverpool Cotton.

Liverpool, May 9.—Cotton spot good business done; prices 1 point higher; American middling fair, 7.11; good middling, 6.73; middling, 6.59; low middling, 6.19; good ordinary, 5.17; ordinary, 5.41. The sales of the day were 12,000 bales, of which 1,000 were for speculation and export and included 11,200 American. Receipts, 11,000 bales, including [illegible]00 American. Futures opened steady, [illegible] firm.

STOCKS WEAKER IN THE LAST HOUR

New York, May 9.—The tone of today's stock market for the greater part of the session was more steady and strong than at any time since last Friday, when prices underwent their first severe reversal in some weeks. Dealings were again in moderate volume, but the movement was fairly broad, taking in a number of the equipment issues, as well as other semi-active shares. There was further buying of American Can, the preferred shares rising to a new high record at 120. All the standard issues were higher, with the usual degree of activity in United States Steel and Reading. The former rose sharply in the early afternoon, when it became known that the United States circuit court in New Jersey had refused to grant an injunction asked for by the federal government in connection with the inquiry now proceeding in this city.

In the final hour, the market reversed itself, beginning with a further decline in Illinois Central, which fell to 120⅝, its lowest price in four years. The selling movement then ensued which wiped out the greater part of the previous rise and reduced net gains to minor proportions. The severe break in Illinois Central was attributed to the heavy losses the property is supposed to have incurred as a result of the disastrous floods in the Mississippi river.

Reduction of the Bank of England discount rate from 3 to 2½ per cent was one of the important developments of the day. The rate is the lowest in over a year, and only twice in the past thirteen years has Great Britain's financial bulwark deemed it wise to post as low a rate, namely in May of 1908 and March of 1905.

Crop news of the day lent confirmation to recent adverse advices. Dispatches from the northwest stated that the cool weather of the week, and general rains in North Dakota and Minnesota, had given a check to seeding. From the west came additional word of more or less discouraging conditions, while the damage caused by rains in cotton in some of the southern states was reported to be very heavy.

American stocks were strong in London, presumably due to buying for New York account. London's operations here were inconsiderable, with a small balance on the buying side. Private cables to our bankers indicated that London would proceed cautiously in the conduct of its financial affairs, as a result of the British premier's speech to the home bankers, in which he dwelt on the advisability of giving heed to the present era of labor unrest and warned them against their attitude of "complacent optimism."

Aside from its reduced discount rate, the Bank of England's weekly statement was interesting, in showing an increase in its proportion of reserves to liabilities and a moderate gain in bullion. The German bank statement disclosed a reduction of over $21,000,000 in discounts, of $15,000,000 in loans and a nominal increase of gold. The bank of France reduced its discounts by $36,000,000, and also slightly strengthened its gold holdings.

No change was reported in local money rates, the supply continuing abundant, with demand comparatively light. New York banks have lost thus far this week something like $6,500,000, which is more than double last week's drain.

The bond market maintained a fairly steady tone today, but a few issues tended lower. Totals sales, par value, $2,500,000. United States bonds unchanged.

Money and Exchange.

Time loans easier; 60 days, 3@3¼ per cent; 90 days, 3¼; six months, 3¼@3¾.

Prime mercantile paper, 4 to 4½ per cent.

Government and railroad bonds steady.

Foreign Finances.

Berlin, May 9.—Weekly statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows the following changes:

London, May 9.—Weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes:

Total reserve increased £151,000.

The proportion of the bank reserve to liability this week is 51.20 per cent; last week it was 48.91 per cent.

The rate of discount of the Bank of England was reduced from 3½ to 3 per cent. The reduction was a natural consequence of the bank's stronger reserve brought about through the inflow of gold arrival and the return of cash from the country. The discount houses lowered the market rates to 2¾ per cent and consequently the Bank of England would have found it difficult to make a 3½ per cent rate effective.

Paris, May 9.—The weekly statement of the Bank of France shows the following changes:

Paris, May 9.—Three per cent rentes were 23 centimes for the account. Exchange on London, 25 francs 22½ centimes for checks. Private rate of discount, 3¼ per cent.

Berlin, May 8.—Exchange on London, 20 marks, 46½ pfennigs for checks. Money, 5 per cent. Private rate of discount, 3¾ per cent.

London, May 9.—Bullion amounting to £66,000 was taken into the Bank of England on balance today.

Bombay, May 9.—The rate of discount of the Bank of Bombay was reduced from 6 to 5 per cent today.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, May 9.—At the beginning of business today the condition of the United States treasury was:

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

SHORT ACREAGE ADVANCED WHEAT

The Market Closed Strong and Higher—Corn and Oats Up.

Chicago, May 9.—Prospects that wheat acreage in the northwest would be curtailed, caused the market today to recover nearly all of the loss due to the government report on damage to the winter crop. Closing prices were strong, ¾ to 1⅛ above last night. Other cereals, too, made a net gain—corn ½ to 1⅛, and oats 3-8 to 5-8@¾. Latest trading, however, left provisions varying from unchanged figures to 7½ below.

Bullish speculators took prompt advantage of reports that wheat seeding was badly delayed in the western and northern portions of North Dakota. One of the dispatches asserted that owing to untimely rains, twenty different points in Grand Forks county, North Dakota, showed 25 per cent decrease in acreage. Moreover, interior stocks in the northwest were estimated today as not exceeding 2,000,000 bushels, compared with 10,000,000 last year. News that France had only one-third the normal amount of wheat on hand, after having already bought extensively in Canada, Argentina, and Australia, served to help the buoyancy of the market. In fact, closing prices were within a shade of the best point of the session. July ranged from $1.13 5-8 to $1.14 5-8, with last sales at $1.14⅛@1.14 5-8, a rise of 1⅞c net.

Demand from the southwest incited general buying on corn. There were complaints in that direction, notably from Oklahoma, that seed was rotting in the ground. Bull leaders developed an aggressive spirit and were aided by liberal purchases for country account. July fluctuated from 77 7-8 to 78⅛, closing firm, ½@5-8 up at 78 3-8@78½. Cash grades were strong. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 81½@82.

Alleged discovery that one concern had concentrated a holding of 6,000,000 bushels of oats put strength into the market for that grain. Opinion was divided as to whether the ownership rested in a Chicago house or with a prominent New England operator. July ranged from 54 to 54 7-8 and closed at 54 5-8, an advance of 5-8c over last night.

Provisions sagged in consequence of selling on the part of smaller western packers, who contemplate making the product for delivery. Lard showed the most decline, 7½c.

CRIED: I'M DYING; SID ALLEN DID IT

Some Evidence Shaken.

Other testimony intended to favor Allen seemed to be shaken on cross-examination. Witnesses were sworn to testify that the first shooting came from the court officers. One of these, however, admitted that the first two shots came from where he had seen Sidna and Claude Allen standing. Five men of Carroll county swore that, prior to the shooting, they had heard no ill of any one of the Allens.

Floyd Allen was on trial for a felony when the shooting took place. Employees of a restaurant testified that when the courthouse bell rang on the day of the shooting Wesley Edwards and Friel Allen left their breakfasts and hurried into the court where Allen's jury was ready to return a verdict against their kinsman. Some discrepancies were developed as to that.

the report, the city will have given its moral obligation to make all future payments on the plant, and if this is done, it is believed some private citizen may come forward and agree to underwrite the project for the city.

The members of the health board say that the plan they have recommended is the only feasible one by which the garbage question can be settled. If the finance committee does not adopt the recommendation, the whole plan to erect a garbage plant will fall through and this means that for some years to come the sanitary department must continue to dump filth in the city, where it is sure to create sickness.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

St. Louis, May 9.—Frank J. Bergs, vice president and general manager of a St. Louis coal company, was killed, Virginia Johnson, 12 years old, of Memphis, Tenn., suffered a fracture of the skull that probably will prove fatal, and Miss Grace Bell, of St. Louis, sustained a broken arm and jaw this afternoon when an automobile Bergs was driving was struck by a Missouri Pacific engine at Barrett station, St. Louis county. Mrs. H. P. Johnson, mother of Virginia, was severely bruised.

Bergs, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Johnson, had been entertaining her, her daughter, her sister and Miss Bell at one of the country clubs and the party was returning home at the time of the accident.

M'CABE AND NELSON IN A BITTER CLASH

Washington, May 9.—Solicitor McCabe, of the department of agriculture, and Representative Nelson clashed today before the house committee looking into the latter's resolution calling for an investigation of the meat inspection service. Mr. Nelson had announced he would put on as witness J. W. Burroughs, who resigned from the service a month ago. Mr. McCabe interrupted with the assertion that Burroughs was forced out of the service for borrowing money from packers. Mr. Nelson observed it was the practice of the department to attack the credibility of witnesses who made charges. Both were declared out of order.

Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane testifying again today, asserted the regulations of the department of agriculture were insufficient.

AUTO HILL CLIMB HELD TOMORROW

Under the auspices of the Atlanta Automobile and Accessory Association there is to be held tomorrow, commencing at 1 o'clock, an automobile and motorcycle hill climb contest which promises to be one of the most interesting sporting events of the season.

The scene of this contest will be on Stewart avenue, the same course that has been used on former similar events.

With the exception of the installation of the electric timing apparatus, all necessary arrangements and details have been completed.

It is promised those who witness this contest that they will be treated the fastest and most exciting event of this character that has ever been held in Atlanta.

Practically every car entering will be stripped, and this will permit of attaining much faster speed than if they carried their regulation body and equipment, as has been the case in all former events.

In addition to the six automobile events there will be two motorcycle events, which, it is understood, will have quite a number of contestants.

Handsome trophies will be awarded the winners in all events. The main trophy of the day goes to the car making the fastest time of the day. In addition to this trophy, there are some nineteen others that have been donated.

In addition to the list of entries that have been published heretofore, there were two others that made application yesterday.

These were a National entered by W. J. Stoddard and a Dorris car, entered by W. W. Leathers.

Mission Board Meets.—The mid-year meeting of the board of missions of the North Georgia conference will be held in Baraca hall, Wesley Memorial church, Tuesday evening and Wednesday of next week. The eleven presiding elders of the conference have been invited to meet with the board. Rev. J. E. Dickey will preside. H. Y. McCord, treasurer, will make his semi-annual report. His books will close for this meeting Tuesday morning. Many topics of interest to the elders and the board will be discussed, such as "A Policy for Our Mill People," "The Rural Church and How to Develop Missions Into Self-supporting Charges."

THURSDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.

Met at noon.

Senator Percy urged liberal appropriations for Mississippi river and Senator Newlands said $25,000,000 annually should be expended in its improvement.

Adjourned at 6:38 p. m. until noon Friday.

House.

Met at 11 a. m.

Chairman Pujo, of the so-called money trust investigating committee, announced that banks were responding fully to committee's inquiries.

Representative Taggart introduced resolution calling for investigation of Western Newspaper Union of Omaha to ascertain whether it violated Sherman anti-trust law.

The new bureau, by the terms of a provision suggested by the members of the ways and means committee and by Representative Swager Sherley, of Kentucky, is required to make such special investigations and reports as may be ordered by the president or either branch of congress. This, in the opinion of the democratic leaders, marks the distinction between it and the Taft tariff board, which is only responsible to the president.

COMMERCE COURT HIT BY JUDGE ADAMSON

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, May 9.—(Special.)—"The commerce court has justified all the predictions I made about it at the time of its creation," said Representative Adamson, of Georgia, today in a vigorous speech in which he stingingly criticised the court.

He said the court had put an obstacle in the way of the interstate commerce commission and prevented that body, which had the confidence and support of the people, from carrying out the law.

"Instead of simplifying legal procedure," he said, "the practical result of the court's creation was to complicate procedure so that it was in the interest of the corporations and against the interest of the people. The railroads were enabled to maintain one or two lawyers to look after all their business, both before the commission and the commerce court, and were pleased with the delays and endless ...ments in the final settlement of cases.

"The public who complained of rates were at a decided disadvantage," he said, "by being forced to come many hundreds, and even thousands, of miles and try their cases, instead of being able to have them adjudicated by the courts nearer home.

"In addition, the client may have his legal representative overruled by the attorney general of the United States, who has power to control the case to the exclusion of the paid attorney, and may give away a case which the client's own attorney believes he can win.

"I predicted that the purpose of the court was to prevent the interstate commerce commission from regulating the carriers. The appointment of its judges and the history of the court have justified that prediction. All the objections I urged to its creation now argue with increased strength in favor of its abolition."

Though no reference was made by Representative Adamson to the charges pending against Judge Archbald, of the commerce court, he undoubtedly had that case in mind.

MOSLEM TEACHERS GOOD FOR NEGROES

Kansas City, May 9.—A note of warning against neglecting the negro in the United States while propagating the faith in foreign countries was sounded by Dr. W. W. Breckett, of New York, general secretary of missions, before the conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church which resumed sessions here today. Dr. Breckett commended the missionary work in Africa and other foreign climes, but added there was a broad field for the same kind of work at home.

Dr. A. Henry Attaway, president of Edward Walters' College, Jacksonville, Fla., declared that the furtherance of Christian education was the solution of the negro problem. His views were indorsed by Dr. W. A. Fountain, of Morris Brown College, Atlanta, Ga.

The negro has become more of a man under Mohammedan than under Christian teachers, according to Bishop C. S. Smith, who, in an address today, said that the white man caused the negro to look upon him as a master, while the Mohammedan teacher taught him to bow his head only to Allah.

The total receipts in the Sunday school department for the last four years were $148,805, an increase over the previous four years of $47,995, according to a report.

Mrs. Jennie Baker.

The funeral services of Mrs. Jennie Baker, who died on Wednesday, will be held this morning at 11 o'clock in the Wesley Chapel, and the interment will be in the churchyard.
